You Ain't Seen Nothin' Yet, Probe Prosecutor Predicts

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT: St. Joseph Atty. Robert Locke leaves courtroom Wednesday after being arraigned on a charge of embezzlement. Locke was indicted by Berrien county citizens' grand jury.

BY SCOTT WILLIAMSON
Staff Writer

"We would anticipate you ain't seen nothin' yet," declared Berrien Assistant Prosecutor Michael Marrs Wednesday in the wake of citizens' grand jury indictments against two St. Joseph attorneys.

Marrs made the comment after the arraignments of Atty. Thomas McCoy, charged with perjury, and Atty. Robert B. Locke, charged with embezzlement.

Marrs, one of the principal prosecutors in the grand jury probe, said the phrase "you ain't seen nothin' yet" is one his former boss, famed corruption buster and former U.S. Atty. James Thompson, used during grand jury investigations in Illinois.

Asked if he expected more indictments, Berrien Prosecutor John A. Smietanka during a press conference declared: "These will not be the only indictments to come down." He noted more are "anticipated in the future" but could give no idea of when.

McCoy, 48, of 712 Wyndwickie road, and Locke, 64, of Box 307 Chaparral road, both of Royalton township, demanded examinations on the respective charges when arraigned before District Judge Ronald J. Taylor and were released on personal recognizance bonds. No date was set for the preliminary examinations. The charges are not related.

McCoy is accused of perjuring himself during a June 25, 1975, civil trial in Berrien Circuit court to determine the title in a real estate case involving five parcels of land which were transferred in three deeds.

Marrs said the indictment was based on trial testimony in which McCoy allegedly testified that a woman named Emma Brown was present in his office Dec. 27, 1966, when three deeds were executed, and that both Oscar and Emma Brown signed the deeds that day. The Browns are mother and son.

Smietanka said the prosecution alleges that on Dec. 27 and in a period before that date Mrs. Brown was not in Berrien county "and could not have signed those deeds at that time."

McCoy denied perjuring himself and after his court appearance told a reporter for The Herald-Palladium: "I did not intentionally or willfully lie in any court on anything."

"I've never done anything wrong, and I believe I'm being persecuted, not prosecuted," That statement was in reference to other charges against McCoy by the prosecutor's office of conspiring to obtain a total of $24,372 from Beaudou-Stueland Electric Co. in St. Joseph with two other men. McCoy is awaiting circuit court arraignment on those charges.

"I testified to the best of my memory—I didn't do anything wrong," McCoy emphasized. He said in regard to the perjury charge he took a polygraph test in Chicago March 18 and was asked questions by the examiner about not telling the truth. "And the results indicated there was no lying." He said the test was administered by the polygraph firm of John Reed Associates.

Locke is charged with embezzling $18,974 from Oct. 21, 1975, up to March 12, from a South Bend businessman, John McGulpin.

Smietanka said the charge alleges Locke "came into possession of the money as the attorney for McGulpin as part of an escrow account, and used the money for his own purposes."

The prosecutor's office previously said McGulpin, a Niles resident, formed a corporation to purchase the former Red Rooster lounge in South Bend, and gave money to Locke to hold in escrow until a liquor license was transferred.

Smietanka said he felt the first two indictments were "extremely difficult emotionally" because they were against attorneys. But he added: "It's essential if evidence of this type is presented (that the cases go to trial) for a jury to decide whether (the person) is guilty or innocent."

If convicted, Locke could face a maximum penalty of 10 years imprisonment and a $5,000 fine, while McCoy, if convicted of perjury, could face a 15 year prison sentence.

The 17-member grand jury has been meeting in closed sessions since late February to investigate what Smietanka labeled "official corruption and numerous unsolved crimes."

The grand jury indictment is similar to a police officer giving probable cause to a judge for issuance of a warrant. When the grand jury returns an indictment, a circuit judge signs the warrant, and the person indicted then goes through the normal district and circuit court proceedings.

Bar Exam Fees Boosted

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Fees charged prospective attorneys to take bar examinations will increase under a bill signed into law Wednesday by Gov. William Milliken. Fees will jump from $40 to $75 for the original exam, from $30 to $50 for re-examinations and from $75 to $100 for applications for admission to the State Bar without examination. Milliken also signed a bill permitting a single school district or a combination of districts with at least 12,000 students to establish an area vocational-technical education program.

Former Bank Veep Sued For $210,000

BY DENNIS COGSWELL
Paw Paw Bureau

PAW PAW — An insurance company has filed a lawsuit here against a former Hartford bank official to recover what the firm paid to cover a 1974 loss of bank funds.

The suit seeks $210,181 from Leroy Walter Sherman, former vice president of the Van Buren State bank in Hartford. Sherman was sentenced in federal court in 1974 on a charge of misapplying $185,400 of bank funds.

The suit was filed by Continental Insurance company in circuit court here.

According to the suit, the bank had contracted with the firm to cover any loss through employee misappropriation of funds and that as a result of the 1974 case had paid the bank $210,181.

The suit alleges that as a result of the 1974 case the bank lost a total of $254,861, of which the insurance company paid $210,181.

According to the U.S. Attorney's office in Grand Rapids, the entire amount Sherman pleaded guilty to misapplying was transferred to the account of a Lawrence firm. At the time, a spokesman for the attorney's office said he believed officials of the firm were unaware that the transfers had been made.

Sherman had reportedly handled the firm's accounts since before it was purchased by its 1974 owners.

Sherman's employment at the bank was terminated at the time of the disclosure of the transfers.

He was sentenced to five years probation and given a suspended three-year jail sentence as a result of his guilty plea to the federal charge in federal court.

The charge alleged the funds had been misapplied between 1967 to June, 1974.

Bread Is Accused Of Being Too Long

By STEVE SAGER
Staff Writer

Did you hear the one about the loaf of bread that's accused of being too long?

Neither did Berrien Fifth District Judge John T. Hammond until Tuesday when his courtroom resembled a bakery as 12 loaves of bread were brought in as exhibits during a non-jury trial for an alleged violation of the Michigan bread pan law.

No decision was reached on the case Tuesday and Hammond has taken it under advisement.

Accused of the violation was Bonnie Baking, Inc., a Laporte, Ind., bakery.

Hammond said the law regulates the size of bread pans, but in effect means a 24-ounce loaf of all-white, packaged bread that is sold at a retail store cannot be over 15 inches in length at the top or four inches in width at the top. The little-known law has been in effect since 1942.

He added the law is to protect consumers who think they are getting a better buy by purchasing the longer loaves.

According to Sam Hansen, regional superintendent of the Food Inspection division of the Michigan Department of Agriculture (MDA), the Bonnie firm was one of three out-of-state bakeries charged with violating the law late last year.

Hansen said the other two firms, Kream of South Bend and Ward Bakeries of Chicago, pleaded guilty to the charges and paid fines and court costs.

Hansen said prior to bringing the charges against the three firms they were each warned.

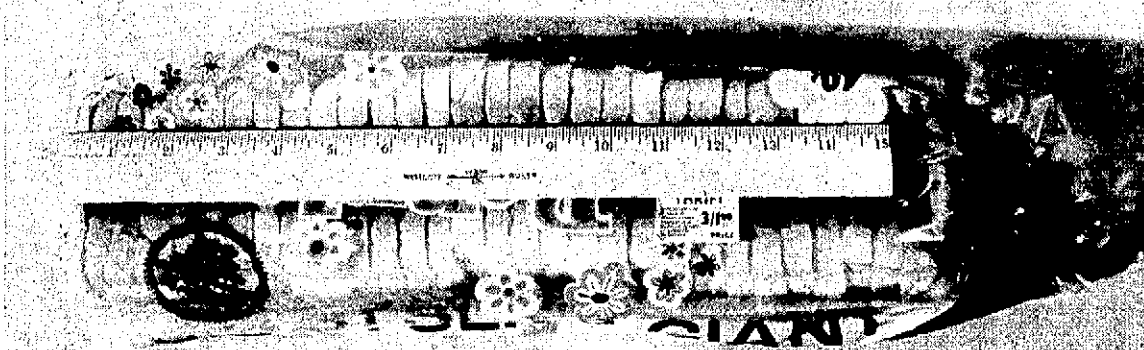

Bonnie Baking, Inc., entered a plea of innocent and was represented by St. Joseph Atty. James McQuillan Tuesday. According to Hammond, the alleged violation involved a loaf of bread from Bonnie Bakeries that was obtained at the Family Food, 1804 South M-130, Benton township, by James Burrows, food inspector for the Berrien county office of the MDA.

Hammond said the defense contested the case on a number of different points, most notably the constitutionality of the law. As part of the defense a number of loaves of bread obtained from area stores and in violation of the law were brought into court as the defense claimed there was discriminatory enforcement of the law in favor of Michigan bakeries.

According to Hammond, John Timba, president of Bonite Baking, Inc., said for his firm to reach compliance with the law he would have to replace 2,500 bread pans (each pan holds five loaves). The pans reportedly cost a total of $50,000.

The matter also had its humorous side as Hammond entered the courtroom, looked at the loaves of bread and said, "Where's the balance?"

LOAF TOO LONG? Length of loaf of bread is an issue in Berrien Fifth District court trial. Michigan bread pan law regulates length of loaf according to its weight, and a 24-ounce loaf shouldn't be more than 15 inches long. Constitutionality of law is being challenged.

Atty. S.T. Roumell Of New Buffalo Dies

NEW BUFFALO — "New Buffalo's where I want to live — New Buffalo's where I want to be buried."

Those were the sentiments of Atty. Stephen T. Roumell, a resident and practicing attorney here for 35 years. Mr. Roumell died Wednesday, March 24, at 11:17 p.m. (Indiana time) in Memorial hospital, Michigan City, after a long illness. He was 69.

A family spokesman said this morning he had lived to see the fulfillment of his most cherished dream, a harbor at New Buffalo and a new bridge spanning the Galien river. The new Whittaker street bridge was opened following a short ceremony last Nov. 7.

Atty. Roumell was there, not feeling well, the spokesman said, but determined to add the crowning touch to his memories.

Completion of the harbor project marked the culmination of at least 25 years of Mr.

Roumell's effort to bring the harbor to New Buffalo.

Mr. Roumell came to New Buffalo 38 years ago as a novice attorney from Detroit. At first he worked for the Internal Revenue service and three years later opened his private practice at 17 West Merchant street.

Active in civic affairs, he served as attorney for about 25 years to several administrations both before and after New Buffalo became a city. He also served a short time as magistrate.

He was a member of the New Buffalo Rod and Gun club, the New Buffalo Yacht club, the Lions, the Shriners and the Three Oaks chapter of the Masons.

He was a member of the Greek Orthodox church, Benton Harbor, and the Church of the Mediator, Harbort.

Surviving are his wife, Vilma, editor and publisher of the New Buffalo Times weekly newspaper; four daughters, Neena Rich, Grosse Pointe; Stephanie Stern, New York City; Mariana Gasteyer, Washington D.C.; and Michelle, Chicago; four grandchildren; two brothers, Thomas, Detroit; and Louis, Clinton, Mich.

Mr. Roumell was born Aug. 16, 1906, in Athens, Greece. He came to the United States with his parents at the age of 15 and worked his way through the Detroit College of Law while working at night in his father's

St. Joseph Law Firm Dissolved

The St. Joseph law firm of Locke, Parish and Yingst has been dissolved, according to Atty. Tat Parish. Parish said he and Atty. Robert Yingst are now practicing separately but in the same offices at 206 Court street.

Parish declined to comment on whether the indictment of Atty. Robert B. Locke was responsible for dissolution of the firm.

Were it left to me to decide whether we should have government without newspapers or newspapers without government, I should not hesitate to prefer the latter. — Thomas Jefferson.

Ever Hear Of 'Taxation Without Representation'?

"Taxation without representation" was one of the major beefs American revolutionaries had against English King George III.

Two-hundred intervening years of history have apparently dulled the memory of officials of the Michigan Education Association.

The state's largest teachers' union is seeking legislation to allow state officials to raise the state income tax up to six times a year to guarantee appropriations to schools and universities.

The MEA proposal would, according to the Associated Press, allow the state Department of Management and Budget to raise taxes without legislative approval. The boost would be allowed if officials discover state revenues are too low to meet budgeted school aid payments and commitments to state colleges and universities.

The AP quoted MEA executive director Herman Coleman as saying that the legislation is necessary so the state's school districts can plan their programs without the threat of funding cuts.

The MEA is correct if it contends that the Michigan Legislature has not distinguished itself with outstanding fiscal planning during the past two years of lackluster business conditions. Nevertheless, it's still highly likely that the majority of taxpayers prefer to have the power to raise taxes left with their elected representatives, the legislators, than with some faceless bureaucrat.

It's ironic that teachers, who are supposed to know the lessons of history, picked the 200th anniversary of the Revolution to endorse one of the tyrannies that brought the revolt about.

There is a practical as well as philosophic objection to the MEA proposal.

Bureaucratic power to raise taxes without representation would, with great speed and certainty, encourage school boards and college trustees to raise budgets. And they've been doing that fast enough already.

One can sympathize with the concern that teachers are feeling about layoffs caused by the pinch between the inflating cost of education and the uncertainty of tax revenues. But the same sympathy has also to be extended to workers in private industry who get laid off because of economic conditions. Yet no one has proposed automatic tax increases to keep private workers employed. Nor should they.

The power to tax is the power to control, to coerce, to destroy. Even with that power in the hands of representative government, the tax burden in this country is rapidly becoming confiscatory.

To turn the taxing power over to vested bureaucracy would be the only invitation needed for the ghost of King George to return to the throne.

Limiting The Protection Of Reputation

From the days of Moses it has been a thread in the philosophical pattern under which any formalized government functions that it is wrongful for one person to circulate a falsity against another.

The Mosaic law expressly forbids the practice, specially when the accuser's target was someone in authority. Seemingly, though, the ancient Hebrew code did not specify a penalty for the infraction.

The Law of the Twelve Tables, written 300 years after the founding of Rome, was more specific. It provided that whoever slandered another by words or defamatory verses should be beaten by a club.

This heritage passed to England and in turn came on to our country. The difference between the 20th century American version of libel and slander and its Biblical progenitor is the complexity which the courts and the legislatures have introduced into the subject.

This week by a sharply divided 5-3 decision, the Supreme Court took a stab at defining the philosophical basis upon which rests a person's entitlement to a good reputation within the community in which he resides.

Five years ago the Louisville, Kentucky, police department arrested Edward Charles Davis III, a newspaper photographer, on a shoplifting charge. The case went into a back file for further disposition upon his entering a not guilty plea.

Eighteen months later the police circulated a flyer among 800 merchants in the Louisville area warning them of suspected shoplifters doing business in that vicinity. The flyer listed Davis' photograph and name as a potential hazard.

Shortly thereafter the charge was dropped against him.

Davis promptly filed suit in federal court against the police authorities for damages in libel, charging the flyer deprived him of his Constitutional guaranty of not to be deprived of life, liberty and property without due process of law.

The trial and appellate courts sustained his contention.

The Supreme Court's majority reversed, saying Davis should have invoked the assistance of the Kentucky courts under the local laws on defamation.

While conceding that governmental officials under some circumstances are personally responsible for defaming a private individual's name and character, the majority said prior rulings by the court do not uphold the theory that every defamation by a public official is a deprivation of liberty. It elaborated in pointing out that Davis had failed to show a more substantial injury such as the loss of his job, an occurrence which previous decisions held to be compensable in money damages.

The minority opinion said the majority's opinion poses frightening consequences to a free people.

The decision is one of those amber light rulings so common, unnecessarily so in our judgment, to appellate court declaration.

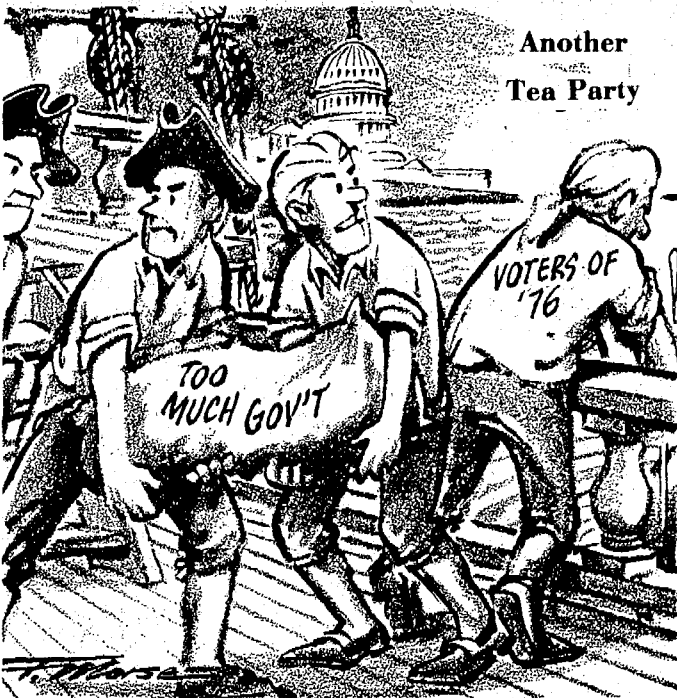

It is a policy statement by the majority warning that too many people are running into federal court to enforce various claims which the five justices feel should be disposed in the local courts back home.

In a word, waving the Constitution in the air is no more the description of a federal case than is saluting the flag the ultimate test in patriotism.

From that standpoint, the majority view is commendable in an effort to unclog the federal dockets from too many suits which do not properly belong there.

The opinion, majority and minority together, however, still leaves dangling whether the right to a good name is a personal liberty or a property right, or a mixture.

It may well be, though, that the justices believe an unsullied reputation should be kept free floating like thistle-down, becoming a new plant depending on where it might light.

Child With Border-Line Handicap Is Special Problem, Says Reader

Editor,

I am writing this letter in regard to the many children in this area with learning disabilities. Children with this problem often don't fit in well with other groups. They have a difficult time with children of normal IQ, nor do they manage well with the retarded. There seems no place for the border-line child. They are a citizen without a name. There are many programs for the retarded children and this is wonderful. Special education has also done a great job. But we need activities for these children that are considered border-line. Especially the teens.

I will be very interested in hearing from any parents with this problem. If there are activities that I am unaware of, please inform me. I will be expecting to hear from you.

Russians Are Moving Ahead

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The problem with defense spending is not that the Soviet Union has overall better weapons today than the United States. It doesn't. Or that it is spending more.

The problem is that the Soviet Union today has an imaginative, superbly designed military research program headed by first-rate scientists.

Despite wastes in the Soviet system, Russian military scientists are moving ahead at a more rapid pace than their American counterparts. This is very surprising, in view of our nation's scientific history and national pride in inventiveness.

These Russian scientific advances could mean that the U.S. may, a decade or two from now, find itself saddled with an expensive collection of second-rate weapons.

Some Soviet advances are the broad-and-butter developments which make possible major cost reductions. They have moved ahead in casting techniques so far that their cast components are as strong as forgings in the U.S. Our scientific sources say the Russians now lead in welding technology and in titanium fabrication.

The USSR is moving ahead rapidly in plasma physics and in magneto-hydrodynamic power generation. It leads the U.S. in some areas of laser research and there are indications Moscow may be moving toward the development of laser weapons.

The Russians are ahead in high pressure physics, in some areas of high-frequency radio-wave propagation, in chemical warfare and in significant areas of artillery technology.

The Soviet race of progress is exemplified by the work of Russian scientists in anti-aircraft systems. The newest Russian weapons operational in the early 1970s were a decade behind ours. But our counterpart of their newest command-guided missile system is still under development.

All is not, however, in the Soviets' favor.

The U.S. leads in such dollar-saving research as the use of computers for design and simulation, in integrated-circuit fabrication, in numerically-controlled machine tools, in inertial instrumentation, in the development of composite materials and in satellite-borne sensor technology.

We are well ahead in the development of radars for surveillance, bombing and air-to-air combat, in the vitally important field of computers and computer applications, in some very important areas of high-energy laser development, in the key field of precision guidance, and we have come from behind to significantly outpace the Russians in advanced research on superior types of cruise missiles.

Most importantly, the U.S., unlike the Soviet Union, has a civilian research industry which can and does furnish a major backup for military research. In the end, this backup could be crucial.

Media Ignored The Rebellion

A bomb actually went off during the New Hampshire presidential primary, only almost no one heard it. The odds are, certainly, that you didn't.

Several weeks ago in this column I began with the following sentence: "Though you have not heard much about him from the media so far, an extremely interesting and intelligent little time bomb is ticking away in the New Hampshire primary."

Well, in due course, as the votes came in, tick, tick, That bomb went off. The national media paid no attention at all.

The extraordinary fact happens to be that a Californian, Wallace Johnson, running ostensibly as a Republican candidate for vice president, received 35,483 votes in New Hampshire.

A former mayor of Berkeley, California (1963-1971), Johnson ran explicitly as a protest candidate. He freely admitted that he did not expect to gain the vice presidency.

Last July, as a rider to a minor seven-line long postal safety bill, Congress voted itself a pay raise. More important, Congress added provisions that in effect index congressional salaries to inflation each year without the need of further embarrassing votes on the issue.

This was a gorgeous measure to contemplate. With a quick vote and a stroke of President Gerald Ford's pen, Congress had completely insulated itself from the effects of inflation. Some 85 per cent of the American public enjoys no such privilege. This scheme, in fact, gives Congress a kind of vested interest in inflation.

Wallace Johnson caused a good deal of consternation among the "major" candidates in New Hampshire. He campaigned actively, as his total vote would suggest, and he received almost unanimous support in the local press. Both Jimmy Carter and Ronald Reagan declared themselves in favor of repealing the Inflation Protection measure.

Close to the grassroots on this issue, N.H. Congressman James Cleveland co-authored House Resolution 9388, which would repeal the Inflation Protection.

The issue Wallace Johnson zeroed in on was by no means a local or eccentric one. Last August, in a lead editorial on Sunday morning, the Los Angeles Times excoriated the Congressional Inflation Protection measure, concluding: "What Congress has done is vote itself a permanent safeguard against inflation at a time when citizens who pay the tab have little or no protection against its impact. We and others have been critical before of the hasty, furtive manner in which it was done. But the 'inside story,' as told by the plotters themselves (in an anonymous Congressional Quarterly article), can only heighten the nation's disgust."

New Hampshire voters were disgusted, all right, but no one heard about it. Wouldn't you think that when 24 of 25 voters in the election-day-familiar town of Dixville Notch voted for Wallace Johnson, the media would have been curious? Wouldn't you think that when Wallace Johnson got 50 per cent more votes than Jimmy Carter that Walter Cronkite would have paid attention?

Were it left to me to decide whether we should have government without newspapers or newspapers without government, I should not hesitate to prefer the latter. — Thomas Jefferson.

Ever Hear Of 'Taxation Without Representation'?

"Taxation without representation" was one of the major beefs American revolutionaries had against English King George III.

Two-hundred intervening years of history have apparently dulled the memory of officials of the Michigan Education Association.

The state's largest teachers' union is seeking legislation to allow state officials to raise the state income tax up to six times a year to guarantee appropriations to schools and universities.

The MEA proposal would, according to the Associated Press, allow the state Department of Management and Budget to raise taxes without legislative approval. The boost would be allowed if officials discover state revenues are too low to meet budgeted school aid payments and commitments to state colleges and universities.

The AP quoted MEA executive director Herman Coleman as saying that the legislation is necessary so the state's school districts can plan their programs without the threat of funding cuts.

The MEA is correct if it contends that the Michigan Legislature has not distinguished itself with outstanding fiscal planning during the past two years of lackluster business conditions. Nevertheless, it's still highly likely that the majority of taxpayers prefer to have the power to raise taxes left with their elected representatives, the legislators, than with some faceless bureaucrat.

It's ironic that teachers, who are supposed to know the lessons of history, picked the 200th anniversary of the Revolution to endorse one of the tyrannies that brought the revolt about.

There is a practical as well as philosophic objection to the MEA proposal.

Bureaucratic power to raise taxes without representation would, with great speed and certainty, encourage school boards and college trustees to raise budgets. And they've been doing that fast enough already.

One can sympathize with the concern that teachers are feeling about layoffs caused by the pinch between the inflating cost of education and the uncertainty of tax revenues. But the same sympathy has also to be extended to workers in private industry who get laid off because of economic conditions. Yet no one has proposed automatic tax increases to keep private workers employed. Nor should they.

The power to tax is the power to control, to coerce, to destroy. Even with that power in the hands of representative government, the tax burden in this country is rapidly becoming confiscatory.

To turn the taxing power over to vested bureaucracy would be the only invitation needed for the ghost of King George to return to the throne.

Limiting The Protection Of Reputation

From the days of Moses it has been a thread in the philosophical pattern under which any formalized government functions that it is wrongful for one person to circulate a falsity against another.

The Mosaic law expressly forbids the practice, specially when the accuser's target was someone in authority. Seemingly, though, the ancient Hebraic code did not specify a penalty for the infraction.

The Law of the Twelve Tables, written 300 years after the founding of Rome, was more specific. It provided that whoever slandered another by words or defamatory verses should be beaten by a club.

This heritage passed to England and in turn came on to our country. The difference between the 20th century American version of libel and slander and its Biblical progenitor is the complexity which the courts and the legislatures have introduced into the subject.

This week by a sharply divided 5-3 decision, the Supreme Court took a stab at defining the philosophical basis upon which rests a person's entitlement to a good reputation within the community in which he resides.

Five years ago the Louisville, Kentucky, police department arrested Edward Charles Davis III, a newspaper photographer, on a shoplifting charge. The case went into a back file for further disposition upon his entering a not guilty plea.

Eighteen months later the police circulated a flyer among 800 merchants in the Louisville area warning them of suspected shoplifters doing business in that vicinity. The flyer listed Davis' photograph and name as a potential hazard.

Shortly thereafter the charge was dropped against him.

Davis promptly filed suit in federal court against the police authorities for damages in libel, charging the flyer deprived him of his Constitutional guaranty of not to be deprived of life, liberty and property without due process of law.

The trial and appellate courts sustained his contention.

The Supreme Court's majority reversed, saying Davis should have invoked the assistance of the Kentucky courts under the local laws on defamation.

While conceding that governmental officials under some circumstances are personally responsible for defaming a private individual's name and character, the majority said prior rulings by the court do not uphold the theory that every defamation by a public official is a deprivation of liberty. It elaborated in pointing out that Davis had failed to show a more substantial injury such as the loss of his job, an occurrence which previous decisions held to be compensable in money damages.

The minority opinion said the majority's opinion poses frightening consequences to a free people.

The decision is one of those amber light rulings so common, unnecessarily so in our judgment, to appellate court declaration.

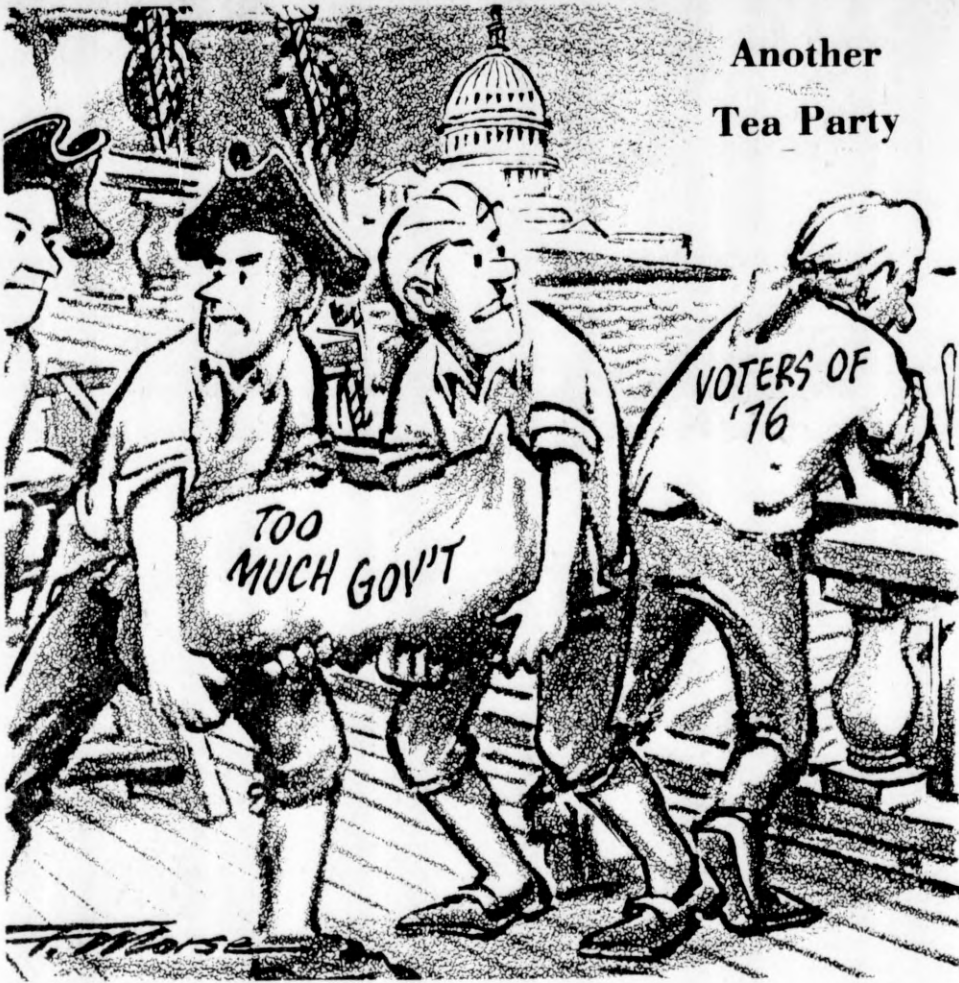

It is a policy statement by the majority warning that too many people are running into federal court to enforce various claims which the five justices feel should be disposed in the local courts back home.

In a word, waving the Constitution in the air is no more the description of a federal case than is saluting the flag the ultimate test in patriotism.

From that standpoint, the majority view is commendable in an effort to unclog the federal dockets from too many suits which do not properly belong there.

The opinion, majority and minority together, however, still leaves dangling whether the right to a good name is a personal liberty or a property right, or a mixture.

It may well be, though, that the justices believe an unsullied reputation should be kept free floating like thistledown, becoming a new plant depending on where it might light.

Child With Border-Line Handicap Is Special Problem, Says Reader

Editor,

I am writing this letter in regard to the many children in this area with learning disabilities. Children with this problem often don't fit in well with other groups. They have a difficult time with children of normal IQ, nor do they manage well with the retarded. There seems no place for the border-line child. They are a citizen without a name. There are many programs for the retarded children and this is wonderful. Special education has also done a great job. But we need activities for these children that are considered border-line. Especially the teens.

I will be very interested in hearing from any parents with this problem. If there are activities that I am unaware of, please inform me, I will be expecting to hear from you.

SAYS STORIES 'UNCONFIRMED'

Editor,

You have done it again. Once more you have published a story unconfirmed by either party about a Mall to be built.

About 12 years ago you published a lead story in the then News-Palladium about a great Mall to be built on the flats area of Benton Harbor. Several stores were named as anchor stores. Only an option had been taken on this property.

I know of one business that wanted to stay in Benton Harbor, but had to move to Pipestone Industrial area because the city had removed their building under urban renewal and they had no land available.

Several downtown merchants made plans to relocate before the Mall was built. From that time on no one would spend any money to remodel a building or open a business in Benton Harbor.

Now again you publish a lead story about a big Mall based only on rumor.

This is a regular practice of Mall promoters. If they can get a story published, it accomplishes two things. It keeps present businesses from expanding and it creates interest from prospective renters for the Mall.

If you have a legitimate lease to write about, O.K. but let's not publish stories based on rumors.

Blast Injures SJ Student In Ann Arbor

David Hammer, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hammer, John Beers road, Stevensville, was injured Tuesday in a chemical explosion in a laboratory at University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

DAVID HAMMER
Injured in explosion

Mrs. Hammer told The Herald-Palladium her son sustained many cuts on the body, but the eyes and face were not damaged. He was released after treatment at University of Michigan hospital.

She said she understood "it was a miracle he survived" because of the force of the explosion.

Ann Arbor firemen said no fire resulted but damage was severe to the immediate area.

Mrs. Hammer said David told her he had just opened a newly arrived container of a chemical and was about to dip some out when the explosion occurred.

He was working alone in the laboratory at the time.

Hammer was co-salutatorian of the Lakeshore high school class of 1969. He has a master's degree in chemical engineering from University of Michigan and currently is working on a Ph.D. and also doing research and teaching.

Medical experts last night at a mini-symposium on hypertension challenged the overflow audience to work together in organizing a blood pressure program for Berrien county.

The symposium, held at the Forum of Memorial hospital, St. Joseph, was sponsored by the University of Michigan Alumni club of Benton Harbor-St. Joseph, with the cooperation of the Berrien County Health department and the endorsement of the Berrien County Medical society.

Free blood pressure checks were given to members of the audience prior to the symposium.

Speakers were Dr. John Carter, St. Joseph; Dr. James Greene, Kalamazoo; Janet Stoner, B.S., and Sharon Stiles, B.S.N., M.S., both of Kalamazoo, and Bruce Brock, M.P.H., from the University of Michigan School of Public Health.

A serious problem in the United States as well as Berrien county, hypertension, or high blood pressure is a subtle condition, described as "Public Health Enemy No. 1," and too often goes undetected, according to the speakers.

They said it is the major cause of heart attacks, heart failures, strokes and kidney disease, yet when detected it can usually be lowered and kept under control.

Blood pressure clinics and programs throughout the country help to educate, diagnose and treat people with hypertension, the speakers said.

According to Stiles and Stoner, who were instrumental in the development of an effective blood pressure program in Kalamazoo, national statistics on hypertension have recently shown considerable improvement. A report from the United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare estimates that 75 per cent of the people in the country who have high blood pressure are aware of it, and 30 per cent of those people are being treated adequately for it. Previously, the estimate was that only 50 per cent of those having the condition were aware of it, and only 10 per cent were being treated adequately.

Stiles and Stoner said they believe that part of the reason for this improvement is the increase in the number of blood pressure programs throughout the country.

Dr. Carter said latest estimated statistics for Berrien county say there are approximately 17,000 people with hypertension, 2,100 being adequately treated.

These statistics show the need for a hypertension program in the county, he said.

Hypertension is the "silent killer," according to Dr. Greene, and because people who suffer from it have no outward signs, a major problem is the difficulty in convincing people to "follow a controlled program for treatment for the rest of their lives."

Brock described the steps individuals in a community may take to organize an effective hypertension program, and told the audience, "It's up to you to pull yourself together" and organize a program for Berrien county.

On Vacation

Break-In Suspects Arrested

Two young Benton Harbor men were arrested by city police Wednesday on charges of breaking and entering, one at a Benton Harbor apartment, the other at a city dry cleaners.

Booked at the Berrien county jail were Roscoe Fleming, 17, of 1150 Union street, and Herbert Roosevelt Williams, Jr., 17, of 121 Sherman court.

One of the break-ins occurred last Friday at the Empire Cleaners, 190 West Empire avenue, the other March 17 at the apartment of Robin Franklin, 124 East May street. Clothing and $83 in cash from the cleaners, and a portable television, record player and $10 in change from the Franklin residence, have not been recovered, police reported.

SECOND FERRIS MUSIC CENTER: Featuring everything in music from pianos to guitar strings, Joe Ferris has opened a second music store at 5710 St. Joseph avenue, Stevensville. ## May 10 Presentation General admission tickets for Civic Benefit club's presentation, "1776," will go on sale Friday, March 26, according to ticket chairmen, Mrs. John (Jan) Helsley and Mrs. David (Carol) Siewert.

The touring production of the musical will be presented Monday, May 10, at 8 p.m. in the Lakeshore high school auditorium.

General admission tickets will be $7.50 with student tickets at $3. Patron tickets which include a reserved seat are $12.50. Patron chairmen from whom tickets may be secured are Mrs. Willis (Norma) Koonz and Mrs. Jerry (Jan) Reimann.

General admission tickets may be purchased from any Civic Benefit member and will be available at Gillespie's Drugs, St. Joseph; Bad's Drugs, Coloma; Stanek's Pharmacy, Stevensville; Kendore Gifts, Fairplain plaza, Benton Harbor, and at Alice Kurth's Gifts, South Haven.

They will also be available at Gateway, Berrien Springs, and at the St. Joseph Art Center, St. Joseph.

Proceeds will benefit Gateway, a non-profit corporation headquartered in Berrien Springs which is designed to provide vocationally related services to physically, mentally, and emotionally handicapped adults.

Also benefiting will be the St. Joseph Art center, 600 State street, St. Joseph, which is operated by the St. Joseph Art association. Funds will be used toward a ceramic studio and workshop with a kiln and potters wheel for which Civic Benefit raised initial funds in 1975.

Gateway is a 12,500 square foot facility which brought together clients formerly served at the Niles workshop in Niles and Maple Grove in Benton Harbor, extending services to all kinds of handicapped people and developing needed new programs.

The programs include: Work Activity Center: Approximately two-thirds of the clients are in this program, working on sub-contract jobs and Gateway's own products for which they are paid on a basis relative to their productive abilities.

Also involved is training toward new job skills, improving work habits, attitude adjustment and behavioral modification. Goals of this program are to prepare for employment in the Sheltered Workshop or for continued meaningful activities in the center.

Sheltered Workshop: Approximately 25 per cent of the clients are in this program which is a real shop, like any other industry, working on sub-contract jobs or Gateway products, but in a sheltered atmosphere.

The goals are to develop work skills and to learn to function in the world of work with self-confidence, satisfaction, and personal gain. Placement in competitive employment outside the workshop is the ultimate objective.

Jobs subcontracted from local industries are done in Gateway's shop, providing training as well as a pay check for the client.

Vocational Evaluation: This program provides a professional assessment of the vocational potentials of the individual. This is to facilitate placement in a job and to assist in the vocational development of the client. This service is purchased by agencies and groups such as Berrien county intermediate school district, vocational rehabilitation services, insurance companies, schools, and industries.

Work Adjustment: This highly specialized program is for the person who needs assistance in adjusting to the demands of the world of work. Changes in work habits, attitudes, and behavior are part of a concentrated service also sold to similar agencies as the vocational evaluation program.

In the work adjustment program, the client is placed in the Sheltered Workshop, on the production line, under close supervision for a period of several weeks during which time the goals are set and tools for behavioral change are applied. Placement in the Sheltered Workshop or outside industry is the desired result.

Activities Of Daily Living: Approximately 50 per cent of Gateway's clients have spent a major portion of their lives in a state institution for the mentally handicapped. They have recently been placed in the community in foster homes, nursing homes, or other living facilities, and have need for training in self care, home care, basic education, arts and crafts, community and social affairs. Every Gateway client spends one-fifth of his time in ADL activities.

The touring company production of "1776" will recreate history, telling the story of the summer of 1776 when a wrangling, bickering body of men in Philadelphia forged a new nation out of 13 separate colonies.

In addition to the ticket and patron chairmen, committee for Civic Benefit includes Mrs. John (Margaret) Howard and Mrs. John (Marianne) Schram, co-chairmen; Mrs. Scott (Merrily) Mahon, Mrs. Robert (Ann) McDowell, and Mrs. Fred (Janet) Reddel, advertising; Mrs. Robert (Pat) Strouse and Mrs. John (Marilyn) Gersonde, publicity; Mrs. Rodney (Sheri) Alexander, finance, and Mrs. Kenneth (Connie) Reimann and Mrs. James (Liddy) Riccioni, hospitality.

HEART DISEASE

Many Factors For Prevention

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF. — How can I avoid getting coronary heart disease? More and more men die today because of it. Doctors and research scientists say there is no definite or infallible answer as yet.

Diet plays a large part in the attempted answers. So do exercise, not smoking, heredity and environment. All these are called risk factors. The fear of increasing cholesterol in the blood has blinded people to other factors, such as the need to combat high blood pressure.

So don't rely solely on diet or on exercise. In fact, don't rely on any one thing. Keep at them all, says Dr. Ray Rosenman, Harold Brunn Institute of Cardiovascular Research, Mt. Zion Hospital, San Francisco, Calif.

At the National Dairy Conference for Food Writers in Atlanta, Dr. Rosenman warned about the importance of diet in the control of cholesterol. "It is a prime factor in the cholesterol battle, but not all-important as many people thought."

This highly rated expert in cardiovascular problems defines the two types of personality-Type A and Type B. Type B is more or less calm, able to laugh easily, not tense. But Type A usually is a person rushing to get more out of life than is possible.

"Type A persons are at higher risk for coronary heart disease, particularly if they exhibit other risk factors. By the same token, the prevention of coronary heart disease is also far from simplistic. Although we must use faith as our guideline rather than hard fact at this juncture, there seems little doubt but that the total elimination of risk factors should be our goal and at the earliest possible age."

Here are some stratagems for Type As. "Avoid days that bulge with events. Try to allot daily time for some solitude. Avoid individuals who bring out your hostility. Desist from catering to your egocentric tendency. Stop hurrying the speech of others or your own. Make time-elastic appointments whenever feasible. Never over-schedule. Begin to read books again. Stop skinning. Don't be afraid to arise earlier and leave work later if by so doing you can avoid feeling compressed by time. Fight hostility by laughing at it. "Identify common daily sources of stress in order to avoid them. Exercise to avoid physical tension. Define goals, set priorities, reduce the number of back-to-back activities. Focus on process rather than outcome in order to diminish a chronic sense of time urgency. Spend time restructuring social, home and work environments. Only in such ways can the Type A individual control his behavioral excesses."

"What are the important culpable factors that can be controlled? — diet, weight physical activity, hypertension, high cholesterol, cigarette smoking and excessive Type A behavior pattern."

"Will this guarantee protection against coronary heart disease? Not necessarily. But it will be a reasonable investment for good general health and well-being."

Beautify Legs And Feet For Spring

Your legs and feet will soon be in the spotlight again.

With spring comes more skirts, sheer pantyhose, and sandals.

If you've been neglecting them all winter just because they were hidden under boots, it's time to get them back in shape.

The skin on your legs is probably dry and flaky, and the need for more frequent shaving isn't going to help the matter.

But a little bottle of baby oil can bring your legs and feet back to smooth softness so you'll be proud to have them on display.

After shaving, treat your legs to a gentle massage with pure baby oil. It softens like nothing else will, and don't forget to include your knees so the rough-prone skin will be softened too.

Then massage your feet with baby oil. It not only comforts and beautifies them, but softens the skin of heels and toe-pat cuticles, so those typically rough spots won't snag your pantyhose.

Navel Oranges Available Longer

Stop what you're doing right now and peel yourself an orange!

Until you've tasted them, you won't believe the difference in the flavor of the navel oranges and the ones you may have tried a month or so ago.

Unusual weather conditions — lack of rain and warm temperatures — slowed the maturity of navel oranges and they are now where they should have been in January.

It takes the proper combination of natural rainfall and cool weather to bring up the sugar content of navel oranges. Because winter was so slow in coming this season, everything is just a bit behind schedule.

The much-needed rain finally came in February and though the navels have been slower than normal in developing sweetness, they are tasting great now, growers say.

The crop is expected to be good throughout the spring. The crop may have had a slow start, but it's making up for lost time by being available longer, according to growers.

Pamper Wearer Of Braces

If you wear braces on your teeth you already know some foods are hard to eat. Fresh apples for instance.

Make it easy for the brace wearer in your family. Shred fresh apples on a coarse grater. Serve in a bowl with sugar and cinnamon sprinkled on top.

Or, slice into thin slices and serve with peanut butter. Or make sauce in a blender using apple juice as liquid. The "brace set" will feel pampered for a change.

Sounds Unlimited Plan April Concert

The Sounds Unlimited Gospel Ensemble will present its second annual concert Sunday, April 11, at 5 p.m. in the Benton Harbor high school performing arts center.

Tickets for the Bicentennial concert are $2 in advance and $2.50 at the door. Advance tickets may be purchased from any member of the group or by contacting Mrs. George Westfield, Benton Harbor, ticket chairman.

The gospel ensemble is composed of 25 young adults from New Paradise, Pilgrim Rest, Second, New Bethel and Mount Zion Baptist churches, Church of God in Christ and Church of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, all of Benton Harbor.

The concert will include hymns, anthems, Negro spirituals, secular and gospel music.

Rodney Loft is director and David Brock is accompanist. The group has performed at numerous concerts in the twin cities as well as parts of Michigan, Indiana and Illinois.

The group's goal is to attend the 1976-session of the Gospel Music Workshop of America which will be held in August at Kansas City, Kan.

While attending the National Gospel Music Workshop of America last summer, the ensemble performed at Madison Square Garden and the Abyssinian Baptist church, New York City, where the late Congressman Adam Clayton Powell Jr. was pastor.

Circulate Family Letter

Many large families have fun keeping in touch with the "circulating letter" method. Here is how it works.

One relative starts the letter, and passes it on to Aunt Beth, who adds her family's happenings before passing it on to Uncle Joe, etc.

When the whole thing gets back to the party who started, she removes her original pages and adds fresh ones to the letter.

It becomes doubly interesting when even the children get into the act — and the entire relationship looks forward to receiving this missive in the mail.

To Wed May 16

HARTFORD — Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Knight, 308 East Main street, Hartford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Diana Kay, to Craig Lee Zeller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jean E. Zeller, route 1, Hartford.

Miss Knight is a graduate of Hartford high school and Parson's Business school, Kalamazoo.

Her fiancé is a graduate of Mona Shores high school, Muskegon, and is manager of A&W restaurants at Bangor and Hartford.

A May 16 wedding is planned.

'First Totally New Thesaurus'

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — G&C Merriam Company says the "Webster's Collegiate Thesaurus" it will publish in June will be "the first totally new thesaurus in over 120 years."

It says the reference work will contain more than 100,000 synonyms, antonyms, idiomatic phrases, related words and contrasted words.

A reception was held at the Chordatorium, Benton Harbor.

The couple is making their home in Benton Harbor.

The bride is a graduate of Benton Harbor high school and Lake Michigan college and attended Eastern Michigan university. Her husband is a graduate of Benton Harbor high school.

Announce Bicentennial Exhibition

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — A Bicentennial exhibition entitled "The Early Republic: Consolidation of Revolutionary Goals" is being shown through June 30 at the Worcester Art Museum.

The show covers the period from the signing of the Declaration of Independence July 4, 1776, to July 4, 1826.

'Your Problems' By Ann Landers

Dermatologist Only Answer

Dear Ann Landers: Please don't laugh or think I am dumb. I'm a sixteen-year-old girl who needs information.

I'm going with this guy I'll call Brad. He's not my steady or anything like that but I like him a lot. He's neat and fun to be with. I see Brad more than any other guy. He is 17.

My complexion has got worse in the last two months and Brad told me last night it's because I am going against nature's call and not expressing myself sexually. He also said his complexion was terrible until he went all the way with a girl last year. Then it cleared up. Brad showed me a couple of bumps on his face and said his skin was beginning to act up again and it was sort of my fault because I was frustrating him. He suggested we have sex together for the sake of our complexions. Is there anything to what he says? — Splotchy But Well-Behaved

Dear S.: Are the boys still trying to sell that crack of crabbapic juice? I heard it 40 years ago. It was bull-feathers then and it's bull-feathers now.

Teenagers with skin problems should go to a dermatologist. That's where the help is. What Brad is suggesting could send you to another kind of doctor.

I went into a cold sweat when I read that column. I visualized my family's shame and saw many long years of hard work go down the drain — my reputation with it. And all because of a foolish little game I had been playing. I never stole a thing I couldn't pay for. Crazy, isn't it?

You'll never know what a great service you performed by printing that letter. Thanks a million, Ann. — Cured For Sure

Dear Cured: Since kleptomaniacs are an illness, I hope you clipped that column and you will reread it from time to time. Thanks for letting me know it got to you.

ANN LANDERS

the only one.

Here I am nearly 80 years old and I still cry, bawl, sob, walk the floors and wring my hands because of my miserable childhood.

Never a hug or a kiss, a compliment or a kind word. It was always an order, a crack on the side of the head, a shave or a kick. We weren't spanked. We were beaten. We weren't slapped, we were pummeled.

Why can't I forget? Why do parents do such things? No sweet memories. It's torture. Am I crazy? — Denver

Dear Denver: No, you aren't crazy, but you do need professional help to overcome the anger and resentment that has hung on much too long.

You were an unloved, battered child. Must unloved and battered children had parents who were also unloved and battered. When you understand what THEIR lives must have been like you will stop grieving about your miserable childhood and look outward and ahead, instead of inward and back.

Ann Landers discusses teenage drinking — its myths, its realities. Learn the facts by reading "Booze and You — For Teenagers Only," by Ann Landers. Send 50 cents in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 1400, Elgin, Ill. 60120.

Plan Weekend Play

Lakeshore junior high school Drama club will present a children's play, "The Nose Tree," Friday and Saturday, March 26 and 27, at the school.

Friday night's performance will be held at 7 p.m. and Saturday's will be at 11 a.m. There will be no admission charge.

Students taking part in the play include Greg Robbins, Jack Puckett, Rick McNell, Bill Wright, Janice Dowell, Ann Klassen, Mindy Seel, Bill Gatz, Allen Kavanaugh, Nick Lehr, Elaine Dame, Santina Santenelli, Carol Albrecht, and Tracy Kessler.

The play, an adaptation of an old fairy tale about a beautiful princess who can't keep her nose out of other people's business, is directed by Carol Campbell and Nancy Summerfelt.

Community Theatres Convention Scheduled

SAUGATUCK — Holland Community Theatre will "Bring Theatre to the Out-of-Towners" at a spring convention of the Community Theatres Association of Michigan, to be held in Saugatuck May 21-23.

Twin City Players is an active member of the Community Theatre Association of Michigan.

This will be the first time a theatre convention of this scope has been attempted in this area, with workshops, plays, and other theatre activities taking place in the natural environment of Saugatuck.

Joyce Schultzeiss, Port Huron, is president of the Community Theatre Association of Michigan.

For Friday, March 26, 1976

ARIES (March 21-April 19) A new idea with potential material value for you could be presented today. Be alert. Don't reject anything too quickly.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) If you are truly persistent where your goals are concerned today, Lady Luck may lend you a hand.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21) Instead of sounding off about your bright ideas today, get busy and execute them. There's ample time for talk after you succeed.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Don't try to override your male's veto today, especially in budget matters. He or she may have reasons unknown to you.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Any important career decision should be carefully weighed today. If you make the right move, it could be extremely advantageous.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) If something good happens to you today, it probably will not emanate from those above you, but from those with whom you work.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) This may be one of those unusually fortunate days when others will beat you to the lab, if you're mixing socially.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Rather than making it a night out on the town, which won't be half as much fun, have friends over for a happening.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Direct your mental abilities toward projects of a practical nature today. You're not attuned to frivolous ventures.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Keep your ears open for some possible valuable business information today, even if you're engaged in some social gaiety.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Put yourself out for people you love, especially family members, and you'll wind up with a most enjoyable day.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) This will be a quiet day, with the possibility of some good news in the offing. Weigh it carefully to appreciate its true worth.

Ways to add to your material value and contribute to your security will be forthcoming this year. Prepare yourself to recognize opportunity when it knocks.

Get Protein At Breakfast

In general, breakfast should supply a minimum 300 calories and 15 grams of protein.

A breakfast consisting of a small glass of orange juice, a serving of cereal with non-fat milk, a slice of toast with butter or margarine, and a glass of non-fat milk, supplies approximately 400 calories and 18 grams of protein.

of auction they were known as A and B and always defended hands in the bridge columns of that day.

As you can see, the diamonds are 3-3 and West has the king so everyone else made an overtrick. I just made three for a bottom score."

If you readers can't figure out what happened, it seems that old man A had played his king of diamonds on the first lead of the suit. Our unlucky expert had ducked in order to guard against a 4-2 diamond break and made only four diamond tricks against five score at all other tables.

Dr. Lester Coleman

My husband has a hernia which has been giving him endless trouble. He thinks of himself as an old man even though he's 56 and thinks it is too late for him to have an operation. His concern about this troubles all of us. Have you ever heard of a husband that revolves around someone's hernia? It does with us.

Mrs. W.D., Fla.

It is an amusing concept that the destiny of a family should revolve around a hernia. Yet in reality this happens very often when any disease dominates the life cycle and happiness of a family structure.

There are many different types of hernias. I assume that the one you refer to is in the groin. Such an inguinal hernia may be present at birth or may occur later in life as the muscular ring is enlarged.

The danger associated with a long-standing hernia is that a small loop or intestine may become trapped in the hernial opening. The "strangulation" of the intestine is a severe complication of a long neglected hernia.

The speed of corrective surgery coupled with the safety of anesthesia make recovery rapid. In fact, patients are permitted to be out of bed within 24 hours, and many are discharged after three or four days.

With better understanding and assurance, I am certain that your husband can be made to see the light. Perhaps the hernia, when repaired, can give him a better understanding of the youthfulness of his age.

If one lung is removed, can a person continue to live a normal, active life?

Miss J. T., Del.

Dear Miss T.:

The removal of one lung is known as pneumonectomy. Lobectomy is the term used for the removal of a part or lobe of a lung.

Many people who have had such surgery function very well within the limits of their capacity. It is obvious that overexertion puts an added burden on the remaining lung. Yet these people find their own limits and stay within them. Of course, their return to complete activity depends entirely on the nature of the surgery and the reason it was performed.

DR. COLEMAN welcomes letters from readers, and, while he cannot undertake to answer each one, he will use questions in his column whenever possible and when they are of general interest. Address your letters to Dr. Coleman in care of this newspaper.

Advise Using Shoe Horn

Getting feet in shoes without a shoe horn can be back-breaking work, for both the wearer and the shoe, according to the Shoe Service Industry Council.

Not using a horn can break the "counters" that protect the back. Back seems can get ripped and the heel lining can be torn away, among other problems.

According to the Council, everybody knows a shoe horn is the right way, because they see shoe salesmen using them all the time. So with fully good intentions, many new shoe buyers acquire shoe horns and use them regularly at first.

But next thing you know, the horn winds up at the bottom of a drawer or is permanently "borrowed" by another family member. In the hurry to get dressed, the shoe horn habit is soon broken.

The Shoe Service Industry Council suggests a family shoe horn, better yet a shoe horn for every member of the family. If necessary, tie it to the bedpost. Most shoe horns have holes on the end just for that purpose.

Once you have to start looking for it, particularly in a rush, you're bound to get out of the habit.

'Your Problems' By Ann Landers

Dermatologist Only Answer

Dear Ann Landers: Please don't laugh or think I am dumb. I'm a sixteen-year-old girl who needs information.

I'm going with this guy I'll call Brad. He's not my boyfriend or anything like that but I like him a lot. He's neat and fun to be with. I see Brad more than any other guy. He is 17.

My complexion has got worse in the last two months and Brad told me last night it's because I am going against nature's call and not expressing myself sexually. He also said his complexion was terrible until he went all the way with a girl last year. Then it cleared up. Brad showed me a couple of bumps on his face and said his skin was beginning to act up again and it was sort of my fault because I was frustrating him. He suggested we have sex together for the sake of our complexions. Is there anything to what he says? — Slotchy But Well-Behaved

Dear S.: Are the boys still trying to sell that crock of crabapple juice? I heard it 40 years ago. It was bull-feathers then and it's bull-feathers now.

Teenagers with skin problems should go to a dermatologist. That's where the help is. What Brad is suggesting could send you to another kind of doctor.

I went into a cold sweat when I read that column. I visualized my family's shame and saw many long years of hard work go down the drain — my reputation with it. And all because of a foolish little game I had been playing. I never stole a thing I couldn't pay for. Crazy, isn't it? You'll never know what a great service you performed by printing that letter. Thanks a million, Ann. — Cured For Sure

Dear Cured: Since kleptomania is an illness, I hope you clipped that column and you will reread it from time to time. Thanks for letting me know it got to you.

the only one.

Here I am nearly 60 years old and I still cry, bawl, sob, walk the floors and wring my hands because of my miserable childhood.

Never a hug or a kiss, a compliment or a kind word. It was always an order, a crack on the side of the head, a shove or a kick. We weren't spanked. We were beaten. We weren't slapped, we were pummeled.

Why can't I forget? Why do parents do such things? No sweet memories. It's torture. Am I crazy? — Denver

Dear Denver: No, you aren't crazy, but you do need professional help to overcome the anger and resentment that has hung on much too long.

You were an unloved, battered child. Most unloved and battered children had parents who were also unloved and battered. When you understand what THEIR lives must have been like you will stop grieving about your miserable childhood and look outward and ahead, instead of inward and back.

Plan Weekend Play

Lakeshore junior high school Drama club will present a children's play, "The Nose Tree," Friday and Saturday, March 26 and 27, at the school.

Friday night's performance will be held at 7 p.m. and Saturday's will be at 11 a.m. There will be no admission charge.

Students taking part in the play include Greg Robbins, Jack Puckett, Rick McNeill, Bill Wright, Janice Dowell, Ann Klassen, Mindy Seel, Bill Gaetz, Allen Kavanaugh, Nick Lahr, Elaine Dame, Santina Santenelli, Carol Albrecht, and Tracy Kessler.

The play, an adaptation of an old fairy tale about a beautiful princess who can't keep her nose out of other people's business, is directed by Carol Campbell and Nancy Summerfelt.

Community Theatres Convention Scheduled

SAUGATUCK — Holland Community Theatre will "Bring Theatre to the Out-of-Doors," at a spring convention of the Community Theatres Association of Michigan, to be held in Saugatuck May 21-23.

Twin City Players is an active member of the Community Theatre Association of Michigan.

This will be the first time a theatre convention of this scope has been attempted in this area, with workshops, plays, and other theatre activities taking place in the natural environment of Saugatuck.

Further information and registration may be obtained by writing Holland Community Theatre, Box 234, Holland 49423.

"I wish I had known," he groaned. "Look at this hand. There I was in a perfectly normal three no trump. After the opening spade lead I was going to need four diamond tricks for my contract. As you can see, the diamonds are 3-3 and West has the king so everyone else made an overtrick. I just made three for a bottom score."

If you readers can't figure out what happened, it seems that old man A had played his king of diamonds on the first lead of the suit. Our unlucky expert had ducked in order to guard against a 4-2 diamond break and made only four diamond tricks against five score at all other tables.

My husband has a hernia which has been giving him endless trouble. He thinks of himself as an old man even though he's 56 and thinks it is too late for him to have an operation. His concern about this troubles all of us. Have you ever heard of a household that revolves around someone's hernia? It does with us.

Mrs. W.D., Fla.

It is an amusing concept that the destiny of a family should revolve around a hernia. Yet in reality this happens very often when any disease dominates the life cycle and happiness of a family structure.

There are many different types of hernias. I assume that the one you refer to is in the groin. Such an inguinal hernia may be present at birth or may occur later in life as the muscular ring is enlarged.

The danger associated with a long-standing hernia is that a small loop or intestine may become trapped in the hernial opening. The "strangulation" of the intestine is a severe complication of a long neglected hernia.

The speed of corrective surgery coupled with the safety of anesthesia make recovery rapid. In fact, patients are permitted to be out of bed within 24 hours, and many are discharged after three or four days.

With better understanding and assurance, I am certain that your husband can be made to see the light. Perhaps the hernia, when repaired, can give him a better understanding of the youthfulness of his age.

If one lung is removed, can a person continue to live a normal, active life?

Miss J. T., Del.

The removal of one lung is known as pneumonectomy. Lobectomy is the term used for the removal of a part or lobe of a lung.

Many people who have had such surgery function very well within the limits of their capacity. It is obvious that overexertion puts an added burden on the remaining lung. Yet these people find their own limits and stay within them. Of course, their return to complete activity depends entirely on the nature of the surgery and the reason it was performed.

DR. COLEMAN welcomes letters from readers, and while he cannot undertake to answer each one, he will use questions in his column whenever possible and when they are of general interest. Address your letters to Dr. Coleman in care of this newspaper.

Light Quakes Felt In Mississippi Basin

From Associated Press
It was a night of wonder and fright throughout the Mississippi River basin as the New Madrid fault came briefly to life, shaking tables and rattling dinner plates with two moderate earthquakes.

The quakes Wednesday night were measured at between 4.5 and 5 on the Richter Scale by the National Earthquake Information Service in Golden, Colo. Damage was limited to downed power lines and disrupted telephone service in most areas, and no injuries were reported.

The tremors were felt from southern Illinois through Missouri and Arkansas to northeast Mississippi. They spread across Tennessee and as far south as Birmingham and Tuscaloosa, Ala.

A Richter reading of 4 can cause moderate damage in some cases. Each higher full step, on the scale — which measures ground motion — represents activity 10 times greater. The San Francisco earthquake of 1906 was 8.25. The New Madrid fault, named for New Madrid, Mo., begins north of Memphis and runs along the Mississippi River north to Ste. Genevieve, Mo.

New Madrid was the scene of major quakes in 1811 and 1812 which altered the course of the Mississippi and formed Reelfoot Lake in northwest Tennessee.

Both Wednesday quakes, the first recorded at 7:41 p.m. EST and the second 20 minutes later, were centered in northeastern Arkansas.

Officials at Spring Hill College in Mobile, Ala., said the first reading on its seismograph was between 4.75 and 5. The second registered 4 on the scale.

"We wouldn't expect too much damage. Damage would be of a minor sort," said a spokesman at the Earthquake Information Service.

Police in Memphis, Tenn., said damage seemed to be limited to downed telephone lines. There was a brief power blackout in nearby Jonesboro, Ark.

A Memphis State University spokesman said there was an eight-foot-long crack in a wall of the four-story Business Administration Building.

One Memphis resident said after the 10-second tremor, "Our eyeballs nearly popped out. The next one was a little tremor and it just jiggled a couple of seconds."

Mississippi highway patrolmen said power lines were down and telephone service was interrupted in New Albany. Power lines were also reported down at Batesville, Horn Lake, and Hernando.

In west Tennessee, a Union City police dispatcher said he felt a fairly heavy tremor that lasted about 10 seconds. But he said there was no reported damage, although he said the telephone circuits were disrupted. He said reports on the statewide Civil Defense network indicated there was very little damage except to telephone circuits.

Other readings ranged from 3.5 at Memphis State University to 4.25 at the University of Mississippi.

Willow Run Airport Board Recommended

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — The state Highway Commission recommended Wednesday that ownership and operation of Willow Run Airport near Ypsilanti should be turned over to a new airport authority representing governments in the area.

The commission made the recommendation after a study requested by the University of Michigan, which owns and operates the facility.

Following a year-long study and public hearings, the commission recommended that Willow Run remain an airport.

It also said the most appropriate operator would be an airport authority representing local area governments, assuming local communities could provide the money to upgrade and operate it.

Governments involved would include the city of Ypsilanti and Ypsilanti and Van Buren townships.

If local governments cannot come up with enough funds by July 1, 1977, the commission said, the facility should be turned over to the Wayne County Road Commission, which operates nearby Detroit Metropolitan Airport.

Willow Run includes nearly 2,000 acres on the Wayne-Washtenaw county line. It was built in the early years of World War II in conjunction with production of B-24 bombers at an adjacent bomber plant.

The University of Michigan bought the airport as government surplus in 1947. Lately it has been used for general aviation operations; with nearly 200,000 landings and takeoffs a year.

Willow Run Airport Board Recommended

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — The state Highway Commission recommended Wednesday that ownership and operation of Willow Run Airport near Ypsilanti should be turned over to a new airport authority representing governments in the area.

The commission made the recommendation after a study requested by the University of Michigan, which owns and operates the facility.

Following a year-long study and public hearings, the commission recommended that Willow Run remain an airport.

It also said the most appropriate operator would be an airport authority representing local area governments, assuming local communities could provide the money to upgrade and operate it.

Governments involved would include the city of Ypsilanti and Ypsilanti and Van Buren townships.

If local governments cannot come up with enough funds by July 1, 1977, the commission said, the facility should be turned over to the Wayne County Road Commission, which operates nearby Detroit Metropolitan Airport.

Willow Run includes nearly 2,000 acres on the Wayne-Washtenaw county line. It was built in the early years of World War II in conjunction with production of B-24 bombers at an adjacent bomber plant.

The University of Michigan bought the airport as government surplus in 1947.

Lately it has been used for general aviation operations, with nearly 200,000 landings and takeoffs a year.

Six things you can't find in a paper bag.

(But you can find at Bonanza.)

1. Steaks

Bonanza steaks come with baked potatoes, salads and Texas Toast. If you're used to hamburger stands where everything comes in a paper bag, you're in for a real treat at Bonanza.

2. Salads

Crisp and fresh, with your choice of dressings and all the delicious little extras like Baco Bits and croutons.

3. Great Desserts

Super-creamy cheesecake, strawberry shortcake, cream pies, fruit pies, bread pudding, chocolate pudding, tapioca pudding, chocolate mousse, and jello.

4. A Real Dining Room

With hefty furniture, carpets on the floors, plus great service. (And listen! It doesn't sound like a school cafeteria.)

5. Free Refills on Soft Drinks

What? Free refills on soft drinks? Yup. Free refills on soft drinks.

6. Freedom

No silly little packets to limit how much salt, pepper, ketchup or steak sauce you use. At Bonanza you help yourself, just like at home.

Pessimistic Wallace To Continue Campaign

Carter Attacks Kissinger's Stand

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Former Georgia Gov. Jimmy Carter, a five-time primary election winner in his run for the Democratic presidential nomination, has taken his campaign into Wisconsin with an attack on Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger.

In Washington, meanwhile, President Ford's campaign aides said they would take a close look at the results in North Carolina's Republican primary. The President lost there Tuesday for the first time to Ronald Reagan, the former California governor.

Reagan was at home in California on Wednesday. Reagan campaign officials were negotiating for purchase of television time for what they said would be a major nationwide address next week.

Carter was in Milwaukee on Wednesday — the day after he won North Carolina's Democratic primary with more than half the vote. He said Kissinger's refusal to specifically rule out a U.S. invasion of Cuba if Cuban troops become further involved in Africa "is the sort of thing that ought to be explained to the American people."

As Carter took the offensive in his push for votes, Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace spoke in pessimistic tones of his own chances for the nomination — but said he plans to continue the fight, anyway.

Arizona Rep. Morris K. Udall, Washington Sen. Henry M.

Jackson and former Oklahoma Sen. Fred Harris — among those battling Carter and Wallace for the Democratic nomination — spent the day in New York, which sends more than four times Wisconsin's 68 delegates to the national convention.

Candidates have two weeks to prepare for the next primaries — April 6 in New York and Wisconsin. It is the first break in what has been a grinding schedule of the weekly primaries since New Hampshire's election on Feb. 24.

Several of the candidates, however, campaigned at full-throttle Wednesday, and there were other significant developments on the political front.

A judge ordered local officials to stop preparing for Michigan's May 18 primary. "The election is off," said Ingham County Circuit Judge Roy Hotchkiss as he ruled in a suit filed by local officials who claim they shouldn't have to pay for the voting.

Hotchkiss said he would decide within five days whether to make his ruling permanent. His decision apparently depends in part on whether the legislature agrees to fund the election.

Official delegate states were certified for New York's Democratic primary. The secretary of state said Udall will have slates in 37 of the state's 39 congressional districts, Jackson in 36, Carter in 34, Harris in 18, Wallace in 4 and antiabortion candidate Ellen McCormack in 1.

New York will send 274 delegates to the Democratic National Convention this summer, and all but 88 will be picked April 6.

A survey of the first six primary elections showed more than two-thirds of the 5.96 million votes cast were on Democratic ballots.

And although President Ford was the choice of 55.6 per cent of Republicans voting, his popular vote total of 1.06 million was less than the 1.53 million polled by Carter. Carter was the favorite of 37.9 per cent of Democrats voting so far.

Howard "Bo" Callaway said it is "very unlikely" that he will return as Ford's campaign director. Callaway was suspended from the job at his own request two weeks ago after allegations that he improperly tried to influence government actions concerning a ski area in Colorado.

Callaway, in Atlanta, said he will discuss the matter with Ford in the next few days.

Carter chided Kissinger for making policy without consulting public opinion. He said he didn't know what Kissinger had in mind in his comments on use of Cuban troops in Africa.

"We don't want to shoot down a Russian plane," the candidate said, referring to the reported use of Soviet planes in airlifting Cuban troops into Angola.

"I hope we learned our lesson in Vietnam," he added.

Wallace, at home in Montgomery, conceded it would be "very difficult" for him to win the Democratic nomination after his latest primary defeat in North Carolina. The Alabama governor said, however, he will remain in the race, if only to amass more delegates for a possible position of influence at the nominating convention.

Carolina.

Of his chances for winning the nomination, Wallace declared, "It would be very difficult. Every defeat diminishes your chances."

Jackson, who won the Massachusetts primary, said in New York City that Carter's third straight defeat of Wallace means the Alabama governor, "for all practical purposes, is out of the race."

Udall, meantime, shook hands in Manhattan and said later he finds people cynical and unwilling to believe one politician is any different from the rest.

"It makes me disheartened," he said.

Spy Swap Talks Bring New Plea

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — President Ford was beseeched Wednesday by a resident of his hometown to include survivors of a 1950 spy mission in current spy-swap talks with the Soviet Union.

The appeal came from Theodore R. Grevers, a Grand Rapids private detective who has been probing the 1950 U.S. Navy intelligence flight for nearly four years.

Grevers also asked the President to consider exchanging Soviet spies for two other Americans, and a Swede who helped many Jews escape the Nazis.

The New York Daily News reported Tuesday that State Department officials are meeting with Soviet secret police in East Berlin to set up an exchange of an admitted Russian spy for a top CIA operative.

Grevers specifically sought consideration for bringing home survivors of an April 8, 1950, U.S. Navy mission over the Baltic.

The private detective claimed during an interview with the Associated Press last Oct. 24 that the fliers were spying when their plane was forced down nearly 26 years ago.

A week after the interview, the Pentagon ended 25 years of denials and admitted the PB4Y2 Privateer was on an intelligence flight.

Grevers also has insisted repeatedly that at least eight of the plane's crew are alive and in Soviet hands. He cited testimony from two Americans who learned about the fliers' captivity while Soviet prisoners themselves.

IT'S A LEMON: Coloma Farmer Duane E. Carter measures a Ponderosa lemon at his winter home in central Florida just outside Winter Haven. This one proved 18 inches in circumference. Some go up to 20, and they all taste tip top. Carter and his wife Charlotte planted this one tree as a seedling seven years ago. It has been bearing continuously four years now, with blossoms, green fruit and ripe fruit on the tree simultaneously all year around. Tending tropical plants in the winter makes farming 200 acres of fruit and truck crops more interesting in the summer and fall, says Carter.

Break-Ins Blamed On Lawrence Boys

LAWRENCE — Dale Gribler, acting police chief here, said an 11-year-old boy and an eight-year-old boy will be petitioned into juvenile court in connection with two weekend break-ins and the breaking of a window at the grade school here.

Gribler said the arrests came after the 11-year-old was apprehended by Hartford police in connection with a case in Hartford. Further investigation by Hartford police linked the boy to the Lawrence cases.

Gribler said the investigation then led to the eight-year-old.

The break-ins occurred at the M and M supermarket where an undetermined amount of change and a few candy bars were taken and at Leach's garage. A candy machine was reported to have been broken into at the garage.

Auto Sales Continue Climb

DETROIT (AP) — Domestic auto sales for mid-March were up 42 per cent from the same period a year ago as the auto industry moved into a period of accelerated recovery. Sales for the industry's four automakers totaled 249,231 units in the March 11-20 period, up from 175,674 in the same 1975 span. There were nine selling days in both periods. The daily selling rate for the period, 27,692, was the second highest for a mid-March span during the 1970's. The period was outpaced by the record set in mid-March 1973, when the daily selling rates was 31,088.

Doctors Ask Insurance Probe

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — A group of doctors upset over the cost of malpractice insurance has asked the state insurance commissioner for stricter regulation of malpractice insurance companies in Michigan. The Physicians Crisis Committee, an organization active in seeking solutions to the malpractice problem, filed a petition with Insurance Commissioner Thomas Jones on Wednesday. The brief demands full disclosure of income, expense, profits and losses experienced by the insurance industry in order to "establish legitimate malpractice ratemaking and underwriting practices."

Grand Rapids Bans Billboards

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — After nearly a decade of arguments, billboards have been banned from all but industrial areas of Grand Rapids. But their removal will take time. City commissioners voted, 4-3, Tuesday to ban new billboards in areas zoned for neighborhood businesses. But backers of the move estimated it will take 20 years to remove all existing billboards, since leases may be renewed for their present sites. Billboards already are banned from residential areas. The city's largest billboard firm predicted the action will put it out of business.

Banks Trim Loans To Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — A syndicate of seven Detroit banks has reduced to lend $13 million of the $40 million the financially-troubled city had requested. Mayor Coleman Young said the refusal Monday by the banks to lend the city as much money as it wants "indicates just how serious our problem is and just how close to the brink this city is." The decision by the banks was the first time in recent years the city has failed to sell all of its short-term tax anticipation notes, which are considered the most secure investment the city can offer.

Franjeh Flees Palace

Urge Technology Withheld

WASHINGTON (AP) — A special Pentagon task force says the United States should withhold critical military-related technology from third world nations to prevent it from being relayed to Communist countries. The Defense Science Board Task Force also is recommending that any allied nation "that allows such technology to be passed on to any Communist country should be prohibited from receiving further strategic know-how." The task force, drawn from the Pentagon, White House, CIA, Commerce Department and defense industry, proposed a general tightening of controls on exports of what is called "high velocity" technology.

Almena To Start Hall Plans

PAW PAW — A meeting of Almena township residents interested in planning the dedication of the new township hall will be held there Wednesday, April 21, at 8:30 a.m., according to Mrs. Thomas Ellis, a planning committee member.

She said open house and dedication ceremonies are being planned for Aug. 13 and 14. Program ideas include a square dance, an ice cream and cake social and a display of historical items.

The township treasurer, Mrs. Diane Triquet, is chairman of the planning committee.

Cass Man Arrested On Sex Charge

CASSOPOLIS — Ricky McNeil, 20, route 1, Kelsey Lake street, Cassopolis, was arrested here last night on a charge of second degree sexual conduct in a case involving a nine-year-old Buchanan girl.

Buchanan police said a warrant for McNeil's arrest was issued after the girl's mother reported that a man babysitting with her daughter last month tried to get the young girl to dress.

The Cassopolis man was arrested by Cass county sheriff's deputies and transferred to the Buchanan jail pending his arraignment today in Niles Fifth District court.

Police said McNeil is also reported as absent without leave from the U.S. Marine corps.

Pipe Shows Wealth In Cameroons

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — "Pipes are ubiquitous in the Cameroons and the more important the man's social status and extensive his wealth, the more elaborate his pipe," according to the Everson Museum of Art.

The Everson, which has an intricately carved, heavy bronze Cameroon pipe in its permanent collection, says the "pipes range from the modestly carved, hand-held, wooden object owned by the average Cameroon citizen to the profusely decorated bronze or brass piece — too heavy to lift."

Gold-Finder Exits As A Pauper

COLOMA, Calif. (AP) — James W. Marshall picked up some yellow mineral he found in the trail of John Sutter's sawmill on the American river the morning of Jan. 24, 1848. The result was a gold rush.

Marshall, however, died a pauper, unable to establish a claim of his own to some of the gold-rich areas. He entered a series of bad business projects and went heavily into debt.

In 1890 the state legislature built a monument to Marshall overlooking the spot where he found the gold.

Kazoo Fire Is 'Arson'

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP) — Fire swept through part of the old King Paper Mill in Kalamazoo today and authorities say the blaze apparently was caused by arson.

"Arson is the only apparently possibility," said Fire Chief George Danz. The blaze destroyed a 100-by-250 foot section of the abandoned structure. Firemen were at the scene for four hours.

Kalamazoo officials had started action to demolish the building, calling it a menace to health and safety.

State Prison Parolee, 18, Is Arrested

PAW PAW — A state prison parolee was scheduled to be arraigned in Van Buren Seventh District court here today following his arrest Wednesday on a charge of malicious destruction of property.

Van Buren sheriff's deputies said David Paul Blume, 18, 404 Third street, Lawton, was taken into custody in connection with an estimated $300 damage done to the Lawton high school football field and surrounding turf March 15.

Deputies said that a vehicle driven at high speeds on the field had torn up the turf.

Blume was paroled Feb. 3 after serving about 11 months of an 18 month to four year sentence on a charge of larceny in a building. He had been convicted in Van Buren Circuit court on the charge in December, 1974.

State May Be Victim Of Frauds

DETROIT (AP) — Federal and state officials say they are investigating about 80 cases of possibly fraudulent claims for senior-citizen rebates on Michigan taxes.

The rebates range from $250 to $500, so the state may have been bilked out of thousands of dollars, officials said Wednesday.

Investigators reportedly are zeroing in on a single suspect, but officials have not revealed the person's name.

Melvin Van Vleet, director of the bureau of management and information for the state Treasury Department, said the fraud scheme has been going on for two years and still may be operating in Detroit's inner city.

He said individuals filing the forms would be about their ages and say they were in their 70s when they were really in their 20s and 30s.

Michigan law provides a rebate for senior citizens on property taxes.

Derelicts Going

CHARLOTTE-TOWN (AP) — A "derelicts to dollars" campaign is helping Prince Edward Islanders to remove derelict automobiles. The province pays $20 for each car body delivered in disposal sites for crushing.

Health Benefits Set A Record

NEW YORK (AP) — The Health Insurance Institute estimates a record $12.9 billion in benefits was paid out in 1975 by private health insurers in the United States.

The institute said its figures showed an 18.4 per cent increase over the $27.8 billion paid out in 1974.

Auto Sales Continue Climb

DETROIT (AP) — Domestic auto sales for mid-March were up 42 per cent from the same period a year ago as the auto industry moved into a period of accelerated recovery. Sales for the nation's four automakers totaled 249,231 units in the March 11-20 period, up from 175,674 in the same 1975 span. There were nine selling days in both periods. The daily selling rate for the period, 27,692, was the second highest for a mid-March span during the 1970's. The period was outpaced by the record set in mid-March 1973, when the daily selling rates was 35,088.

Doctors Ask Insurance Probe

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — A group of doctors upset over the cost of malpractice insurance has asked the state insurance commissioner for stricter regulation of malpractice insurance companies in Michigan. The Physicians Crisis Committee, an organization active in seeking solutions to the malpractice problem, filed a petition with Insurance Commissioner Thomas Jones on Wednesday. The brief demands full disclosure of income, expense, profits and losses experienced by the insurance industry in order to "establish legitimate malpractice ratemaking and underwriting practices."

Grand Rapids Bans Billboards

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — After nearly a decade of arguments, billboards have been banned from all but industrial areas of Grand Rapids. But their removal will take time. City commissioners voted, 43, Tuesday to ban new billboards in areas zoned for neighborhood businesses. But backers of the move estimated it will take 20 years to remove all existing billboards, since leases may be renewed for their present sites. Billboards already are banned from residential areas. The city's largest billboard firm predicted the action will put it out of business.

Banks Trim Loans To Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — A syndicate of seven Detroit banks has refused to lend $13 million of the $40 million the financially-troubled city had requested. Mayor Coleman Young said the refusal Monday by the banks to lend the city as much money as it wants "indicates just how serious our problem is and just how close to the brink this city is." The decision by the banks was the first time in recent years the city has failed to sell all of its short-term tax anticipation notes, which are considered the most secure investment the city can offer.

Franjeh Flees Palace

Urge Technology Withheld

WASHINGTON (AP) — A special Pentagon task force says the United States should withhold critical military-related technology from third world nations to prevent it from being relayed to Communist countries. The Defense Science Board Task Force also is recommending that any allied nation "that allows such technology to be passed on to any Communist country should be prohibited from receiving further strategic knowhow." The task force, drawn from the Pentagon, White House, CIA, Commerce Department and defense industry, proposed a general tightening of controls on exports of what is called "high velocity" technology.

Almena To Start Hall Plans

PAW PAW — A meeting of Almena township residents interested in the planning the dedication of the new township hall will be held there Wednesday, April 21, at 9:30 a.m., according to Mrs. Thomas Ellis, a planning committee member.

She said open house and dedication ceremonies are being planned for Aug. 13 and 14. Program ideas include a square dance, an ice cream and cake social and a display of historical items.

The township treasurer, Mrs. Diane Triquet, is chairman of the planning committee.

Cass Man Arrested On Sex Charge

CASSOPOLIS — Ricky McNeil, 20, route 1, Kelsey Lake street, Cassopolis, was arrested here last night on a charge of second degree sexual conduct in a case involving a nine-year-old Buchanan girl.

Buchanan police said a warrant for McNeil's arrest was issued after the girl's mother reported that a man babysitting with her daughter last month tried to get the young girl to undress.

The Cassopolis man was arrested by Cass county sheriff's deputies and transferred to the Buchanan jail pending his arraignment today in Niles Fifth District court.

Police said McNeil is also reported as absent without leave from the U.S. Marine corps.

Pipe Shows Wealth In Cameroons

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — "Pipes are ubiquitous in the Cameroons and the more important the man's social status and extensive his wealth, the more elaborate his pipe," according to the Everson Museum of Art.

The Everson, which has an intricately carved, heavy bronze Cameroon pipe in its permanent collection, says the "pipes range from the modestly carved, hand-held, wooden object owned by the average Cameroon citizen to the profusely decorated bronze or brass piece — too heavy to lift."

Some Funds For Ferris Restored

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — The state Legislature has voted to restore most of the appropriation for Ferris State College's health programs, but not for an optometry school.

Gov. William Milliken vetoed some $1.3 million in the current Ferris budget to get at $211,000 appropriated for an optometry school. He said the optometry school was not needed and that the college had proceeded in setting it up despite his opposition.

A bill passed 31-3 Wednesday by the Senate and sent to Milliken would give Ferris some $962,000 to fund the rest of its allied health program — also cut by Milliken's veto.

The replaced money includes a cut Ferris had to absorb as part of the governor's budget-cutting order earlier this year.

Health Benefits Set A Record At $33 Billion

NEW YORK (AP) — The Health Insurance Institute estimates a record $32.9 billion in benefits was paid out in 1975 by private health insurers in the United States.

The institute said its figures showed an 18.4 per cent increase over the $27.8 billion paid out in 1974.

Kazoo Fire Is 'Arson'

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP) — Fire swept through part of the old King Paper Mill in Kalamazoo today and authorities say the blaze apparently was caused by arson.

"Arson is the only apparently possibility," said Fire Chief George Danz. The blaze destroyed a 100-by-250 foot section of the abandoned structure. Firemen were at the scene for four hours.

Kalamazoo officials had started action to demolish the building, calling it a menace to health and safety.

State Prison Parolee, 18, Is Arrested

PAW PAW — A state prison parolee was scheduled to be arraigned in Van Buren Seventh District court here today following his arrest Wednesday on a charge of malicious destruction of property.

Van Buren sheriff's deputies said David Paul Blume, 18, 403 Third street, Lawton, was taken into custody in connection with an estimated $300 damage done to the Lawton high school football field and surrounding turf March 15.

Deputies said that a vehicle driven at high speeds on the field had torn up the turf.

Blume was paroled Feb. 3 after serving about 11 months of an 18 month to four year sentence on a charge of larceny in a building. He had been convicted in Van Buren Circuit court on the charge in December, 1974.

State May Be Victim Of Frauds

DETROIT (AP) — Federal and state officials say they are investigating about 80 cases of possibly fraudulent claims for senior-citizen rebates on Michigan taxes.

The rebates range from $250 to $500, so the state may have been bilked out of thousands of dollars, officials said Wednesday.

Investigators reportedly are zeroing in on a single suspect, but officials have not revealed the person's name.

Melvin Van Vorst, director of the Bureau of management and information for the state Treasury Department, said the fraud scheme has been going on for two years and still may be operating in Detroit's inner city.

He said individuals filing the forms would lie about their ages and say they were in their 70s when they were really in their 20s and 30s.

Michigan law provides a rebate for senior citizens on property taxes.

May 18th Primary Hangs On Ruling

By MALCOLM JOHNSON
Associated Press Writer
LANSING, Mich. (AP) — The fate of Michigan's May 18 presidential primary is hanging on an upcoming ruling by a Ingham County Circuit Court judge who has issued a restraining order blocking the election.

Judge Ray Hotchkiss on Wednesday night restrained city and township clerks from preparing ballots and spending public funds to prepare for the primary.

"The election is off," he commented tersely after a hearing on the case. But the judge said he would decide within five days whether to issue a permanent injunction blocking the election or lift the restraining order.

His decision apparently depends in large part on whether the state legislature agrees to fund the election.

The primary expresses the state's preference on presidential candidates, and determines how many delegates each candidate will get at the Republican and Democratic national conventions, where nominees are selected.

President Ford is expected to sweep to an easy victory on the GOP side in his home state, while a Democratic battle for delegates shapes up between Alabama Gov. George Wallace and former Georgia Gov. Jimmy Carter, with U.S. Rep. Morris Udall of Arizona and U.S. Sen. Henry Jackson of Washington also competing.

Hotchkiss's ruling came in a suit brought by city and township clerks and the Michigan Township Association, which sought an injunction blocking the primary because local units of government may have to pay for it. Some observers feel the suit is an attempt to bring pressure on the legislature to fund the primary.

The local officials contended they had been led to believe the state would pay for the election and cannot force them to hold it at their own expense.

Asst. Atty. Gen. John Pirlich said a permanent injunction against the primary would be appealed immediately to the Court of Appeals.

Hotchkiss said he did not intend to restrain the procedure by which precinct delegates are selected by the Republican party on the presidential primary ballot. He directed clerks to take and process petitions — required by Friday — for GOP precinct delegates to go on the ballot.

The precinct delegates later will elect state convention delegates who will then elect the GOP national delegation. Democrats, however, will not elect precinct delegates in May.

Both parties depend on the primary to determine how many national delegates will be allocated to various presidential candidates. Representatives of both parties said elimination of the primary would throw their delegate selection process into chaos, but they conceded another way probably could be found to select delegates.

Hotchkiss indicated his ruling was a notice to the state legislature to make clear whether it intends to fund the presidential primary as it did in 1972. The cost would be slightly over $2 million, and a bill committing the state to provide it is before the House.

It has been delayed, however, until April 27, possibly to prevent local governments from adding numerous issues to the May ballot knowing they would be reimbursed for their cost.

"The matter does have to be resolved," Hotchkiss said. "If the legislature is not going to fund it, let them say so."

Hotchkiss said his restraining order would become permanent only if attorneys failed to file further briefs in the matter. Otherwise, he will have to make a second ruling.

But he implied he sympathized with the local governments if the state refuses to fund the election.

"We cannot place township and city government in jeopardy with a legislative white elephant," he said. "The continued lack of action (by the legislature) is irresponsible."

Hotchkiss said that while money is the "practical issue" in the case, there are legal questions also. For example, he said, there is some law to indicate a primary may be a "private concern."

And there is much law prohibiting the spending of public money — state or local — on private matters.

Dennis McGinty, an attorney for the local officials, said the prospects for a favorable ruling increased if the legislature did not act. However, he claimed, it would still be a victory if the legislature agreed to fund the election and it was kept on schedule.

Hotchkiss's ruling came after 2½ hours of oral arguments between attorneys for the local clerks and the attorney general's representatives.

Local officials argued the state cannot require them to spend their own money for the election. Attorneys called it "reverse revenue sharing" and "a throwaway election."

Pirlich argued the state has always ordered elections be held and that local units pay for them. He added that local governments were placing local issues on the primary ballot, and implied the cost would hardly bankrupt anybody.

Sodus Slaying Suspect Arrested

By TOM SAWYER
Staff Writer

A suspect in the 1974 slaying of a Sodus township girl was arrested Wednesday in San Antonio, Texas by agents of the FBI there, the Benton Harbor FBI office reported.

The suspect was identified as James Lee Williams, 29.

A warrant charging murder was authorized against Williams in 1974 in connection with the shooting death of Maxine Lynn Thomas, 15, Oct. 21, 1974.

Capt. Ronald Immoos of the Berrien sheriff's office said he would know late today whether Williams would waive extradition from Texas.

The girl died of a gunshot wound to the head inflicted at her home. Berrien officers who investigated the murder said Maxine and a man had been arguing prior to the fatal shot. The man fled on foot.

Sheriff's officers said the man had been a boyfriend of Maxine Thomas who lived on Jones street, Sodus township.

NAACP Queen Judges Chosen

An industrialist and two Calhoun county officials will serve as judges in the annual Miss Twin City Area NAACP contest, at 6 p.m. Sunday, in the Benton Harbor high school auditorium.

The judges are Willie Proctor, supervisor of industrial health, safety and security for Bendix Corp. hydraulics division, south of St. Joseph; Suzanne Bennett, Calhoun county assistant controller; and Edward James, director, Calhoun county Commission on Aging.

The contest is sponsored by the Happiness Bloom club, which conducts NAACP Blossomtime activities.

Melvin Bellis is chairman of the event. Commentators from the high school are, Sandra Rutter, counselor, and cheerleader adviser, and Charles Henderson, a teacher. Tickets will be available at the door.

There are 17 contestants.

PRESIDENT ASKS FOR $135 MILLION Everyone In U.S. May Get 'Flu' Shot

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fearing an epidemic of flu deaths next winter, President Ford is asking Congress for $135 million to finance production of enough vaccine to protect 200 million Americans against a new outbreak of swine flu virus.

The President said he wants the supplemental appropriation passed before the lawmakers' April recess so that by the end of November nearly every American citizen can be protected from the virus, which took 20 million lives around the world in a 1918 epidemic.

Ford is to make his request to Congress today.

The vaccine will be available in September, October and November in schools, hospitals, doctors' offices and public health facilities in the largest mass immunization drive in U.S. history, Ford said.

The government will pay for production of the vaccine by private drug companies, but patients will have to pay for the flu shots themselves unless they are covered by government or private insurance.

Ford announced his decision to go ahead with the immunization campaign after a meeting Wednesday with 35 leading scientists, public health officials, drug executives, physicians and politicians.

"I've been advised that there is a very real possibility that unless we take effective counteraction there could be an epidemic of this dangerous disease next fall and winter here in the United States," the President told reporters.

"No one knows exactly how serious this threat could be," he said. "Nevertheless, we cannot afford to take a chance with the health of our nation."

Federal health experts said $135 million would produce about 200 million doses of swine virus vaccine, which would, in most cases, produce reactions no more serious than a sore arm.

About one out of every 100,000 persons is allergic to eggs and will not be able to take the vaccine, which is grown in fertilized chicken eggs. Health officials said those persons will be at a reduced risk of infection, however, if the rest of the population is immunized.

The virus, dormant nearly half a century, killed an estimated 548,000 Americans in 1918, more than died in World War I combat.

Early last month, a swine-like strain reappeared at Fort Dix, N.J., killing one trainee and infecting several hundred other personnel.

Virtually every American under the age of 50 is susceptible to swine virus infection when the new flu season begins this fall, the White House said. About 80 per cent of Americans over 50 have swine virus antibodies, indicating they had been exposed previously and developed natural immunity. But experts said those persons cannot be assured of protection without the vaccine if the disease reappears.

Two of the most serious flu outbreaks in recent times occurred in 1957-58, when Asian flu killed nearly 70,000 Americans and infected about 45 million others, and in 1968-69 when the Hong Kong flu resulted in 27,900 U.S. deaths, infected 50 million persons and cost the nation an estimated $3.9 billion.

Meantime, in Geneva, Switzerland, officials at the World Health Organization — WHO — headquarters reacted with surprise today to President Ford's announcement of a $135 million plan to vaccinate 200 million Americans against swine flu virus.

The WHO said a month ago there was no evidence that the virus, which took 200 million lives around the world in 1918, was spreading.

The officials declined further comment pending contact with U.S. experts on the project, which a spokesman said could have "worldwide implications."

The spokesman said he knew of no other country considering similar plans, and emphasized that there has been no appearance of the virus outside the Ft. Dix, N.J., Army camp where one 19-year old private died of the flu last month.

WHO centers in Atlanta, Ga., and London have started work on preparing a vaccine, but the WHO said Feb. 23 that there was "no evidence of a spread of the virus."

Trooper Sergeant Takes Voluntary Demotion To Go Back To Patrol Duty

Richard A. Zimmerman, 31, has been promoted from state police trooper to sergeant and transferred from the Blissfield post to Benton Harbor.

He replaces Darryl R. Smith, 32, a former sergeant, who requested a demotion to trooper to get more patrol duty, according to Lt. Carl Hulander, commander of the Benton Harbor post.

Zimmerman is a native of Grand Rapids. He joined the department Jan. 7, 1968, and served at the Pontiac post, until being transferred to Blissfield, near Adrian, in 1970.

Zimmerman and his wife, Sharon, are the parents of two boys, ages five and seven.

Lt. Hulander emphasized that Smith's demotion was entirely voluntary on Smith's part. Hulander said during the past three or four years, more troopers have refused promotions to sergeant, despite the difference in base pay of about $1,100 per year. Currently, the top pay for sergeants is $14,803.92, and top pay for troopers is $13,718.16, Hulander said.

Hulander said the pay of some troopers exceeds that of sergeants, because of more overtime pay. Hulander also said there's a trend in the department of officers seeking to avoid assignments to urban areas, because of high living costs.

State police are now negotiating for pay scales and other benefits.

Smith on April 4 will be transferred to the Bridgeport post near Saginaw. Hulander

Beard Deadline Near For Coloma Festival

COLOMA — April 7 has been set as the new deadline here for men to enter a beard growing contest for the Coloma Gladiolus festival.

Mrs. Kenneth Tibbs said an additional category had also been added for men who began growing beards early. The early-starters and the men entering clean-shaven by the deadline will be judged separately, she said.

Forms for entry are available at the Coloma township hall. The judging will be held during the festival in August.

ARE TRIAL JUDGES' SENTENCES PREJUDICED?

By SUSAN AGER
Associated Press Writer
LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Trial judges aren't experts on sentencing criminals and should not have the responsibility, says the chief justice of the Michigan Supreme Court.

Justice Thomas Giles Kavanagh told the House Corrections Committee on Wednesday that the Department of Corrections should be given the job of determining the nature and length of punishment for convicts.

Kavanagh also said he "philosophically opposes" a law requiring mandatory two-year prison terms for persons convicted of gun-related felonies. He said it could mean "big trouble" by causing overcrowding of state corrections facilities.

He repeated earlier statements that laws banning prostitution, drunkenness and drug use are not government's business. "Government is not in the business of saving souls," he said.

Kavanagh, 58, said he has long been convinced that trial judges "are probably the one group of people who shouldn't be imposing sentences after they preside over a trial where a man's guilt is decided."

Judges invariably develop prejudices during the trial that may affect the harshness of the sentences imposed, he said.

"If he isn't prejudiced (by the end of the trial), then he hasn't been listening," said Kavanagh, who has never been a trial judge. He has served only on the state Court of Appeals and Supreme Court.

"The expertise of the trial judge is to preside over a fair trial," he said, adding that most know little about criminology.

State corrections officials should determine punishment because "if they aren't experts, I don't know where we'd get experts." They are also best able to choose punishments other than prison for some criminals, which he said he strongly supports.

Commenting on the new law providing mandatory added sentences for felons committed with a gun, Kavanagh said: "I just can't see where our government and our people can afford to construct and maintain all the correctional facilities to house all the people who would mandatorily be put in jail. If they (the sentencing judges) really do what the law says they should do, I see us in for big trouble."

Kavanagh said he is willing to experiment with the law, and thinks other experiments should be made in the state's criminal justice system.

Supported by Gov. William Milliken, the law would not impose mandatory sentences but would extend sentences by five years for second offenders and by 10 years for third offenders.

Kavanagh said he favors decriminalization of prostitution, drunkenness and drug use "not because these activities have any social or individual value but because human beings, being what they are, are going to do these things whether governments want them to do it or not."

"The use of drugs is beyond the control of governments, and the government is making a grievous error" trying to control drug use, he said. It diverts time and money from controlling other more serious crimes, he said.

BEAUTY SHOP ADDS BOUTIQUE

Addition of a boutique at the Touch of Beauty shop, 4205 Red Arrow highway, Stevensville, was announced today by Mrs. Prudy Vondran, co-owner.

The new shop, installed along one side of the beauty salon, will feature dresses, pant suits, slacks, house coats, blouses, scarves and jewelry. The beauty shop opened in September of 1974.

May 18th Primary Hangs On Ruling

By MALCOLM JOHNSON
Associated Press Writer
LANSING, Mich. (AP) — The fate of Michigan's May 18 presidential primary is hanging on an upcoming ruling by a Ingham County Circuit Court judge who has issued a restraining order blocking the election.

Judge Ray Hotchkiss on Wednesday night restrained city and township clerks from preparing ballots and spending public funds to prepare for the primary.

"The election is off," he commented tersely after a hearing on the case. But the judge said he would decide within five days whether to issue a permanent injunction blocking the election or lift the restraining order.

His decision apparently depends in large part on whether the state legislature agrees to fund the election.

The primary expresses the state's preference on presidential candidates, and determines how many delegates each candidate will get at the Republican and Democratic national conventions, where nominees are selected.

President Ford is expected to sweep to an easy victory on the GOP side in his home state, while a Democratic battle for delegates shapes up between Alabama Gov. George Wallace and former Georgia Gov. Jimmy Carter, with U.S. Rep. Morris Udall of Arizona and U.S. Sen. Henry Jackson of Washington also competing.

Hotchkiss's ruling came in a suit brought by city and township clerks and the Michigan Township Association, which sought an injunction blocking the primary because local units of government may have to pay for it. Some observers feel the suit is an attempt to bring pressure on the legislature to fund the primary.

The local officials contended they had been led to believe the state would pay for the election and cannot force them to hold it at their own expense.

Asst. Atty. Gen. John Pirich said a permanent injunction against the primary would be appealed immediately to the Court of Appeals.

Hotchkiss said he did not intend to restrain the procedure by which precinct delegates are selected by the Republican party on the presidential primary ballot. He directed clerks to take and process petitions — required by Friday — for GOP precinct delegates to go on the ballot.

The precinct delegates later will elect state convention delegates who will then elect the GOP national delegation. Democrats, however, will not elect precinct delegates in May.

Both parties depend on the primary to determine how many national delegates will be allocated to various presidential candidates. Representatives of both parties said elimination of the primary would throw their delegate selection process into chaos, but they conceded another way probably could be found to select delegates.

Hotchkiss indicated his ruling was a notice to the state legislature to make clear whether it intends to fund the presidential primary as it did in 1972. The cost would be slightly over $2 million, and a bill committing the state to provide it is before the House.

It has been delayed, however, until April 27, possibly to prevent local governments from adding numerous issues to the May ballot knowing they would be reimbursed for their cost.

"The matter does have to be resolved," Hotchkiss said. "If the legislature is not going to fund it, let them say so."

Hotchkiss said his restraining order would become permanent only if attorneys failed to file further briefs in the matter. Otherwise, he will have to make a second ruling.

But he implied he sympathized with the local governments if the state refuses to fund the election.

"We cannot place township and city government in jeopardy with a legislative white elephant," he said. "The continued lack of action (by the legislature) is irresponsible."

Hotchkiss said that while money is the "practical issue" in the case, there are legal questions also. For example, he said, there is some law to indicate a primary may be a "private concern."

And there is much law prohibiting the spending of public money — state or local — on private matters.

Dennis McGinty, an attorney for the local officials, said the prospects for a favorable ruling increased if the legislature did not act. However, he claimed, it would still be a victory if the legislature agreed to fund the election and it was kept on schedule.

Hotchkiss' ruling came after 2½ hours of oral arguments between attorneys for the local clerks and the attorney general's representatives.

Local officials argued the state cannot require them to spend their own money for the election. Attorneys called it "reverse revenue sharing" and "a throwaway election."

Pirich argued the state has always ordered elections be held and that local units pay for them. He added that local governments were placing local issues on the primary ballot, and implied the cost would hardly bankrupt anybody.

Howell termed "extensive" erosion damage to exposed fields. Above photo shows dust in area of US-31, between Linco and Hinchman roads where one

Sodus Slaying Suspect Arrested

By TOM SAWYER
Staff Writer

A suspect in the 1974 slaying of a Sodus township girl was arrested Wednesday in San Antonio, Texas by agents of the FBI there, the Benton Harbor FBI office reported.

The suspect was identified as James Lee Williams, 29.

A warrant charging murder was authorized against Williams in 1974 in connection with the shooting death of Maxine Lynn Thomas, 15, Oct. 21, 1974.

Capt. Ronald Immoos of the Berrien sheriff's office said he would know late today whether Williams would waive extradition from Texas.

The girl died of a gunshot wound to the head inflicted at her home. Berrien officers who investigated the murder said Maxine and a man had been arguing prior to the fatal shot. The man fled on foot.

Sheriff's officers said the man had been a boyfriend of Maxine Thomas who lived on Jones street, Sodus township.

Lawrence Will Host 'Arkansas Lassies'

LAWRENCE — Men teachers at Lawrence high school will take on the Arkansas Lassies, an all-girl professional basketball team, during a fund-raiser at the school Tuesday, March 30, at 7:30 p.m., the school has announced.

Tickets in advance are $1.25 for students and $1.50 for adults, and at the door will be $1.50 for students and $1.75 for adults, according to the school.

Proceeds will be used for the future teachers club scholarship fund.

MANAGER
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford will rely on a conservative Texas senator, John G. Tower, with considerable political talents to manage his campaign on the floor of the Republican National Convention next August, in Kansas City.

The judges are Willie Proctor, supervisor of industrial health, safety and security for Bendix Corp. hydraulics division, south of St. Joseph; Suzanne Bennett, Calhoun county assistant comptroller; and Edward James, director, Calhoun county Commission on Aging.

The contest is sponsored by the Happiness Bloom club, which conducts NAACP Blossomtime activities.

Melvin Rellis is chairman of the event. Commentators from the high school are, Sandra Rutter, counselor and cheerleader adviser, and Charles Henderson, a teacher. Tickets will be available at the door.

There are 17 contestants.

ARE TRIAL JUDGES' SENTENCES PREJUDICED?

By SUSAN AGER
Associated Press Writer
LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Trial judges aren't experts on sentencing criminals and should not have the responsibility, says the chief justice of the Michigan Supreme Court.

Justice Thomas Giles Kavanagh told the House Corrections Committee on Wednesday that the Department of Corrections should be given the job of determining the nature and length of punishment for convicts.

Kavanagh also said he "philosophically opposes" a law requiring mandatory two-year prison terms for persons convicted of gun-related felonies. He said it could mean "big trouble" by causing overcrowding of state corrections facilities.

He repeated earlier statements that laws banning prostitution, drunkenness and drug use are not government's business. "Government is not in the business of saving souls," he said.

Kavanagh, 58, said he has long been convinced that trial judges "are probably the one group of people who shouldn't be imposing sentences after they preside over a trial where a man's guilt is decided."

Judges invariably develop prejudices during the trial that may affect the harshness of the sentences imposed, he said.

"If he isn't prejudiced (by the end of the trial), then he hasn't been listening," said Kavanagh,

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fearing an epidemic of flu deaths next winter, President Ford is asking Congress for $135 million to finance production of enough vaccine to protect 200 million Americans against a new outbreak of swine flu virus.

The President said he wants the supplemental appropriation passed before the lawmakers' April recess so that by the end of November nearly every American citizen can be protected from the virus, which took 20 million lives around the world in a 1918 epidemic.

Ford is to make his request to Congress today.

The vaccine will be available in September, October and November in schools, hospitals, doctors offices and public health facilities in the largest mass immunization drive in U.S. history, Ford said.

The government will pay for production of the vaccine by private drug companies, but patients will have to pay for the flu shots themselves unless they are covered by government or private insurance.

Ford announced his decision to go ahead with the immunization campaign after a meeting Wednesday with 35 leading scientists, public health officials, drug executives, physicians and politicians.

"I've been advised that there is a very real possibility that unless we take effective counteraction there could be an epidemic of this dangerous disease next fall and winter here in the United States," the President told reporters.

"No one knows exactly how serious this threat could be," he said. "Nevertheless, we cannot afford to take a chance with the health of our nation."

Federal health experts said $135 million would produce about 200 million doses of swine virus vaccine, which would, in most cases, produce reactions no more serious than a sore arm.

About one out of every 100,000 persons is allergic to eggs and will not be able to take the vaccine, which is grown in fertilized chicken eggs. Health officials said those persons will be at a reduced risk of infection, however, if the rest of the population is immunized.

The virus, dormant nearly half a century, killed an estimated 548,000 Americans in 1918, more than died in World War I combat.

Early last month, a swine-like strain reappeared at Fort Dix, N.J., killing one trainee and infecting several hundred other personnel.

Virtually every American under the age of 50 is susceptible to swine virus infection when the new flu season begins this fall, the White House said. About 80 per cent of Americans over 50 have swine virus antibodies, indicating they had been exposed previously and developed natural immunity. But experts said those persons cannot be assured of protection without the vaccine if the disease reappears.

Two of the most serious flu outbreaks in recent times occurred in 1957-58, when Asian flu killed nearly 70,000 Americans and infected about 45 million others, and in 1968-69 when the Hong Kong flu resulted in 27,900 U.S. deaths, infected 50 million persons and cost the nation an estimated $3.9 billion.

PRESIDENT ASKS FOR $135 MILLION Everyone In U.S. May Get 'Flu' Shot

Meantime, in Geneva, Switzerland, officials at the World Health Organization — WHO — headquarters reacted with surprise today to President Ford's announcement of a $135 million plan to vaccinate 200 million Americans against swine flu virus.

The WHO said a month ago there was no evidence that the virus, which took 200 million lives around the world in 1918, was spreading.

The officials declined further comment pending contact with U.S. experts on the project, which a spokesman said could have "worldwide implications."

The spokesman said he knew of no other country considering similar plans, and emphasized that there has been no appearance of the virus outside the Ft. Dix, N.J., Army camp where one 19-year old private died of the flu last month.

WHO centers in Atlanta, Ga., and London have started work on preparing a vaccine, but the WHO said Feb. 23 that there was "no evidence of a spread of the virus."

Trooper Sergeant Takes Voluntary Demotion To Go Back To Patrol Duty

Richard A. Zimmerman, 31, has been promoted from state police trooper to sergeant and transferred from the Blissfield post to Benton Harbor.

He replaces Darryl R. Smith, 32, a former sergeant, who requested a demotion to trooper to get more patrol duty, according to Lt. Carl Hulander, commander of the Benton Harbor post.

Zimmerman is a native of Grand Rapids. He joined the department Jan. 7, 1968, and served at the Pontiac post, until being transferred to Blissfield, near Adrian, in 1970. Zimmerman and his wife, Sharon, are the parents of two boys, ages five and seven.

Lt. Hulander emphasized that Smith's demotion was entirely voluntary on Smith's part. Hulander said during the past three or four years, more troopers have refused promotions to sergeant, despite the difference in base pay of about $1,100 per year. Currently, the top pay for sergeants is $14,803.92, and top pay for troopers is $13,718.16, Hulander said.

Hulander said the pay of some troopers exceeds that of sergeants, because of more overtime pay. Hulander also said there's a trend in the department of officers seeking to avoid assignments to urban areas, because of high living costs.

State police are now negotiating for pay scales and other benefits.

Smith on April 4 will be transferred to the Bridgeport post near Saginaw. Hulander said Smith has relatives near Gaylord and Brighton, and Bridgeport is right in between.

Smith is a native of Atlanta, near Gaylord, and joined the department in 1966. He was assigned to the Benton Harbor post in March, 1975, as a replacement for Jordan Graham, who retired and moved to Manistee. Smith was promoted to sergeant, upon coming to Benton Harbor.

Beard Deadline Near For Coloma Festival

COLOMA — April 7 has been set as the new deadline here for men to enter a beard growing contest for the Coloma Gladiolus festival.

Mrs. Kenneth Tibbs said an additional category had also been added for men who began growing beards early. The early-starters and the men entering clean-shaven by the deadline will be judged separately, she said.

Forms for entry are available at the Coloma township hall. The judging will be held during the festival in August.

Senate Frowns On Bald Tires House Passes Food Labeling

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Consumers, motorists, and county road commissions all scored a point in the Michigan legislature Wednesday.

The House approved a bill requiring grocery stores to label perishable food with the recommended last day of sale. It also passed a bill shifting $8 million from the state to the counties for "bedroom suburb" roads. Both bills went to the Senate.

The Senate meanwhile passed and sent to the House a bill making it illegal to drive on bald tires or to use tires of different size or construction on the same axle.

The grocery labeling squeaked through the House on a vote of 57-47 — one vote more than the minimum necessary for passage.

Opponents argued that the bill, sponsored by Rep. Barbara-Rose Collins, D-Detroit, could be very expensive for some companies. They also point out that some stores already mark items with the last date of sale.

But supporters said the bill would help the consumer select fresh products and lessen the chances that people would buy spoiled foodstuffs that could endanger their health.

The bill would not apply to smoked fish, fresh fruit and vegetables, canned food, frozen food, or to milk and milk products. Under existing law, milk must be labeled with the recommended last date of sale.

House analysts said one bakery has estimated the bill will cost it $84,000 in the first year.

The road money bill, sponsored by Rep. Francis Spaniola, D-Corunna, was approved 88-11 with immediate effect. It changes the formula for distributing money from the motor vehicle highway fund.

The bill increases from 35.7 per cent to 37.2 per cent the amount of money going to county road commissions. It gives the counties an extra $8 million now earmarked for the Department of State Highways and Transportation.

Currently, 10 per cent of the money county road commissions get goes to counties with roads located near urban areas. The rest goes to county road commissions on the basis of rural and local road mileage.

But bill supporters said some roads which do not qualify as urban roads are much more heavily used than roads in a truly rural area. They said this situation is most obvious in "bedroom suburbs" surrounding urban areas, and in resort and recreational areas which get many visitors at certain times of the year.

The bill defines these areas as medium density areas. Under the bill, 3.75 per cent of the money returned to county road commissions would be distributed to counties which have roads in these types of locations.

The bald tire bill was passed 24-5 and sent to the House. Current law forbids driving on unsafe tires, but the bill passed Wednesday defines an unsafe tire.

It prohibits driving on tires with less than one-sixteenth of an inch of tread. Trucks would require one-eighth of an inch and motorcycles one-thirty-second of an inch.

The House and Senate reconvene Thursday at 2 p.m.

PRODUCT OF YEAR AT WORK: The Morbark Chiparvestor, which won 1972 Michigan Product of the Year award, is playing an important role in recycling of thousands of trees destroyed by vast ice storm that swept mid-Michigan in early March. Detroit, Pontiac and Flint own models of this machine and dozens of others owned by independent contractors have been brought into the big cleanup job by other cities and counties. The Chiparvestor is driven down residential streets to stop at fallen trees and branches, pick them up with its maneuverable claw and devour them. Resulting one-inch wood chips are blown into waiting trucks. The chips can be used for landscaping and weed control, erosion control, and as fuel for factory or utility boilers. The machine is manufactured by Norback Industries, in Winn, near Mt. Pleasant.

BOYS, GIRLS STATE

Delegates Named By Catholic High

Mary Helen Lehman and Douglas McQuillan, both juniors, have been chosen as delegates from Lake Michigan Catholic high school to the American Legion Girls and Boys States in June.

Miss Lehman is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Lehman of Benton Harbor. McQuillan is the son of Atty. and Mrs. James McQuillan of St. Joseph.

Miss Lehman will attend Girls State at Olivet college June 12-20, and McQuillan will go to Boys State at Michigan State university June 19-23.

Council 1120 of the Knights of Columbus will sponsor the Lake Michigan Catholic delegates.

The purpose of Girls and Boys State is to emphasize the importance of government, to stimulate a lasting interest in government, and to increase understanding of the governmental process.

GOP Gets Grim Message In Popular Voting Totals

WASHINGTON (AP) — Popular vote totals in the nation's first six primary elections hold an ominous message for Republicans: more than two-thirds of the 5.96 million votes cast were on Democratic ballots.

And although President Ford has been the choice of 55.6 per cent of Republicans voting in these primaries, his popular vote total of 1.06 million is less than the 1.53 million polled by Jimmy Carter, who is one of a stable of Democratic candidates who at one time numbered as many as 12.

Carter was the favorite of 37.9 per cent of Democrats voting so far.

The popular vote totals may come in for study by party strategists since they may indicate that more people are voting as Democrats than generally tell pollsters they consider themselves to be Democrats.

In the primaries so far, about 68 per cent of the voters have marked Democratic ballots, although the Gallup Poll showed last fall that on a nationwide basis only 44 per cent of the American voters considered themselves to be members of the Democratic party.

That poll last September also showed only 21 per cent thought of themselves as Republicans, the GOP's lowest point since the Depression. The other 35 per cent told Gallup they were independents.

Some primaries in the past have been prone to crossover voting where a member of one party votes on the other party's ballot. But there has been little reason this year to suspect crossover voting because every primary has been contested except the GOP balloting in tiny Vermont and because Democratic party rules now do their best to bar Republicans from getting Democratic ballots.

States voting so far are New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Vermont, Florida, Illinois and North Carolina. All except Massachusetts went for Republican Richard Nixon in the 1972 presidential election.

But in this year's primaries, more Democratic votes were cast in all those states except

New Hampshire, a traditional Republican state.

Of course considerations will be far different in November than in primary balloting. For example, a voter who favored a conservative Democrat in a primary might vote for a Republican in November.

Voting by candidate is subject to qualification because every candidate except Carter has skipped active campaigning in one or more primaries.

although their names were sometimes on the ballot.

On the other hand, candidates sometimes skipped primaries in states where they believed they would do poorly.

All of the first primary states except Vermont awarded delegates based on either the popular vote or concurrent delegate voting.

Ford has won 65.7 per cent of the 280 GOP delegates available, significantly above his popular vote percentage. Challenger Ronald Reagan has captured 28.9 per cent, well below his 43.0 per cent of the popular vote.

Of 432 Democratic delegates available so far, Carter won 35.6 per cent, close to his popular vote percentage. Gov. George C. Wallace, however, got only 17.3 per cent of the available delegates for his 26.9 per cent of the popular vote.

In both the Republican and Democratic primaries, some votes went to candidates no longer running or minor candidates or were cast uncommitted or as "no preference" ballots.

Islanders Seek Tax Relief In Michigan

WASHINGTON ISLAND, Wis. (AP) — Fed up with high taxes, this island's residents want to say goodbye to Wisconsin and hello to Michigan.

Paul Jonjak of Sturgeon Bay, Wis., said he has been asked by the islanders to begin legal proceedings to enact the transfer because the 300 to 500 year-around island residents are dissatisfied with the taxes in Wisconsin.

"Up here we run a frugal ship," town chairman Jack D. Hagen said. "And now they're trying to kill us with taxes."

Washington Island is in Lake Michigan off Wisconsin's Door County. The nearest Michigan land is Delta County's Garden Peninsula. The state line is only 1 1/2 miles away.

Legislatures of the two states and Congress would have to approve any transfer from one state to another.

But Hagen says it would be worth all the time and trouble.

"People come up here to be isolated," said Hagen. "They feel secure...they get out of the jungle. We've been guarding this island and now they're trying to take it away from us."

A new clause in Wisconsin's equalized school aid law takes tax money away from districts with high property values and gives it to less affluent ones.

Property values on the island are rising rapidly because of the tourist trade.

The permanent island residents cannot afford to pay the freight.

Hagen, for example, says his tax bill will rise from $800 to $2,000.

"This monster is wrecking me," said Hagen.

Ask Your Dentist

By ALFRED E. SEYLER, D.D.S.

Q. Is there any reason I don't have wisdom teeth? I am 19 years old. W.H.J.

A. More than likely, you are just late in "cutting" these teeth, or they are in such a position in the jaw that they can't erupt. You should see your family dentist and ask him to investigate your situation by means of x-rays. If they are present and something is interfering with their eruption, extraction may be necessary to avoid undue pressure on your other teeth.

Dentists are often asked by people why wisdom teeth (third molars) are late erupting, or in many cases never erupt. It is not at all unusual for a person to have missing wisdom teeth. In fact, 25 percent of us never get these third molars.

Incidentally, the custom of calling the third molars "wisdom teeth" apparently came from the fact that the teeth usually appear late—from the 17th to the 22nd year.

Q. In spite of the care I give my teeth, they seem to be wearing away at the gum line. They aren't decayed, but some of them are such deep depressions I have to have them filled—and they still wear away around the fillings. Can you tell me why this happens and if there is any way I can stop it? R.B.

A. Apparently your problem is the dissolving or wearing away of the enamel of your teeth in a particular area of your teeth. The problem is not uncommon, and some degree of wear at the gum line of teeth is found in most people, especially in those past 40.

Wearing away of tooth structure can be a form of "abrasion" or of "erosion". Erosion is a chemical process that can be caused by acid fruits, such as lemons or limes, if a person eats or drinks those things daily.

Workers in citrus fruit orchards who suck on fresh fruits as they pick them often destroy all of the enamel of their front teeth, due to citric acid of the fresh fruit. Even some of the cold drinks, which may be high in phosphoric acid content, can dissolve tooth enamel.

Obviously, you are the person who can evaluate your habits in regard to the above items in your diet, and eliminate them if you are concerned.

Abrasion is a wearing away of tooth structure by mechanical means. The wearing away is almost identical to that of erosion—it occurs in the same part of the teeth and the actual shape of the "cavities" produced is identical.

The mechanical means can mean the use of a too-abrasive dentifrice or by improper tooth brushing. As you may know, most dentists now recommend the use of a soft bristle tooth brush instead of the stiff bristles that we used to think did a better job.

This change in thinking by our profession seems to me to be an indication that we are constantly examining and evaluating our "official recommendations" to our patients and that we have their interest and good as our prime concern.

I suggest you ask your dentist or hygienist to spend some time with you in a personal explanation and demonstration session about tooth brushing, dentifrices and repair procedures.

PROWLING COUPLE: Spokane County Deputy Sheriff Randall C. Newman is about to join his wife Barbara for an eight-hour work shift in a prowl car. The program of allowing wives of deputies to ride with their husbands is designed to reduce what Sheriff William Reilly calls an alarming increase nationwide in divorces among law enforcement officers. Wives learn about their husbands' problems through the program, Reilly says. (AP Wirephoto)

Deputies Not Concerned About Wives On 'Prowl'

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — Wives of Spokane County sheriff's deputies are on the prowl. But the husbands know where their mates are. They're seated beside them in patrol cars.

It's what Sheriff William J. Reilly calls "an officer and wife awareness program."

Reilly, noting an alarming increase of divorce among law enforcement officers nationally, adopted the program four months ago to better acquaint wives with the jobs their officer husbands perform each day.

"We've found considerable misunderstanding by law enforcement wives about the jobs their husbands do," said Reilly, adding that similar programs have met with considerable success in other departments.

The sheriff said the wives are allowed to accompany their husbands on patrol once every 90 days. Each wife must sign a waiver absolving the county of any liability during her tour, and a wife must stay in the prowl car if her husband res-pends to a call of a serious or dangerous nature.

About a dozen of the department's 64 uniformed patrolmen's wives have gone along for an eight-hour tour of prowl car duty so far, and they seem to enjoy it.

"I'm glad I went along. I saw just what a good officer my husband is," said Mrs. Anthony White. "I'm ready to go again when I can."

Mrs. White said she was impressed with how busy the deputies are when on prowl car duty. During her tour, she accompanied her husband on a heart attack call.

Grand Rapids Rail Saved By Contracts

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — The state Highway Commission on Wednesday approved railroad contracts to continue freight service on tracks from Grand Rapids to the Straits of Mackinac and Traverse City, and also in the Hillsdale area.

Sixteen other contracts approved Wednesday will continue service on smaller lines around the state. All the lines were excluded from the federal Conrail system and were due to cease operations on April 1.

A $1.6 million contract with Michigan Northern Inc. means the 246-mile line between Grand Rapids and the Straits will continue operation on April 1 under the operation of the newly formed railroad company.

The line is the Grand Rapids & Indiana branch of the bankrupt Penn Central Railroad.

The one-year contract will continue services while the state evaluates the needs and costs of the operation.

More than $1 million in federal money will pay operating expenses on the line, while the state's share of $531,300 is earmarked primarily for upgrading the track.

Besides the Grand Rapids-

Mackinaw City line, the contract with Michigan Northern also continues operations on a connector between Walton Junction and Traverso City.

The entire contract needs approval from the State Administrative Board.

Another contract approved Wednesday with the newly organized Hillsdale County Railway Co. will continue freight service for one year on 40 miles of track in the Hillsdale area.

The new company will begin operation of the track April 1, when service on the bankrupt lines would otherwise have ended because they were not included in the federal Conrail system.

The cost of operating the Hillsdale system will be entirely funded by about $307,700 in federal money.

The local freight service runs from a connection with Conrail at Quincy to Hillsdale, Jonesville, Litchfield, Bankers, Reading and Montgomery. It also will extend from Montgomery to Angola, Ind.

Mrs. Michael Myrhe got a taste of real excitement during her tour when her husband and other deputies apprehended two teen-age burglary suspects inside a pizza parlor.

"But the kids they caught were just youngsters, not real grown up burglars like you see on TV," she said.

"I understand my husband's job better now. When he comes home and talks about things like checking buildings for burglars. I have a much better idea of what he's talking about."

Mrs. James Hill used to be a police radio operator and had ridden in a prowl car before. But she said, "It's a lot different when you're riding with your husband. You seem to sense the potential dangers a lot more."

Said Mrs. William Jenecke, "Now I can see why he's so tired when he comes home from work, after seeing what all those officers do on shift."

Junta Begins Rule In Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Military rule in Argentina has begun with the usual flood of restrictive decrees but no indication of what the three-man junta plans to do about the nearly bankrupt economy.

After sending President Isabel Peron off to house arrest in southern Argentina early Wednesday, the commanders of the army, navy and air force issued decrees suspending political parties and labor unions, setting up "special war councils" to judge subversion cases and imposing censorship on the Argentine press.

No armed resistance to the new government was reported, and censorship muted criticism.

The junta, headed by the 50-year-old army commander, Gen. Jorge Videla, said it was banning political activity "while the process is carried out for the recuperation of the state in all its levels and functions."

But it said it would return Argentina eventually to "republican democracy" and would align the country with "the Western and Christian world."

In banning the activities of the labor unions that were the backbone of the Peronist movement, the junta said they "have been affected by the process of disorder, corruption and subversion that has characterized national activities in recent years." However, it promised to respect the "social conquests" of workers.

Newspapers were required to submit page proofs in triplicate to the censors for approval before publication. "Corrections made must be strictly respected," said an official set of rules distributed to editors. Another communique prohibited publication of statements by guerrilla organizations and material insulting to the armed forces.

The censors permitted the press to carry news of a raid on the headquarters of the powerful metalworkers' union, where security forces said they found firearms, ammunition and a stock of automobile license plates.

But the censors edited an NBC television film to eliminate scenes of troops firing on a Communist party office and roughing up a man leaving the building. The censors said it was an isolated incident and showing it would distort the reality of the generally peaceful coup.

PROWLING COUPLE: Spokane County Deputy Sheriff Randall C. Newman is about to join his wife Barbara for an eight-hour work shift in a patrol car. The program of allowing wives of deputies to ride with their husbands is designed to reduce what Sheriff William Reilly calls an alarming increase nationwide in divorces among law enforcement officers. Wives learn about their husbands' problems through the program, Reilly says. (AP Wirephoto)

Deputies Not Concerned About Wives On 'Prowl'

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — Wives of Spokane County sheriff's deputies are on the prowl. But the husbands know where their mates are. They're seated beside them in patrol cars.

It's what Sheriff William J. Reilly calls "an officer and wife awareness program."

Reilly, noting an alarming increase of divorce among law enforcement officers nationally, adopted the program four months ago to better acquaint wives with the jobs their officer husbands perform each day. "We've found considerable misunderstanding by law enforcement wives about the jobs their husbands do," said Reilly, adding that similar programs have met with considerable success in other departments.

The sheriff said the wives are allowed to accompany their husbands on patrol once every 90 days. Each wife must sign a waiver absolving the county of any liability during her tour, and a wife must stay in the patrol car if her husband responds to a call of a serious or dangerous nature.

About a dozen of the department's 64 uniformed patrolmen's wives have gone along for an eight-hour tour of patrol car duty so far, and they seem to enjoy it.

"I'm glad I went along. I saw just what a good officer my husband is," said Mrs. Anthony White. "I'm ready to go again when I can."

Mrs. White said she was impressed with how busy the deputies are when on patrol car duty. During her tour, she accompanied her husband on a heart attack call.

Mrs. Michael Myrhe got a taste of real excitement during her tour when her husband and other deputies apprehended two teen-age burglary suspects inside a pizza parlor.

"But the kids they caught were just youngsters, not real grown up burglars like you see on TV," she said.

"I understand my husband's job better now. When he comes home and talks about things like checking buildings for burglars, I have a much better idea of what he's talking about."

Mrs. James Hill used to be a police radio operator and had ridden in a patrol car before. But she said, "It's a lot different when you're riding with your husband. You seem to sense the potential dangers a lot more."

Said Mrs. William Jenecke, "Now I can see why he's so tired when he comes home from work, after seeing what all those officers do on shift."

Grand Rapids Rail Saved By Contracts

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — The state Highway Commission on Wednesday approved railroad contracts to continue freight service on tracks from Grand Rapids to the Straits of Mackinac and Traverse City, and also in the Hillsdale area.

Sixteen other contracts approved Wednesday will continue service on smaller lines around the state. All the lines were excluded from the federal Conrail system and were due to cease operations on April 1.

A $1.6 million contract with Michigan Northern Inc. means the 246-mile line between Grand Rapids and the Straits will continue operation on April 1 under the operation of the newly formed railroad company.

The line is the Grand Rapids & Indiana branch of the bankrupt Penn Central Railroad.

The one-year contract will continue services while the state evaluates the needs and costs of the operation.

More than $1 million in federal money will pay operating expenses on the line, while the state's share of $531,300 is earmarked primarily for upgrading the track.

Besides the Grand Rapids-

Mackinaw City line, the contract with Michigan Northern also continues operations on a connector between Walton Junction and Traverse City.

The entire contract needs approval from the State Administrative Board.

Another contract approved Wednesday with the newly organized Hillsdale County Railway Co. will continue freight service for one year on 40 miles of track in the Hillsdale area.

The new company will begin operation of the track April 1, when service on the bankrupt lines would otherwise have ended because they were not included in the federal Conrail system.

The cost of operating the Hillsdale system will be entirely funded by about $307,700 in federal money.

The local freight service runs from a connection with Conrail at Quincy to Hillsdale, Jonesville, Litchfield, Bankers, Reading and Montgomery. It also will extend from Montgomery to Angola, Ind.

Junta Begins Rule In Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Military rule in Argentina has begun with the usual flood of restrictive decrees but no indication of what the three-man junta plans to do about the nearly bankrupt economy.

After sending President Isabel Peron off to house arrest in southern Argentina early Wednesday, the commanders of the army, navy and air force issued decrees suspending political parties and labor unions, setting up "special war councils" to judge subversion cases and imposing censorship on the Argentine press.

No armed resistance to the new government was reported, and censorship muted criticism.

The junta, headed by the 50-year-old army commander, Gen. Jorge Videla, said it was banning political activity "while the process is carried out for the recuperation of the state in all its levels and functions."

But it said it would return Argentina eventually to "republican democracy" and would align the country with "the Western and Christian world."

In banning the activities of the labor unions that were the backbone of the Peronist movement, the junta said they "have been affected by the process of disorder, corruption and subversion that has characterized national activities in recent years." However, it promised to respect the "social conquests" of workers.

U.S. Crime Rate Up 9% Despite Drop In Murders

WASHINGTON (AP) — The number of crimes reported to police in the United States increased 9 per cent last year, but murders dropped for the first time in more than a decade, the FBI said today.

Murders in 1975 declined 1 per cent from the 1974 total of 20,800, preliminary figures showed.

But the other six categories measured by the FBI's Uniform Crime Reports reflected 1975 increases ranging from 1 per cent for rape to 12 per cent for larceny.

The new report suggested that while crime is continuing to rise, the rate of increase may be slowing. The 1975 increase was half the 18 per cent surge recorded a year earlier.

Broken down by quarters, the report showed that crime rose 18 per cent during the first three months of 1975 compared with the same period a year earlier. But the increase slowed to 8 per cent in the second quarter, 6 per cent in the third and 4 per cent in the fourth.

"While the per cent increase in reported serious crime in the nation was only half as great as it was in 1974, the levels of crime remain much too high," Atty. Gen. Edward H. Levi said. "All segments of the criminal justice system must continue to improve their efforts to reduce crime."

The preliminary figures are subject to change in the FBI's final report on the 1975 crime rate, due in the fall. The final report normally differs from the preliminary figures by 1 or 2 percentage points.

But FBI officials said Wednesday they believe the decline in the murder rate will stand because the preliminary figures include the major cities that account for most of the nation's homicides.

The murder rate measurement is generally considered the most accurate FBI crime statistic because virtually all murders are reported to police. The FBI figures are a compilation of murders, rapes, robberies, assaults, burglaries, larcenies and vehicle thefts reported to state and local police.

The preliminary report includes figures from 8,205 agencies, while the final report will include more than 12,000 agencies.

The FBI acknowledges that in some categories, particularly rape, the number of offenses reported to police reflects only a portion of the crimes actually committed.

The 1 per cent decrease in the murder rate marked the first time since 1962 that homicides have declined over a full-year period. FBI figures showed there were 8,480 murders in 1975, a 2 per cent decrease from the previous year.

FBI officials said they will not have the total number of murders in 1975 until the final report is completed. The figures for selected cities included:

Chicago, 818 in 1975 and 870 in 1974; Detroit, 528 and 714; Philadelphia, 435 and 441.

Washington, 235 and 277; Boston, 119 and 134; and Atlanta, 185 and 246.

But some cities had more slayings in 1975. Los Angeles listed 555 last year and 481 in 1974. New York reported 1,645 murders, up from 1,544.

The report also showed that vehicle thefts increased 2 per cent, robbery and assault each rose 5 per cent and burglary was up 7 per cent.

Crime on the whole rose 10 per cent in the suburbs, 9 per cent in rural areas and 8 per cent in cities over 25,000 in population.

By region, crime rose 6 per cent in Western states, 8 per cent in North Central states, 10 per cent in the Northeast and 11 per cent in the South.

Robbery Conviction Reversed

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — The 11th Circuit Court of Appeals has reversed an armed robbery conviction because the defendant apparently pleaded guilty under the belief he would receive a lighter sentence.

Edward Ball pleaded guilty in Washtenaw County Circuit Court after, he said, his attorney told him the prosecutor would recommend a minimum sentence of 10 years. He was sentenced to 20-40 years in prison.

The court ruled that when a recommendation on sentencing is part of a plea bargain, it must be placed in the court record. It said any doubts over whether the defendant relied on the promise of the recommendation by the prosecutor should be decided in the defendant's favor.

Detroit Has Michigan's Sharpest Crime Increase

By MARTIN HIRSCHMAN
Associated Press Writer

Serious crime in Michigan's most populous cities jumped 8.6 per cent last year from the year before, the Federal Bureau of Investigation reported today.

The FBI's Uniform Crime Reports showed the sharpest increase came in Detroit, where the number of reported crimes rose 11.7 per cent. Crime was up 8.3 per cent in Flint and 6.2 per cent in Dearborn.

Despite the overall crime increase, four Michigan cities with populations of over 100,000 reported a decline. Crime was down 5.4 per cent in Livonia, 5 per cent in Warren, 2.5 per cent in Lansing and 1 per cent in Ann Arbor.

Comparable 1974 figures were not available for Grand Rapids, the FBI said.

With the exception of homicides, every category of crimes showed an increase.

Murder and non-negligent manslaughter was down 12.7 per cent from 783 to 682 in the seven cities for which comparable figures were given.

Forcible rape rose 10 per cent, robbery was up 6.5 per cent, aggravated assault increased 6.9 per cent, burglary and break-ins inched up 3.4 per cent, larceny rose 13.7 per cent and auto theft jumped 9.6 per cent.

The city of Detroit accounted for 714 of the homicides in 1974 and 628 in 1975. Officials have credited special police efforts to apprehend underworld assassins with reducing the city's murder rate.

Detroit alone accounted for two-thirds of all serious crime in the eight largest Michigan cities.

Burglary was down in every city except Detroit. Robbery rose in every city.

Reported rape dropped in Warren and Ann Arbor but rose in the other cities. Assaults dropped only in Ann Arbor and Lansing. Larceny dropped slightly in Livonia. Auto theft was down in Lansing and Livonia.

The following are figures included in the FBI's Uniform Crime Reports for Michigan's eight largest cities. After the name of each city, the numbers represent total serious crimes, number of homicides, rapes, robberies, assaults, burglaries, larcenies and auto thefts for 1975. Numbers in parentheses are the figures for 1974.

ANN ARBOR: 9,078 (10,058); 4 (3); 34 (50); 253 (238); 270 (264); 2,573 (2,913); 6,243 (6,015); 599 (549).

U.S. Crime Rate Up 9% Despite Drop In Murders

WASHINGTON (AP) — The number of crimes reported to police in the United States increased 9 per cent last year, but murders dropped for the first time in more than a decade, the FBI said today.

Murders in 1975 declined 1 per cent from the 1974 total of 20,600, preliminary figures showed.

But the other six categories measured by the FBI's Uniform Crime Reports reflected 1975 increases ranging from 1 per cent for rape to 12 per cent for larceny.

The new report suggested that while crime is continuing to rise, the rate of increase may be slowing. The 1975 increase was half the 18 per cent surge recorded a year earlier.

Broken down by quarters, the report showed that crime rose 18 per cent during the first three months of 1975 compared with the same period a year earlier. But the increase slowed to 8 per cent in the second quarter, 6 per cent in the third and 4 per cent in the fourth.

"While the per cent increase in reported serious crime in the nation was only half as great as it was in 1974, the levels of crime remain much too high," Atty. Gen. Edward H. Levi said. "All segments of the criminal justice system must continue to improve their efforts to reduce crime."

The preliminary figures are subject to change in the FBI's final report on the 1975 crime rate, due in the fall. The final report normally differs from the preliminary figures by 1 or 2 percentage points.

But FBI officials said Wednesday they believe the decline in the murder rate will stand because the preliminary figures include the major cities that account for most of the nation's homicides.

The murder rate measurement is generally considered the most accurate FBI crime statistic because virtually all murders are reported to police. The FBI figures are a compilation of murders, rapes, robberies, assaults, burglaries, larcenies and vehicle thefts reported to state and local police.

The preliminary report includes figures from 8,265 agencies, while the final report will include more than 12,000 agencies.

The FBI acknowledges that in some categories, particularly rape, the number of offenses reported to police reflects only a portion of the crimes actually committed.

The 1 per cent decrease in the murder rate marked the first time since 1962 that homicides have declined over a full-year period. FBI figures showed there were 8,480 murders in 1962, a 2 per cent decrease from the previous year.

FBI officials said they will not have the total number of murders in 1975 until the final report is completed. The figures for selected cities included:

Chicago, 818 in 1975 and 970 in 1974; Detroit, 628 and 714; Philadelphia, 435 and 444;

Washington, 235 and 277; Boston, 119 and 134; and Atlanta, 185 and 248.

But some cities had more slayings in 1975. Los Angeles listed 555 last year and 481 in 1974. New York reported 1,645 murders, up from 1,554.

The report also showed that vehicle thefts increased 2 per cent, robbery and assault each rose 5 per cent and burglary was up 7 per cent.

Crime on the whole rose 10 per cent in the suburbs, 9 per cent in rural areas and 8 per cent in cities over 25,000 in population.

By region, crime rose 6 per cent in Western states, 8 per cent in north central states, 10 per cent in the Northeast and 11 per cent in the South.

Detroit Has Michigan's Sharpest Crime Increase

By MARTIN HIRSCHMAN

Serious crime in Michigan's most populous cities jumped 8.6 per cent last year from the year before, the Federal Bureau of Investigation reported today.

The FBI's Uniform Crime Reports showed the sharpest increase came in Detroit, where the number of reported crimes rose 11.7 per cent. Crime was up 9.3 per cent in Flint and 6.2 per cent in Dearborn.

Despite the overall crime increase, four Michigan cities with populations of over 100,000 reported a decline. Crime was down 5.4 per cent in Livonia, 5 per cent in Warren, 2.5 per cent in Lansing and 1 per cent in Ann Arbor.

Comparable 1974 figures were not available for Grand Rapids, the FBI said.

With the exception of homicides, every category of crimes showed an increase.

Murder and non-negligent manslaughter was down 12.7 per cent from 793 to 692 in the seven cities for which comparable figures were given.

Forcible rape rose 10 per cent, robbery was up 6.5 per cent, aggravated assault increased 6.9 per cent, burglary and break-ins inched up 3.4 per cent, larceny rose 13.7 per cent and auto theft jumped 9.6 per cent.

The city of Detroit accounted for 714 of the homicides in 1974 and 628 in 1975. Officials have credited special police efforts to apprehend underworld assassins with reducing the city's murder rate.

Detroit alone accounted for two-thirds of all serious crime in the eight largest Michigan cities.

Burglary was down in every city except Detroit. Robbery rose in every city.

Reported rape dropped in Warren and Ann Arbor but rose in the other cities. Assaults dropped only in Ann Arbor and Lansing. Larceny dropped slightly in Livonia. Auto theft was down in Lansing and Livonia.

The following are figures included in the FBI's Uniform Crime Reports for Michigan's eight largest cities. After the name of each city, the numbers represent total serious crimes, number of homicides, rapes, robberies, assaults, burglaries, larcenies and auto thefts for 1975. Numbers in parentheses are the figures for 1974.

Robbery Conviction Reversed

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — The 11th Circuit Court of Appeals has reversed an armed robbery conviction because the defendant apparently pleaded guilty under the belief he would receive a lighter sentence.

Edward Ball pleaded guilty in Washtenaw County Circuit Court after, he said, his attorney told him the prosecutor would recommend a minimum sentence of 10 years. He was sentenced to 20-40 years in prison.

The court ruled that when a recommendation on sentencing is part of a plea bargain, it must be placed in the court record. It said any doubts over whether the defendant relied on the promise of the recommendation by the prosecutor should be decided in the defendant's favor.

Hartford Play This Weekend

HARTFORD — Sarah Jackson and Jeff Klann have the leading roles in the Hartford senior class play "Ten Little Indians" to be presented Friday and Saturday nights, March 26 and 27, at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. The Agatha Christie play is a mystery-comedy, according to director Al Steffens. Steffens is being assisted by student director Tim Rider.

SARAH JACKSON Female lead

Major supporting roles, according to Steffens, will be played by Rhonda Carmichael and Phil Dodd.

Other members of the cast include Brian Perry, Janet Unrath, Linda Martin, Dwayne Linderman, Blain Becktold, Chuck Harmon, and Ann Richmond.

Admission is $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for students. Tickets will be available at the door both nights.

Student script director for the play is Audrey Latus while music has been handled by Kevin Winkel; makeup by Roberta Lockwood and Mike Kling and lighting, Mark Kellogg.

Straits Ice Is Searched

CHEBOYGAN, Mich. (AP) — A Coast Guard helicopter search continued today for a Cheboygan man believed missing on the ice near the Straits of Mackinac.

Officials said Lewis Taylor, 61, was last seen Wednesday riding a snowmobile from an ice fishing party on Lake Huron near Cheboygan.

A Coast Guard helicopter from Traverse City searched for Lewis Wednesday night and resumed efforts this morning.

Seven Area Schools In Debate Tourney

DOWAGIAC — Students from seven southwestern Michigan high schools are scheduled to compete in a debating tournament Saturday, March 27, at Southwestern Michigan college here. Schools competing in the tournament include Bloomingdale, Buchanan, Cassopolis, Gobles, Mattawan, Paw Paw and Lake Michigan Catholic at St. Joseph, the college said. The competition is the Michigan Interscholastic Forensic Association's district tournament, the second step in a statewide competition. Each school may send a maximum of 16 entrants.

Lawrence Accepts Demolition Bids On 2 City-Owned Buildings

LAWRENCE — The Lawrence village council last night accepted a bid of $2,900 from the Judson Moses excavating firm of Lawrence for demolition of two city-owned buildings on Paw Paw street.

The bid was the lowest of three submitted. Both buildings were recently purchased by the village and once demolished, the lots will be used for off-street parking.

In other areas, the council learned that federal comprehensive employment and training act (CETA) funds will no longer be available to the village after June 30.

Two employees are now paid from the funds, acting police chief Dale Gribler and a public works department employee. The council indicated that Gribler would remain employed and be paid from village funds.

Gribler was appointed acting chief early in March after the council fired the police chief of 10 years, Roscoe Earls.

The council agreed to pay public works employees time and one-half for time exceeding 40 hours a week. The overtime will be retroactive to March 1. It was noted that the police department would like to be notified when residents are leaving for vacation so it can make special checks of the unoccupied homes.

'Halloween' Bandit Takes $125, Say Niles Police

NILES — Niles police said a bandit wearing a halloween mask held up a party store here last night and escaped with $125.

Police said the son of the store owner, an employee and two customers in the Crocker Party Pantry, 1702 Broadway, told them the man had one hand covered by a paperbag and they believed he had a gun inside it.

Mike Crocker, Berrien Springs, son of store owner, Joe Crocker, and employee Mike Pontius of Niles, told police the man told them to lie on the floor or he would kill them.

They told officers the man also threatened two customers in the store, Martha Foster and Jack Chapman, both of Niles.

The two told police they did not see a weapon, but feared the holdup man was holding one inside the bag.

Police said the man took cash from two registers and from the wallets of Crocker and Pontius.

The man, described as black, between 17 and 24, fled from the store in an unknown direction, police said.

Police said no one was injured in the 10 p.m. holdup.

Body Is Not Youth's

HART, Mich. (AP) — State Police say they are certain a body washed up along Lake Michigan's shore in Oceana County is not that of a Walker youth missing since November. However, they say they don't know whose body it is.

Sgt. Allan Seyfred said dental checks Thursday showed the body's teeth differ from those of Daniel Brown, 16, who was swept off a Grand Haven pier last Nov. 10.

The sergeant said an autopsy showed the body is that of a man between 40 and 45 years old. Seyfred said the man has been dead about six weeks. There was no sign of foul play, he said.

Returning Money Made Him Sick?

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. (AP) — Nine-year-old Michael Parker thought he suddenly became wealthy.

While playing in the parking lot of a suburban Emmet Township bar, he found a wallet containing more than $8,000 in cash and checks.

During a family conference about the find, Michael told his parents he wanted to buy a new car. But Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Parker decided the money should be returned.

They turned the wallet and its contents over to State Police, who are searching for the manager of a band whose name was printed on most of the checks. The group recently played at the bar, police said.

Michael, who returned home Tuesday shouting, "We struck it rich," after his discovery, was sick in bed Wednesday, according to his mother.

Returning Money Made Him Sick?

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. (AP) — Nine-year-old Michael Parker thought he suddenly became wealthy.

While playing in the parking lot of a suburban Emmet Township bar, he found a wallet containing more than $6,000 in cash and checks.

During a family conference about the find, Michael told his parents he wanted to buy a new car. But Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Parker decided the money should be returned.

They turned the wallet and its contents over to State Police, who are searching for the manager of a band whose name was printed on most of the checks. The group recently played at the bar, police said.

Michael, who returned home Tuesday shouting, "We struck it rich," after his discovery, was sick in bed Wednesday, according to his mother.

Drowning Decision Overturned

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — The Court of Appeals has overturned a lower court decision which ordered the state to pay damages in the drowning of three persons in a pit dug by the state.

In 1966, the state Highway Department purchased land in Arenac County and removed dirt for the construction of Interstate 75. The excavation resulted in a deep pit which filled with water and formed a pond about 1,000 feet long and 500 feet wide.

In 1968, two young boys drowned in the pond after breaking through ice which covered it. One boy's father also drowned when he tried to save them.

past and the present — from heads of state to chairmen of the board — but it is a glimpse of our 37th President, Richard M. Nixon, profiled this week in Family Weekly by long-time associate and friend, Charles Colson.

If there's one lesson that Nixon's fall from power taught us, says Colson, it is that no man is omniscient or omnipotent. No man is a God. We shouldn't treat human beings as immortal, nor should we expect perfection from them: truth and good intentions, yes, but not perfection.

Find out why Charles Colson believes that our leaders will continue to fail us as long as we suffer from religious bankruptcy and why we become so easily disillusioned when their human frailties are exposed.

Read about the very human side of Richard Nixon, who continues to be both villain and martyr in a country where there are no longer any saints.

Cry Rises For South African Black Rule

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — They defied the sticky heat of a Sunday afternoon to jam Jabulani Stadium in the sprawling African township of Soweto, roaring "power is ours."

They came on foot, in cars, buses and trucks. Black Africans from all over Johannesburg — to form a crowd of some 10,000 cheering people.

They came to cheer Chief Gatsha Buthelezi, leader of South Africa's 4 million Zulus, who spoke of oppression, racial apartheid discrimination and black liberation of white governed South Africa.

He called for moves towards "majority" rule in this nation of 18 million blacks governed by a minority of 4 million whites, declaring, "I am a kaffir (nigger) who has forgotten his place."

The Zulu prince, leader of the Kwa Zulu homeland or tribal reserve, also called on blacks of all tribes in South Africa to join his Inkatha National Cultural Liberation Movement.

While the Inkatha movement is essentially of Zulu origin it appears that Buthelezi was seeking to speak for all black South Africans.

There has been widespread speculation he is attempting to create a national black political movement to replace the long banned African National Congress led by the late Albert Lutuli in the 1950s.

Buthelezi said he was offering a black hand of friendship to South Africa's whites, but he added:

"In this eleventh hour, in this last hour, some things need to be said in this country. They need to be said by blacks and they need to be said very clearly and in unequivocal terms.

"We blacks are concerned first and foremost with liberation. We want to be free from the stigma of being unworthy of full citizenship or of being only worthy of fourth class citizenship and unworthy of having a real vote in the country of our birth.

"We want to be free to be equal to all other men. We want to be free to participate in majority decisions about the future of our country and our common destiny with other South Africans.

"We disdain the political role into which the white minority has relegated us. The white minority has foisted on us political circumstances which make a mockery of our dignity and our responsibility."

South Africa, he said, must move towards majority rule.

"It is this single principle that is central to any question to do with Southern Africa's politics. This is the burning question in Namibia (South West Africa). This is the burning question in Zimbabwe (Rhodesia) as much as it has been the burning question in Mozambique and Angola," he declared.

Buthelezi, long one of the most vocal black politicians in South Africa, also flatly rejected the government's policy of granting independence to African homelands or reserves carved out of South African territory.

Buthelezi referred to the homelands, the ultimate end of the policy of apartheid or separate racial development, as "Balkanisation which can only give white domination a breathing space and further prolong our peoples' suffering."

He said those trying to divide South Africa into white areas and black tribal homelands are "mistaken men" who are "fighting against the force of history."

Most significant of all, perhaps, Buthelezi called for all Africans to join his movement with which "we shall produce a groundswell which will bring about change in South Africa."

There has been no official comment from the government, but Dieburger of Cape Town, official organ of the ruling National Party in the Cape Province, castigated Buthelezi sharply in an editorial last week.

It accused him of mobilizing and working up "radical expectations and feelings" among blacks.

"The Zulu leader is not only busy conjuring up visions of speedy black rule of the whole of South Africa before mass meetings of unsophisticated people but is also busy undermining the stature of other homeland leaders and governments with the charge that they are rejecting their birthrights by accepting 'so-called independence,'" the newspaper said.

"This sort of talk is very dangerous for South Africa," remarked Andries Treurnicht, the arch conservative deputy minister of Bantu (African) Education.

He said Buthelezi was asking whites to commit political suicide and that this would be opposed by whites "with all their power."

The speech has once again drawn the battle lines between black leaders in South Africa who support the homelands policy and seek independence such as Kaiser Matanzima of the Transkei and those who want to keep South Africa whole.

Buthelezi, 46, is leader of Zululand, a fragmented territory in Natal Province split into 29 separate pieces, one of nine African homelands.

"I am a prime minister without a country," Buthelezi once remarked, "and we are citizens of nowhere."

Class C Finalist Boasts Interesting History

Buck Cagers Unique Bunch

MIKE BUSBY

By JACK WALKDEN
Staff Sports Writer

BUCHANAN — Those Buchanan Bucks are a unique bunch.

After all, their coach was not even the first choice for the job. The team's second-leading scorer played just one full year of basketball before his junior year. Two starters transferred to the school five years ago and another regular is just a sophomore. And the team's sixth man was not even expected to make the varsity last year as a junior.

But the Bucks have put these forces together for a perfect 27-0 record and a berth in Saturday's Class C championship game in Ann Arbor against Negaunee.

"The potential was always there," Dave Wishart, ex-Buck junior varsity coach said. "The credit has to be given to coach (Bill) Wilson and coach (Pat) Sexton for developing them into what they are now. The potential was there and they got it out of them."

And one need only look at the team's previous records to realize that the potential was indeed there. This year's senior class lost just two games during junior high play, finishing 14-2 under coach Howard Verhage in seventh grade and 16-0 under coach Bill Goodman in eighth grade.

Two of this year's three senior regulars, Walt Vanderbush and Ken Garrett, played junior varsity ball as freshmen under Wishart. Though that team finished 5-15, almost half the losses were by four points or less.

Wilson took over the group from there and has coached Buchanan to a 55-18 record in three years at the helm. Oddly enough, Wilson was at first bypassed for the coaching vacancy when Don Rennhack resigned in 1972.

Former Purdue basketball star Dave Schellhase took over as coach that year in June and after just three months on the job he left to become an assistant at North Dakota State. Schellhase is now head coach at Moorhead State in Minnesota.

grabbed the job without a second thought.

"I never cared that it was the second choice," he says. "He didn't want the job and I did. The kids were hungry to learn and I think they were just waiting for someone to show an interest in them."

When Wilson arrived on the scene at Buchanan, the cage program was in a downhill slide, finishing a dismal 5-16 the year before.

"When I first came here the team had finished with the worst defense in the area two years in a row," Wilson said. "We had a tremendous amount of work to do on defense. That first year we must have spent 65 to 70 per cent of our practices on individual and team defensive skills."

After a 8-12 finish in 1973, one of the first things Wilson did was get forward Mike Busby to play the following season. Busby, this year's second-best scorer (14.0), played just half of his seventh grade season. After starting as an eighth grader, Busby elected not to play during either his freshman or sophomore seasons. Wilson finally persuaded the shy youngster to come back out for his junior year.

"I just left him alone and didn't bug him," Wilson says. "The first year I was here, I found that he didn't want to play. But he would occasionally be standing in the doorway during practices. Finally at the end of the season some of the kids were saying that Mike wanted to play the next year."

"I met with Mike at the end of the school year and told him that he would have to play on our summer team if he was to have any chance of playing that next year. He made quite a few of our summer games and each time he came he became more relaxed."

Wilson worked extensively that fall with Busby, especially on defense, and by the middle of last season he was capable of starting.

Verhage saw Busby's potential when he was just a seventh grade player even in the little time he had him.

"It's amazing what that kid has developed into in just two-and-one-half years," he notes. "As a seventh grader he had all those smooth moves that he still has now. I can't begin to think of where he'd be if he had played both his freshman and sophomore years."

Buchanan's starting guard combination, brothers Walt and Kevin Vanderbush, transferred here five years ago when their father, Dr. Walt Vanderbush, became Buchanan's high school principal.

The season before (1970-71) in West Lafayette, Ind., Walt's seventh grade team had finished 9-1, while Kevin's sixth grade club was the West Lafayette sixth grade champion.

Wilson has seen dramatic improvement in both Vanderbushs during his three-year stay at Buchanan.

"I felt Walt was a very good ballhandler as a sophomore," Wilson says. "But he's even better now. He's much more consistent and his shot selection and passing are both better. It's like having an assistant coach on the floor because he plays such an intelligent game."

"Probably Kevin's biggest improvement has been defensively. As a freshman, I felt Kevin had no concept of defense except what he could get done with his own ability. Now he plays as good a help-side defense as anyone we have."

The most pleasant surprise of this year's team is sophomore Gerald Busby. Sexton coached Busby for two years along with sophomore sub Greg Frazier, two years ago in eighth grade and last year when both were freshmen on the junior varsity. Those two teams lost a combined total of four games, all by one point.

"When Gerald was in eighth grade, he didn't even come to practice for two weeks," says Sexton, who oddly enough played for Buchanan's last unbeaten team in 1967-68. "I finally got him to come out and it didn't take long before he was in the starting lineup. In eighth grade he and Greg were so dominant that I had to take them both out of the games during the third quarter because we had such big leads."

Wilson calls Gerald "the most relaxed and poised sophomore I've ever had."

"Gerald has very good court savvy," Wilson adds. "That's something you can get only by playing a lot and Gerald certainly does that."

Gary Jones, a senior guard, has been sixth man most of the year, though he has started some games. But two years ago Wilson would not have given Jones a very good chance of even making the varsity.

"He's a very gutsy kid," Wilson says. "But as a sophomore he was about 10th man on the junior varsity and he was terrible. Each of the past two years he has come to me at the end of the year to get a list of things he needs to work on. He worked hard to improve himself in his weak areas. He's gotten to the point where he can come into the games and play as well as our starters."

And then, of course, there's Ken Garrett, who is expected to be an All-State selection when the Associated Press team is announced Saturday. And even Garrett did not average in double figures until his junior year.

Goodman, who is now an assistant baseball coach at FIU, Dodge, La., probably sums up the success of this year's team the best.

"They had the skills and the attitude to be successful," he pointed out. "It really doesn't surprise me that they made it to the finals. Sure, they had weaknesses, but Bill seems to have wiped most of them out."

Stick With Own

PROVO, Utah (AP) — Brigham Young University officials say a replacement for retiring athletic director Stan Watts will come from within the school's athletic department.

Watts retires Aug. 31. Dr. Clayton Jensen, dean of the college of physical education, said Wednesday the school hopes to name a successor within 10 days.

Orr Impressed By Rutgers

Says Knights Fastest Team U-M Will Face

From ASSOCIATED PRESS
Michigan Coach Johnny Orr regards Rutgers as "faster than any team we've played this year."

Orr takes the Wolverines into the NCAA's semifinal round Saturday against the fourth-ranked Scarlet Knights, and he said Wednesday he is impressed with his team's upcoming opponent.

"Phil Sellers is a very active forward, and they have the best personnel of any team we've played all year with the exception of Indiana and maybe Nevada-Las Vegas," Orr said at a news conference.

Rutgers Coach Tom Young is confident.

"Anytime you get this far," said Young, "all you need is two outstanding ball games. Who knows what can happen?"

What could happen is that Rutgers could finish its season 33-0. And if the Scarlet Knights do that, they'll be the NCAA basketball champions for their first time ever. And it'll be one of the year's biggest surprises.

Young acknowledges that similarly unbeaten but top-ranked Indiana is the favorite to win the title but says he feels "any one of the final four has a chance to win."

"We worked so hard to get this far that I can't imagine we won't be ready to play," said Orr. "We should be sky high, and it should be a great game."

"It takes your best effort of the year to make it out of the final four alive," said Young. "Right now we're playing as well as we've been playing all year, but we can't afford a let-down. No one's going to win this thing unless they play well."

Young planned 1½-hour practice sessions for the Scarlet Knights for Wednesday and Thursday, before departing for Philadelphia's Spectrum on Friday.

As for the brevity of the sessions, Young said, "If they don't know it by now, they never will."

Saturday's Michigan-Rutgers game figures to be a wide-open, high-scoring affair, pitting two squads that like to run on offense and press on defense, he says. After that, Young doesn't care if his team meets Indiana or UCLA.

"If we get there, I don't care who we play. It makes no difference because neither one would be easy."

Rutgers and Michigan have met once previously, way back in 1953. The Wolverines won that game, 32-22.

According to Young, the intense national interest in the team has probably helped the squad more than hurt it. "It started for us during the last three games of the regular season since we were undefeated. Now, maybe it's more national coverage, but we're used to it. It can't get any more intense," he said.

"When you're in New York there's interest there. When you're in Pennsylvania, there's interest there. But where we're sitting you get all three," Young said. "In New Jersey, you've got your own state and Pennsylvania and New York."

"Maybe it was good that way, because it prepped us for the post-season," Young said.

Green Generates Go-Go Wolverines

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — When Rickey Green was growing up on Chicago's South Side and playing basketball on the city's playgrounds, he used to pretend he was pro great Walt Frazier.

But now that Green has helped the University of Michigan into the semifinals of the NCAA basketball tourney, he thinks it might be great if youngsters somewhere would say, "I'm Rickey Green" as they practice after school.

Green, a junior, led the Wolverines at the end of the regular season with a 20.4 per-game scoring average and was the highest Michigan scorer in 16 of the team's 27 regular games.

Michigan must get by unbeaten Rutgers Saturday afternoon at The Spectrum in Philadelphia. Michigan topped Wichita State, Notre Dame and Missouri in earlier tournament rounds to earn a berth in the final four.

"I'd say, 'I'm Walt Frazier,'" Green said, recalling his elementary school days. "Then somebody else would say, 'I'm somebody else — that's how we played in grade school.'"

"It sure would please me," said Green, asked if he thought today's youngsters were using his name as their own on backyard or elementary school courts. "I'd feel I'd come a long way if somebody did."

There seems to be little question that Green has come a long way from Chicago, just as the Wolverines came more than a short distance on their way to the top of the NCAA.

Green, a transfer from Vincennes, Ind., Junior College, said the Wolverines had no set goals before the season began.

"We never did know how good we were," he said. "After we played some games, after Tennessee and Nevada-Las Vegas and Indiana, we knew how good we were."

Oddly enough, those three teams all beat Michigan, but Green noted:

"Yeah, but we hung in there, we played good, we knew we could play."

While Green has been partly responsible for making Michigan the quick, running team that it is, he has had help from regulars Steve Grote, Phil Hubbard, Wayne Britt and John Robinson, all averaging in double figures.

Offering surprise help from the bench in the tourney games was Tom Staton, a 6-foot-3 freshman from the Detroit suburb of Ferndale.

Garrett Heads Bud Cage Honor Squad

League scoring champion Ken Garrett heads the Blossomland conference all-league squad announced today by league coaches.

Garrett, who averaged 21 points in 14 conference games, is one of two repeat first team selections. The 6-6 Garrett joins teammates Mike Busby and Walt Vanderbush on the all-league team.

The 6-5 Busby averaged 13.6 points and Vanderbush 12.4 in league play. Cassopolis and River Valley each placed two players on the first team. Ranger center Gary Young, the other repeat selection, and forward Alvin Vanzant formed the Cass contingent. Young finished fifth in the league scoring race with a 16.2 scoring mark. Vanzant came in at 13.9.

Forwards Greg Johnson (15.5) and Dave North (15.5) were the Mustang picks.

Brandywine's Steve McCarthy, who finished fourth in the league with a 16.3 scoring average, Coloma's Gregg Woodward, second with an 18.3 mark, and Dowagiac's 6-7 center Bob Waalkes (14.4) round out the first team.

All 10 members of the squad are seniors.

Stolz cleaned out his desk at MSU and left for good Tuesday. But Stolz has said he would help new athletic director Joseph Kearney if Kearney wants the former coach's help.

Kearney arrives at MSU April 1.

Stolz resigned last week as MSU head football coach after pressure from top school officials. The decision to oust him came in the wake of a three-year probation slapped on MSU by the National Collegiate Athletic Association for football recruiting violations.

One reason given for Stolz being fired was a $2,300 speaking fee he received in January 1975, that he kept for himself, officials have said.

Denny Stolz To Interview Monday For Another Job

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Former Michigan State head football coach Denny Stolz could have a new job next week.

Stolz, 42, said Wednesday he has an interview next Monday, but he would not say where. If he gets the job, he would start immediately, he said.

But the Bucks have put these forces together for a perfect 27-0 record and a berth in Saturday's Class C championship game in Ann Arbor against Negaunee.

"The potential was always there," Dave Wishart, ex-Buck junior varsity coach said. "The credit has to be given to coach (Bill) Wilson and coach (Pat) Sexton for developing them into what they are now. The potential was there and they got it out of them."

And one need only look at the team's previous records to realize that the potential was indeed there. This year's senior class lost just two games during junior high play, finishing 14-2 under coach Howard Verhage in seventh grade and 16-0 under coach Bill Goodman in eighth grade.

Two of this year's three senior regulars, Walt Vanderbush and Ken Garrett, played junior varsity ball as freshmen under Wishart. Though that team finished 5-13, almost half the losses were by four points or less.

Wilson took over the group from there and has coached Buchanan to a 55-18 record in three years at the helm. Oddly enough, Wilson was at first bypassed for the coaching vacancy when Don Rennhack resigned in 1972.

Former Purdue basketball star Dave Schellhase took over as coach that year in June and after just three months on the job he left to become an assistant at North Dakota State. Schellhase is now head coach at Moorhead State in Minnesota.

grabbed the job without a second thought.

"I never cared that I was the second choice," he says. "He didn't want the job and I did. The kids were hungry to learn and I think they were just waiting for someone to show an interest in them."

When Wilson arrived on the scene at Buchanan, the cage program was in a downhill slide, finishing a dismal 5-16 the year before.

"When I first came here the team had finished with the worst defense in the area two years in a row," Wilson said. "We had a tremendous amount of work to do on defense. That first year we must have spent 65 to 70 per cent of our practices on individual and team defensive skills."

After a 9-12 finish in 1973, one of the first things Wilson did was get forward Mike Busby to play the following season. Busby, this year's second-best scorer (14.0), played just half of his seventh grade season. After starring as an eighth grader, Busby elected not to play during either his freshmen or sophomore seasons. Wilson finally persuaded the shy youngster to come back out for his junior year.

"I just left him alone and didn't bug him," Wilson says. "The first year I was here, I found that he didn't want to play. But he would occasionally be standing in the doorway during practices. Finally at the end of the season some of the kids were saying that Mike wanted to play the next year."

"I met with Mike at the end of the school year and told him that he would have to play on our summer team if he was to have any chance of playing that next year. He made quite a few of our summer games and each time he came he became more relaxed."

Wilson worked extensively that fall with Busby, especially on defense, and by the middle of last season he was capable of starting.

Verhage saw Busby's potential when he was just a seventh grade player even in the little time he had him.

"It's amazing what that kid has developed into in just two-and-one-half years," he notes. "As a seventh grader he had all those smooth moves that he still has now. I can't begin to think of where he'd be if he had played both his freshman and sophomore years."

Buchanan's starting guard combination, brothers Walt and Kevin Vanderbush, transferred here five years ago when their father, Dr. Walt Vanderbush, became Buchanan's high school principal.

The season before (1970-71) in West Lafayette, Ind., Walt's seventh grade team had finished 9-1, while Kevin's sixth grade club was the West Lafayette sixth grade champion.

Wilson has seen dramatic improvement in both Vanderbushs during his three-year stay at Buchanan.

"I felt Walt was a very good ballhandler as a sophomore," Wilson says. "But he's even better now. He's much more consistent and his shot selection and passing are both better. It's like having an assistant coach on the floor because he plays such an intelligent game."

"Probably Kevin's biggest improvement has been defensively. As a freshman, I felt Kevin had no concept of defense except what he could get done with his own ability. Now he plays as good a help-side defense as anyone we have."

The most pleasant surprise of this year's team is sophomore Gerald Busby. Sexton coached Busby for two years along with sophomore sub Greg Frazier, two years ago in eighth grade and last year when both were freshmen on the junior varsity. Those two teams lost a combined total of four games, all by one point.

"When Gerald was in eighth grade, he didn't even come to practice for two weeks," says Sexton, who oddly enough played for Buchanan's last unbeaten team in 1967-68. "I finally got him to come out and it didn't take long before he was in the starting lineup. In eighth grade he and Greg were so dominant that I had to take them both out of the games during the third quarter because we had such big leads."

Wilson calls Gerald "the most relaxed and poised sophomore I've ever had." "Gerald has very good court savvy," Wilson adds. "That's something you can get only by playing a lot and Gerald certainly does that."

Gary Jones, a senior guard, has been sixth man most of the year, though he has started some games. But two years ago Wilson would not have given Jones a very good chance of even making the varsity.

"He's a very gutsy kid," Wilson says. "But as a sophomore he was about 10th man on the junior varsity and he was terrible. Each of the past two years he has come to me at the end of the year to get a list of things he needs to work on. He worked hard to improve himself in his weak areas. He's gotten to the point where he can come into the games and play as well as our starters."

And then, of course, there's Ken Garrett, who is expected to be an All-State selection when the Associated Press team is announced Saturday. And even Garrett did not average in double figures until his junior year.

Goodman, who is now an assistant baseball coach at Ft. Dodge, Ia., probably sums up the success of this year's team the best.

"They had the skills and the attitude to be successful," he pointed out. "It really doesn't surprise me that they made it to the finals. Sure, they had weaknesses, but Bill seems to have wiped most of them out."

Stick With Own

PROVO, Utah (AP) — Brigham Young University officials say a replacement for retiring athletic director Stan Watts will come from within the school's athletic department. Watts retires Aug. 31.

Dr. Clayne Jensen, dean of the college of physical education, said Wednesday the school hopes to name a successor within 10 days.

Orr Impressed By Rutgers

Says Knights Fastest Team U-M Will Face

From ASSOCIATED PRESS
Michigan Coach Johnny Orr regards Rutgers as "faster than any team we've played this year."

Orr takes the Wolverines into the NCAA's semifinal round Saturday against the fourth-ranked Scarlet Knights, and he said Wednesday he is impressed with his team's upcoming opponent.

"Phil Sellers is a very active forward, and they have the best personnel of any team we've played all year with the exception of Indiana and maybe Nevada-Las Vegas," Orr said at a news conference.

Rutgers Coach Tom Young is confident.

"Anytime you get this far," said Young, "all you need is two outstanding ball games. Who knows what can happen?"

What could happen is that Rutgers could finish its season 33-0. And if the Scarlet Knights do that, they'll be the NCAA basketball champions for their first time ever. And it'll be one of the year's biggest surprises.

Young acknowledges that similarly unbeaten but top-ranked Indiana is the favorite to win the title but says he feels "any one of the final four has a chance to win."

"We worked so hard to get this far that I can't imagine we won't be ready to play," said Orr. "We should be sky high, and it should be a great game."

"It takes your best effort of the year to make it out of the final four alive," said Young. "Right now we're playing as well as we've been playing all year, but we can't afford a let-down...No one's going to win this thing unless they play well."

Young planned 1½-hour practice sessions for the Scarlet Knights for Wednesday and Thursday, before departing for Philadelphia's Spectrum on Friday.

As for the brevity of the sessions, Young said, "If they don't know it by now, they never will."

Saturday's Michigan-Rutgers game figures to be a wide-open, high-scoring affair, pitting two squads that like to run on offense and press on defense, he says. After that, Young doesn't care if his team meets Indiana or UCLA.

"If we get there, I don't care who we play. It makes no difference because neither one would be easy."

Rutgers and Michigan have met once previously, way back in 1953. The Wolverines won that game, 32-22.

According to Young, the intense national interest in the team has probably helped the squad more than hurt it. "It started for us during the last three games of the regular season since we were undefeated. Now, maybe it's more national coverage, but we're used to it. It can't get any more intense," he said.

"When you're in New York there's interest there. When you're in Pennsylvania, there's interest there. But where we're sitting you get all three," Young said. "In New Jersey, you've got your own state and Pennsylvania and New York."

"Maybe it was good that way, because it prepped us for the post-season," Young said.

Green Generates Go-Go Wolverines

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — When Rickey Green was growing up on Chicago's South Side and playing basketball on the city's playgrounds, he used to pretend he was pro great Walt Frazier.

But now that Green has helped the University of Michigan into the semifinals of the NCAA basketball tourney, he thinks it might be great if youngsters somewhere would say, "I'm Rickey Green" as they practice after school.

Green, a junior, led the Wolverines at the end of the regular season with a 20.4 per-game scoring average and was the highest Michigan scorer in 16 of the team's 27 regular games.

The regular season, which ended at 21-6 for Michigan, included two narrow losses to No. 1 Indiana, one of the other three teams in the NCAA semifinals. To gain the finals,

Michigan must get by unbeaten Rutgers Saturday afternoon at The Spectrum in Philadelphia. Michigan topped Wichita State, Notre Dame and Missouri in earlier tournament rounds to earn a berth in the final four.

"I'd say, I'm Walt Frazier," Green said, recalling his elementary school days. "Then somebody else would say, 'I'm somebody else' — that's how we played in grade school."

"It sure would please me," said Green, asked if he thought today's youngsters were using his name as their own on backyard or elementary school courts. "I'd feel I'd come a long way if somebody did."

There seems to be little question that Green has come a long way from Chicago, just as the Wolverines came more than a short distance on their way to the top of the NCAA.

Green, a transfer from Vincennes, Ind., Junior College, said the Wolverines had no set goals before the season began.

"We never did know how good we were," he said. "After we played some games, after Tennessee and Nevada-Las Vegas and Indiana, we knew how good we were."

Oddly enough, those three teams all beat Michigan, but Green noted:

"Yeah, but we hung in there, we played good, we knew we could play."

While Green has been partly responsible for making Michigan the quick, running team that it is, he has had help from regulars Steve Grote, Phil Hubbard, Wayman Britt and John Robinson, all averaging in double figures.

Offering surprise help from the bench in the tourney games was Tom Staton, a 6-foot-3 freshman from the Detroit suburb of Ferndale.

Garrett Heads Bud Cage Honor Squad

League scoring champion Ken Garrett heads the Blossomland conference all-league squad announced today by league coaches.

Garrett, who averaged 21 points in 14 conference games, is one of two repeat first team selections. The 6-6 Garrett joins teammates Mike Busby and Walt Vanderbush on the all-league team.

The 6-5 Busby averaged 13.6 points and Vanderbush 12.4 in loop play.

Cassopolis and River Valley each placed two players on the first team. Ranger center Gary Young, the other repeat selection, and forward Alvin Vanzant formed the Cass contingent. Young finished fifth in the league scoring race with a 16.2 scoring mark. Vanzant came in at 13.9.

Forwards Greg Johnson (15.5) and Dave North (15.5) were the Mustang picks.

Brandywine's Steve McCarthy, who finished fourth in the league with a 16.3 scoring average, Coloma's Gregg Woodward, second with an 18.3 mark, and Dowagiac's 6-7 center Bob Waalkes (14.4) round out the first team.

All 10 members of the squad are seniors.

Denny Stolz To Interview Monday For Another Job

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Former Michigan State head football coach Denny Stolz could have a new job next week.

Stolz, 42, said Wednesday he has an interview next Monday, but he would not say where. If he gets the job, he would start immediately, he said.

Stolz resigned last week as MSU head football coach after pressure from top school officials. The decision to oust him came in the wake of a three-year probation slapped on MSU by the National Collegiate Athletic Association for football recruiting violations.

One reason given for Stolz being fired was a $2,300 speaking fee he received in January 1975, that he kept for himself, officials have said. Stolz cleaned out his desk at MSU and left for good Tuesday. But Stolz has said he would help new athletic director Joseph Kearney if Kearney wants the former coach's help. Kearney arrives at MSU April 1.

Elway New Coach

NORTHBRIDGE, Cal. (AP) — Jack Elway, a former offensive coordinator at Washington State University, was named head football coach at Cal State-Northridge Wednesday, a spokesman said.

He will replace Gary Torgeson, who resigned last December after three years as head coach.

Unbeaten Hoosiers Put Record On Line Indiana, UCLA Renew Rivalry

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Only two basketball teams ever have entered NCAA tournament competition undefeated for two straight years — and they play each other Saturday.

Indiana's No. 1-rated Hoosiers, unbeaten in regular-season competition since early 1974, and the fifth-ranked UCLA Bruins, undefeated in 1972 and 1973, collide in a nationally televised NCAA semifinal game Saturday afternoon in Philadelphia.

The winner will face either No. 3 Rutgers or No. 9 Michigan, the other tournament semifinalists, for the national championship Monday night.

"I'm just delighted that we're there and with the opportunity of winning the championship," said Indiana Coach Bobby Knight, whose Hoosiers have won — either individually or collectively — nearly every college honor except the national title.

"I've said all along that my philosophy is the hope that all the teams play their best, that injuries or other such factors play no part," Knight said. "We can accept the results of that with no regrets."

The Indiana-UCLA rivalry covers just seven previous meetings between the two Big Ten and Pac-8 powers. But the last two games have had tremendous intensity.

In the 1973 NCAA semifinals

at St. Louis, the Bruins, led by Bill Walton, surged to a 20-point lead and withstood a frantic Indiana comeback to win in two points before Hoosier center Steve Downing fouled out.

UCLA eventually beat Indiana 70-59 and went on to the national championship.

Then, in the season opener last November, again at St. Louis in front of a national television audience, Indiana pounded UCLA 84-64 behind All-American Scott May's 33 points.

The Hoosiers have won 29 straight since then, while the Bruins take a 25-4 mark into Saturday's heralded rematch.

"My concern earlier in the first-round (NCAA) (tournament) game (against St. John's) and the regional (against Alabama and Marquette) was that something might happen to deny our players the chance in the finals," Knight said. "What they have done in representing this university and our basketball program over the past four years has just been tremendous."

In those four years, the Hoosiers have won 106 games while losing just 12 — going 22-4, 23-3, 31-1 and 30-0 with two games left this year.

Indiana also won its fourth straight Big Ten championship this year and extended its conference record to 37 straight league victories. The Hoosiers also have won 57 consecutive regular-season games and 34 in a row at home.

Kalamazoo Wings Set Playoff Ticket Sales

KALAMAZOO — The Kalamazoo Wings have earned a wild card berth in the International Hockey League playoffs, but they have the dubious privilege of meeting the Dayton Gems in first round action.

Dayton, the champion of the IHL's south division, has won more games than any club in either division.

Kalamazoo will open the best-of-seven series Tuesday, March 30, at Dayton. The second game is slated for April 2 at Kalamazoo, the third for April 3 at Dayton and the fourth for April 6 in Kalamazoo.

Tickets for the first two playoff games in Kalamazoo go on sale Wednesday, March 31, at 10 a.m. at Wings Stadium. Tickets are priced at $5 and $4, with a $1 discount for children under 10.

The Wings close out their regular season at home Friday night against the Fort Wayne Knickerbockers.

Extend Sign Up At Lakeshore

Detroit Youngsters Shine Oldsters, Oliver Key White Sox Win

From ASSOCIATED PRESS

Since Wednesday was the first full day of exhibition baseball, this will be the first story of the year about the flowers that bloom in the spring, Ira la.

They're known as phenoms and they were not in force... Jason Thompson, John Valle, Phil Mankowski, Chuck Scrivener, Bob Molinaro, Cleon Jones, Bob Oliver.

Cleon Jones? Bob Oliver? Those other folks all starred for the Detroit in the Tigers' 8-6 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals, but only two of them have ever appeared in a major league game and the numbers aren't very high — six games for Molinaro, four for Scrivener.

But Jones was in his 10th big league campaign and Oliver his seventh when they were cut abruptly last summer. Jones by the New York Mets and Oliver by the New York Yankees. Both are trying to make it with the Chicago White Sox this spring and both hit home runs — Jones also had a run-scoring double — as the Chisox defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 6-1.

"I should be worrying about getting my timing and stroke down, but instead I've been worrying about getting hits," said Jones, 33. "I have to, though. I ain't got a job here. If I don't hit now it's all over. If I didn't hit with the Mets — and usually I didn't in the spring — I knew I still had a job. Until last year, that is."

Recuperating slowly from a knee injury, Jones compounded his problems last spring when he was picked up by St. Petersburg, Fla., police after being found in a state of undress with a young lady in a parked van. Then he had a fatal run-in with Manager Yogi Berra and no one seemed to want him after the Mets dropped him.

Oliver, also 33, doesn't see himself going head-to-head with Jones for a spot on the White Sox' final roster.

"This club needs right-handed hitting and I think we can do it," he said. "I don't think that it's an either-or situation with Cleon or me. He's mainly an outfielder. I can play first or third and, in a pinch, the outfield."

The big blows by the Tigers' rookie contingent came in the late innings. A home run by outfielder Valle produced a 6-6 tie in the eighth and, after a triple by veteran Mickey Stanley in the ninth, Thompson, a nonroster first baseman, homered off Mike Willace.

Meanwhile, third baseman Mankowski played well defensively and delivered two singles, one driving in a run. Shortstop Scrivener also did well in the field, singled and walked. And Molinaro singled in two trips.

Elsewhere, the Los Angeles Dodgers sent 14 batters to the plate against three Montreal pitchers in the eighth inning and poured across nine runs on nine hits and two walks in routing the Expos 13-4. The outburst included Bill Buckner's two-run triple and Manny Mota's two-run pinch single.

Bob Bailey's two-out, two-run double in the 10th inning sparked the world champion Cincinnati Reds over the Baltimore Orioles 4-1 and Graig Nettles drove in two runs with a pair of singles as the Yankees lounded the Mets 7-1.

Carlton Fisk's tie-breaking single in the seventh inning gave the Boston Red Sox a 7-6 victory over the Houston Astros. Five Atlanta errors and Tommy Hutton's two-run single helped the Philadelphia Phillies defeat the Braves 6-1 while Lee Stanton homered in the California Angels' 4-1 triumph over the Cleveland Indians.

The San Francisco Giants downed the Milwaukee Brewers 3-1 on Von Joshua's three-run homer and the Chicago Cubs scored three runs in the 10th inning, two on a dropped fly ball by San Diego's Bobby Valentine, and beat the Padres 9-6.

Newly acquired Dave Nelson singled twice, drove in a run and stole home to lead the Kansas City Royals over his old club, the Texas Rangers, 8-3.

Center fielder Dave Stegman led the University of Arizona's 17-hit parade with five-for-five, including a home run and a triple, as the Wildcats overpowered the Oakland A's 12-5. And Larry Hise's two-run double highlighted the Minnesota Twins' 6-2 decision over the White Sox' 'B' squad.

In other developments, Ron Swoboda, who turned from baseball to broadcasting in 1973, will try to make a comeback with the Mets while free agent pitcher Andy Messersmith turned down a new and final offer from his old team, the Dodgers. The club said it was "slightly higher" than the $540,000 three-year package previously offered.

On Tuesday, the Cincinnati Reds turned down Messersmith's proposal for a $1.5 million, four-year pact.

Indiana, UCLA Renew Rivalry

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Only two basketball teams ever have entered NCAA tournament competition undefeated for two straight years — and they play each other Saturday.

Indiana's No. 1-rated Hoosiers, unbeaten in regular-season competition since early 1974, and the fifth-ranked UCLA Bruins, undefeated in 1972 and 1973, collide in a nationally televised NCAA semifinal game Saturday afternoon in Philadelphia.

The winner will face either No. 3 Rutgers or No. 9 Michigan, the other tourney semifinalists, for the national championship Monday night.

"I'm just delighted that we're there and with the opportunity of winning the championship," said Indiana Coach Bobby Knight, whose Hoosiers have won — either individually or collectively — nearly every college honor except the national title.

"I've said all along that my philosophy is the hope that all the teams play their best, that injuries or other factors play no part," Knight said.

"We can accept the results of that with no regrets."

The Indiana-UCLA rivalry covers just seven previous meetings between the two Big Ten and Pac-8 powers. But the last two games have had tremendous intensity.

In the 1973 NCAA semifinals

at St. Louis, the Bruins, led by Bill Walton, surged to a 20-point lead and withstood a frantic Indiana comeback to within two points before Hoosier center Steve Downing fouled out.

UCLA eventually beat Indiana 70-59 and went on to the national championship.

Then, in the season opener last November, again at St. Louis in front of a national television audience, Indiana pounded UCLA 84-64 behind All-American Scott May's 33 points.

The Hoosiers have won 29 straight since then, while the Bruins take a 26-4 mark into Saturday's heralded rematch.

"My concern earlier in the first-round (NCAA tourney) game (against St. John's) and the regional (against Alabama and Marquette) was that something might happen to deny our players the chance in the finals," Knight said. "What they have done in representing this university and our basketball program over the past four years has just been tremendous."

In those four years, the Hoosiers have won 106 games while losing just 12 — going 22-6, 23-5, 31-1 and 30-0 with two games left this year.

Indiana also won its fourth straight Big Ten championship this year and extended its conference record to 37 straight league victories. The Hoosiers also have won 57 consecutive regular-season games and 34 in a row at home.

Detroit Youngsters Shine

Oldsters Jones, Oliver Key White Sox Win

From ASSOCIATED PRESS

Since Wednesday was the first full day of exhibition baseball, this will be the first story of the year about the flowers that bloom in the spring, tra la.

They're known as phenoms and they were out in force ... Jason Thompson, John Valle, Phil Mankowski, Chuck Scrivener, Bob Molinaro, Cleon Jones, Bob Oliver.

Cleon Jones? Bob Oliver?

Those other folks all starred for the Detroit in the Tigers' 8-6 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals, but only two of them have ever appeared in a major league game and the numbers aren't very high — six games for Molinaro, four for Scrivener.

But Jones was in his 10th big league campaign and Oliver his seventh when they were cut adrift suddenly last summer. Jones by the New York Mets and Oliver by the New York Yankees. Both are trying to make it with the Chicago White Sox this spring and both hit home runs — Jones also had a run-scoring double — as the Sox defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 6-1.

"I should be worrying about getting my timing and stroke down, but instead I've been worrying about getting hits," said Jones, 33. "I have to, though. I ain't got a job here. If I don't hit now it's all over. If I didn't hit with the Mets — and usually I didn't in the spring — I knew I still had a job. Until last year, that is."

Recuperating slowly from a knee injury, Jones compounded his problems last spring when he was picked up by St. Petersburg, Fla., police after being found in a state of undress with a young lady in a parked van. Then he had a fatal run-in with Manager Yogi Berra and no one seemed to want him after the Mets dropped him.

Oliver, also 33, doesn't see himself going head-to-head with Jones for a spot on the White Sox' final roster.

"This club needs right-handed hitting and I think we can do it," he said. "I don't think that it's an either-or situation with Cleon or me. He's mainly an outfielder. I can play first or third and, in a pinch, the outfield."

The big blows by the Tigers' rookie contingent came in the late innings. A home run by outfielder Valle produced a 6-6 tie in the eighth and, after a triple by veteran Mickey Stanley in the ninth, Thompson, a nonroster first baseman, homered off Mike Wallace.

Meanwhile, third baseman Mankowski played well defensively and delivered two singles, one driving in a run. Shortstop Scrivener also did well in the field, singled and walked. And Molinaro singled in two trips.

Elsewhere, the Los Angeles Dodgers sent 14 batters to the plate against three Montreal pitchers in the eighth inning and poured across nine runs on nine hits and two walks in routing the Expos 13-4. The outburst included Bill Buckner's two-run triple and Manny Mota's two-run pinch single.

Bob Bailey's two-out, two-run double in the 10th inning sparked the world champion Cincinnati Reds over the Baltimore Orioles 4-1 and Graig Nettles drove in two runs with a pair of singles as the Yankees trounced the Mets 7-1.

Carlton Fisk's tie-breaking single in the seventh inning gave the Boston Red Sox a 7-6 victory over the Houston Astros. Five Atlanta errors and Tommy Hutton's two-run single helped the Philadelphia Phillies defeat the Braves 6-1 while Lee Stanton homered in the California Angels' 4-1 triumph over the Cleveland Indians.

The San Francisco Giants downed the Milwaukee Brewers 3-1 on Von Joshua's three-run homer and the Chicago Cubs scored three runs in the 10th inning, two on a dropped fly ball by San Diego's Bobby Valentine, and beat the Padres 9-6.

Newly acquired Dave Nelson singled twice, drove in a run and stole home to lead the Kansas City Royals over his old club, the Texas Rangers, 8-3.

Center fielder Dave Stegman led the University of Arizona's 17-hit parade with five-for-five, including a home run and a triple, as the Wildcats overpowered the Oakland A's 12-5. And Larry Hise's two-run double highlighted the Minnesota Twins' 6-2 decision over the White Sox' 'B' squad.

In other developments, Ron Swoboda, who turned from baseball to broadcasting in 1973, will try to make a comeback with the Mets while free agent pitcher Andy Messersmith turned down a new and final offer from his old team, the Dodgers. The club said it was "slightly higher" than the $540,000 three-year package previously offered.

On Tuesday, the Cincinnati Reds turned down Messersmith's proposal for a $1.5 million, four-year pact.

Shinall Wins Honors

Gail Shinall, head wrestling coach at Adrian-Madison High school and former Brandywine grappling standout, has been selected the Class D and State wrestling coach of the year.

In the three years Shinall has been coaching at Madison, the Trojans have posted a 63-3-1 record and won three state crowns.

Shinall graduated from Brandywine in 1967. In his senior year, he was elected captain of the Bobcats' wrestling team.

After graduating from Lake Michigan College, Shinall worked one season as assistant coach under the Bobcats' outstanding former wrestling coach, Don Arend.

Shinall has a wife, Judy, and two sons, Jason and Jeremy. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Shinall, reside in Berrien Springs.

Kalamazoo Wings Set Playoff Ticket Sales

KALAMAZOO — The Kalamazoo Wings have earned a wild card berth in the International Hockey League playoffs, but they have the dubious privilege of meeting the Dayton Gems in first round action.

Dayton, the champion of the IHL's south division, has won more games than any club in either division.

Kalamazoo will open the best-of-seven series Tuesday, March 30, at Dayton. The second game is slated for April 2 at Kalamazoo, the third for April 3 at Dayton and the fourth for April 6 in Kalamazoo.

Tickets for the first two playoff games in Kalamazoo go on sale Wednesday, March 31, at 10 a.m. at Wings Stadium. Tickets are priced at $5 and $4, with a $1 discount for children under 16.

The Wings close out their regular season at home Friday night against the Fort Wayne Komets.

Extend Sign Up At Lakeshore

The Lakeshore Youth Baseball and Softball association has extended its registration deadline to April 10. All interested youngsters can sign up at Barchett's Sporting Goods in the Village Square in Stevensville.

Sheila Gets Big Welcome

Detroit Pays Tribute To Olympic Hero

By CHARLES C. CAIN
Associated Press Writer

DETROIT (AP) — Olympic speedskating champion Sheila Young of Detroit got an official welcome home on Wednesday which included a telegram from President Ford and a king-sized supply of hot fudge sundaes.

The slender 25-year-old, who won three medals in the recent Innsbruck, Austria, winter Olympic games, was applauded by several thousand persons as a motorcade carried her to the downtown City-County building.

There, Detroit Mayor Coleman Young and Detroit Council President Carl Levin presented her with plaques commemorating Sheila Young Day.

Then it was on to Cobo Hall where 1,100 persons attended a $10 a plate luncheon. At that affair, Gov. William Milliken and various civic and sports figures paid tribute to Miss Young. Mayor Young told the gathering, "It is good after so many bad news days to have a good news day for a change." The mayor called her "a magnificent competitor."

Miss Young, America's first triple medal winner in winter Olympic competition, made a two-minute thank-you speech before fielding audience questions that covered everything from her future skating plans to where she was going to be married.

On the former, she said she had no intention of entering the 1980 Olympics but might compete in other meets. On the latter, she said Detroit "is the city where I was born, and I am proud to be a Detroit. In fact, here is where I will be married."

Asked for her views on women's liberation, she told an applauding audience, "I never have been a women's libber."

She also disagreed with those who thought women should be able to compete against men on an equal basis in sports events. Miss Young paid special tribute to her father, Clair Young, a well-known Detroit skater and bicycle rider, for "making it all possible."

She credited her father with urging her in recent years to discipline herself and train hard for the Olympic opportunities that came her way this year.

She squirmed several times as various speakers voiced congratulations on her Olympic accomplishments. And she smiled when the telegram from President Ford was read.

"I appreciate Detroit's pride in you. Your dazzling performance has brought glory to our state," said the President, a Michigan native.

Duke Names New Grid Assistant

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Dennis Haglan, head football coach at Guilford College, has become an assistant coach in the sport at Duke University.

Duke made the announcement Wednesday. It also said that another assistant football coach added recently was Joe Mark, former assistant at Virginia.

Haglan, a William and Mary graduate from Freedom, Pa., became an assistant in 1971 at Guilford College near Greensboro. He became head coach in 1973. In the last two seasons his teams were 14-5-2.

Virus Doesn't Stop Harris

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP) — A stomach virus had kept her from solid food for two days, but Lucia Harris ate up the defense set for her by Penn State's women's basketball team.

"We didn't come all this way to lose," the 6-foot-3 Miss Harris said Wednesday after her 29 points helped Mississippi's Delta State open defense of its women's college basketball title with an 88-46 victory over Penn State.

Second-seeded Immaculata College of suburban Philadelphia and third-seeded Cal State-Fullerton also advanced to today's quarter-finals in the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women tournament.

Marianne Crawford-Stanley had 16 points and nine assists to help Immaculata beat Long Beach State 84-65 and move the Maes a step closer to regaining the title they held three years before losing to Delta in 1975.

Cal State-Fullerton, the West Coast champion, piled up the highest point total of the first round, beating Wisconsin-Lacrosse 103-85. Nancy Dunkel, a 6-2 center, had 27 points for the winners.

Delta was a heavy favorite against Penn State, which got a berth only because it was the host.

But after 4½ minutes, Delta led only 7-6 and the virus-stricken Miss Harris, also playing with tape around a ring finger she jammed a few games ago, had missed her first several shots.

After one miss, Miss Harris ripped off the tape, tossed it off the court and led Delta to 19 straight points, scoring 13 herself.

Delta State, which has a 30-1 record, was joined here by more than 300 fans from Mississippi.

They waved pompoms, hoisted a Confederate flag and sang "Dixie."

Immaculata, 22-2 including a split of two regular-season games with Delta, brought a cheering section that included students, nuns and priests from the small Catholic women's college.

The Delta and Immaculata fans tried to chant one another down during the Immaculata game.

Crowds were sparse for the other six first-round games in which fourth-seeded Queens College of New York was beaten 91-80 by unseeded Mississippi College; fifth-seeded Wayland Baptist of Texas beat Utah 85-46 with the aid of 16 points by Pearl "The Earl" Worrell, and sixth-seeded William Penn, a Quaker school in Iowa, gained a 78-70 victory over Tennessee Tech.

Lanier Generates Pistons Past Kings

Detroit Moves Into Second Spot

From Associated Press

The Midwest Division of the National Basketball Association is so bad it seems the only way for someone to win a game is to play another member of the division.

That's what happened Wednesday night. The Detroit Pistons whipped the Kansas City Kings 130-117 since the NBA insists on playing to a decision, but the Seattle SuperSonics drubbed the Milwaukee Bucks 135-110 and the Boston Celtics downed the Chicago Bulls 94-87. That left 31-41 Milwaukee two games in front of 29-43 Detroit, which moved into second place by one-half game over 29-44 Kansas City. Chicago, 22-50, is nine games from the top.

In the only other NBA action, the Philadelphia 76ers trounced the New York Knicks 118-100.

Bob Lanier's 29 points sparked the Pistons past Kansas City both on the scoreboard and in the standings. The Kings stayed even until Lanier, Curtis Rowe and Eric Money combined to shoot Detroit into a 68-60 halftime lead.

In the third period, Lanier scored 14 to give the Pistons a 22-point lead. Money finished with 19 points. Rowe 17 and George Trapp 15. Nate Archibald had 26 for the losers. In a rare starting role, second-year forward Talvin Skinner grabbed 13 rebounds and scored a career-high 26 points. Skinner was pressed into service to replace Lennard Gray, who injured a knee Tuesday and is out for the season. At one point, he sank nine shots in a row.

Milwaukee led 18-13 with five minutes to go in the first quarter but Seattle began to dominate the backboards and outscored the Bucks 18-4 for a 31-22 edge. The Sonics eventually opened a 28-point bulge and took undisputed possession of second place in the Pacific Division, one-half game up on idle Los Angeles. Bruce Seals paced Seattle with 27 points while Brian Winters topped the Bucks with 20.

Dave Cowens ignited Boston's fast break in the third period and John Havlicek finished it off with 12 points in the session. Charlie Scott followed the third-period outburst with five long-range bombs in the fourth quarter that cut off Chicago rallies. Chicago held a 54-49 lead in the second period when the Celtics ran off 13 straight points for a 62-54 advantage. Havlicek led all scorers with 20 points.

Philadelphia was paced by Doug Collins with 26 points in defeating the Knicks for the first time in five games. The 76ers made 15 of 25 shots in the third period in boosting a 12-point halftime lead to 90-71. Fred Carter added 24 points for the 76ers and Lloyd Free had 22. Spencer Haywood led New York with 22. The Sixers lead idle Buffalo by one-half game in the Atlantic Division's second-place race.

NAIA Endorses NCAA Rules

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Member football teams of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics will be able to run kickoffs back from the end zone next season, but fumbles will have to be played from where they are recovered.

The NAIA Monday endorsed the football rules of the National Collegiate Athletic Association for 1976 after announcing the dissolution of a joint football rules-making committee with the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations.

Zuke Heads All-League Ice Team

DENVER (AP) — Michigan Tech's Mike Zuke on Wednesday was named most valuable player in the Western Collegiate Hockey Association as the league champion Huskies dominated the all-star team.

Tech Coach John MacInnes, who led his squad to an easy third consecutive WCHA championship, was named coach of the year in the 24th annual poll conducted by the Denver Post.

Zuke, a forward, was joined on the first team by fellow Michigan Tech senior George Lyle, also a forward. Other first-teamers are goaltender Eddie Mio of Colorado College; defenseman Reed Larson, Minnesota; and Jack Bronschidie, Notre Dame; and forward Tom Ross of Michigan State.

Colorado College forward Dave Delich was chosen the league's outstanding freshman.

The second team includes Robbie Moore, Michigan, goalie; Craig Norwich, Wisconsin; and Dave Langevin, Minnesota-Duluth, defenseman; and forwards Steve Colp, Michigan State; Tom Milani, Minnesota-Duluth; and Dave DeBol, Michigan.

The Denver Post ratings are considered the official WCHA all-star team.

Sheila Gets Big Welcome

Detroit Pays Tribute To Olympic Hero

By CHARLES C. CAIN
Associated Press Writer

DETROIT (AP) — Olympic speedskating champion Sheila Young of Detroit got an official welcome home on Wednesday which included a telegram from President Ford and a king-sized supply of hot fudge sundaes.

The slender 25-year-old, who won three medals in the recent Innsbruck, Austria, winter Olympic games, was applauded by several thousand persons as a motorcade carried her to the downtown City-County building.

There, Detroit Mayor Coleman Young and Detroit Council President Carl Levin presented her with plaques commemorating Sheila Young Day.

Then it was on to Cobo Hall where 1,100 persons attended a $10 a plate luncheon. At that affair, Gov. William Milliken and various civic and sports figures paid tribute to Miss Young. Mayor Young told the gathering, "It is good after so many bad news days to have a good news day for a change." The mayor called her "a magnificent competitor."

Miss Young, America's first triple medal winner in winter Olympic competition, made a two-minute thank-you speech before fielding audience questions that covered everything from her future skating plans to where she was going to be married.

On the former, she said she had no intention of entering the 1980 Olympics but might compete in other meets. On the latter, she said Detroit "is the city where I was born, and I am proud to be a Detroit. In fact, here is where I will be married."

Asked for her views on women's liberation, she told an applauding audience, "I never have been a women's libber."

She also disagreed with those who thought women should be able to compete against men on an equal basis in sports events.

Miss Young paid special tribute to her father, Clair Young, a well-known Detroit skater and bicycle rider, for "making it all possible."

She credited her father with urging her in recent years to discipline herself and train hard for the Olympic opportunities that came her way this year.

She squirmed several times as various speakers voiced congratulations on her Olympic accomplishments. And she smiled when the telegram from President Ford was read.

"I appreciate Detroit's pride in you. Your dazzling performance has brought glory to our state," said the President, a Michigan native.

Duke Names New Grid Assistant

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Dennis Haglan, head football coach at Guilford College, has become an assistant coach in the sport at Duke University.

Duke made the announcement Wednesday. It also said that another assistant football coach added recently was Joe Mark, former assistant at Virginia.

Haglan, a William and Mary graduate from Freedom, Pa., became an assistant in 1971 at Guilford College near Greensboro. He became head coach in 1973. In the last two seasons his teams were 14-5-2.

Virus Doesn't Stop Harris

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP) — A stomach virus had kept her from solid food for two days, but Lusia Harris ate up the defense set for her by Penn State's women's basketball team.

"We didn't come all this way to lose," the 6-foot-3 Miss Harris said Wednesday after her 29 points helped Mississippi's Delta State open defense of its women's college basketball title with an 88-46 victory over Penn State.

Second-seeded Immaculata College of suburban Philadelphia and third-seeded Cal State-Fullerton also advanced to today's quarter-finals in the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women tournament.

Marianne Crawford-Stanley had 16 points and nine assists to help Immaculata beat Long Beach State 84-65 and move the Macs a step closer to regaining the title they held three years before losing to Delta in 1975.

Cal State-Fullerton, the West Coast champion, piled up the highest point total of the first round, beating Wisconsin-Lacrosse 103-85. Nancy Dunkel, a 6-2 center, had 27 points for the winners.

Delta was a heavy favorite against Penn State, which got a berth only because it was the host.

But after 4½ minutes, Delta led only 7-6 and the virus-stricken Miss Harris, also playing with tape around a ring finger she jammed a few games ago, had missed her first several shots.

After one miss, Miss Harris ripped off the tape, tossed it off the court and led Delta to 19 straight points, scoring 13 herself.

Delta State, which has a 30-1 record, was joined here by more than 300 fans from Mississippi.

They waved pompoms, hoisted a Confederate flag and sang "Dixie."

Immaculata, 22-2 including a split of two regular-season games with Delta, brought a cheering section that included students, nuns and priests from the small Catholic women's college.

The Delta and Immaculata fans tried to chant one another down during the Immaculata game.

Crowds were sparse for the other six first-round games in which fourth-seeded Queens College of New York was beaten 91-80 by unseeded Mississippi College; fifth-seeded Wayland Baptist of Texas beat Utah 85-46 with the aid of 16 points by Pearl "The Earl" Worrell, and sixth-seeded William Penn, a Quaker school in Iowa, gained a 78-70 victory over Tennessee Tech.

Lanier Generates Pistons Past Kings

Detroit Moves Into Second Spot

From Associated Press

The Midwest Division of the National Basketball Association is so bad it seems the only way for someone to win a game is to play another member of the division.

That's what happened Wednesday night. The Detroit Pistons whipped the Kansas City Kings 130-117 since the NBA insists on playing to a decision, but the Seattle SuperSonics drubbed the Milwaukee Bucks 135-110 and the Boston Celtics downed the Chicago Bulls 94-87. That left 31-41 Milwaukee two games in front of 29-43 Detroit, which moved into second place by one-half game over 29-44 Kansas City, Chicago, 22-50, is nine games from the top.

In the only other NBA action, the Philadelphia 76ers trounced the New York Knicks 118-100.

Bob Lanier's 29 points sparked the Pistons past Kansas City both on the scoreboard and in the standings. The Kings stayed even until Lanier, Curtis Rowe and Eric Money combined to shoot Detroit into a 69-60 halftime lead.

In the third period, Lanier scored 14 to give the Pistons a 22-point lead. Money finished with 19 points, Rowe 17 and George Trapp 15. Nate Archibald had 26 for the losers. In a rare starting role, second-year forward Talvin Skinner grabbed 13 rebounds and scored a career-high 26 points. Skinner was pressed into service to replace Leonard Gray, who injured a knee Tuesday and is out for the season. At one point, he sank nine shots in a row.

Milwaukee led 18-13 with five minutes to go in the first quarter but Seattle began to dominate the backboards and outscored the Bucks 18-4 for a 31-22 edge. The Sonics eventually opened a 28-point bulge and took undisputed possession of second place in the Pacific Division, one-half game up on idle Los Angeles. Bruce Seals paced Seattle with 27 points while Brian Winters topped the Bucks with 20.

Dave Cowens ignited Boston's fast break in the third period and John Havlicek finished it off with 12 points in the session. Charlie Scott followed the third-period outburst with five long-range bombs in the fourth quarter that cut off Chicago rallies. Chicago held a 54-49 lead in the second period when the Celtics ran off 13 straight points for a 62-54 advantage. Havlicek led all scorers with 20 points.

Philadelphia was paced by Doug Collins with 26 points in defeating the Knicks for the first time in five games. The 76ers made 15 of 25 shots in the third period in boosting a 12-point halftime lead to 90-71. Fred Carter added 24 points for the 76ers and Lloyd Free had 22. Spencer Haywood led New York with 22. The Sixers lead idle Buffalo by one-half game in the Atlantic Division's second-place race.

NAIA Endorses NCAA Rules

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Member football teams of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics will be able to run kickoffs back from the end zone next season, but fumbles will have to be played from where they are recovered.

The NAIA Monday endorsed the football rules of the National Collegiate Athletic Association for 1976 after announcing the dissolution of a joint football rules-making committee with the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations.

Zuke Heads All-League Ice Team

DENVER (AP) — Michigan Tech's Mike Zuke on Wednesday was named most valuable player in the Western Collegiate Hockey Association as the league champion Huskies dominated the all-star team.

Tech Coach John MacInnes, who led his squad to an easy third consecutive WCHA championship, was named coach of the year in the 24th annual poll conducted by the Denver Post.

Zuke, a forward, was joined on the first team by fellow Michigan Tech senior George Lyle, also a forward. Other first-teamers are goaltender Eddie Mio of Colorado College; defenseman Reed Larson, Minnesota, and Jack Brownschilde, Notre Dame; and forward Tom Ross of Michigan State.

Colorado College forward Dave Delich was chosen the league's outstanding freshman.

The second team includes Robbie Moore, Michigan, goalie; Craig Norwich, Wisconsin, and Dave Langevin, Minnesota-Duluth, defenseman; and forwards Steve Colp, Michigan State, Tom Milani, Minnesota-Duluth, and Dave DeBol, Michigan.

The Denver Post ratings are considered the official WCHA all-star team.

Rouge, Beecher Meet In Classic 'B' Battle

By HARRY ATKINS
Associated Press Writer

Regardless of the final score, there can't be any losers in the Class B Prep Basketball championship match-up Saturday between Flint Beecher and River Rouge.

How can you call anybody a loser when you've got the No. 1 team in the state going head-to-head with the No. 2 club?

And the biggest winners, of course, will be those fans lucky enough to have gotten tickets to see this classic showdown.

There is a tremendous amount of pressure placed on a team that is picked by almost everyone in the state to win it all," says Mike Bedore, coach of top-ranked Beecher.

"I don't really think all the talk about the No. 1 rating has really helped or hurt us," he says. "Personally, I would much rather be on top fighting to stay there than being down below trying to get to the top."

River Rouge Coach Lofton Greene has been on the top so many times he could conduct guided tours.

In his 32 years at Rouge, the crafty veteran has guided the Panthers to 12 championships. Under his watchful eye, Rouge has been runnerup four times, has won 24 district titles and 18 regional crowns. A Greene club has never lost in the semifinals.

But the one thing Greene fears most against his No. 2 Panthers is a tall club with a strong inside game.

"A club like that could hurt us," Greene says.

And guess who just happens to have a tall club with a strong inside game?

Beecher (28-0) will start 6-foot-5 James Smith, who loves to run, 6-5 Ray Pitts, the team's leading rebounder, 6-6 Tony Flannery and 6-footer Kenny McCurdy.

The Buccaneers' leading scorer is 5-10 senior guard Bryan Rison, who is averaging 24 points a game. Rison hit 31 in the semis as the Bucks blew Coldwater out, 75-41.

Houston Topples 'Solid' Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Houston Aeros pruned the consistent play of the Cleveland Crusaders after the defending World Hockey Association champs beat the Crusaders 2-2 here Wednesday night.

"That's a solid club now," said Aeros star Gordie Howe, who said the Aeros started with a goal just 1:12 into the game. "They are putting a little more into the game."

Houston goalie Ron Grahame added, "Before, they were spotty. Now they are more consistent. They came at you for 60 minutes."

The loss kept the Crusaders tied in first place in the East Division with the New England Whalers, who lost, and the Cincinnati Stingers, who won. Houston already has clinched the West Division.

The Crusaders tied the game 1-1 in the first period on a goal by Danny Gruen. The two teams again traded goals in the second period. Larry Lund scored for the Aeros and the Crusaders' John Stewart countered with another goal.

The clincher was provided by Paul Popiel on a slap shot from inside the blue line. The shot skipped into the goal after rebounding off the head of Cleveland goaltender Bob Johnson.

In the other WHA games, Calgary trimmed New England 7-6, Edmonton edged Winnipeg 3-2, and Cincinnati tipped Phoenix 5-4.

Rick Dudley scored twice in the first period to give the Roadrunners a lead they never relinquished in moving into the East's first-place pack.

Jacques Lemaire added a pair for the Stingers and Gene Sobchuk had one. Del Hall got a pair for Phoenix with his linemates John Gray and Rob Flork adding power play goals.

Tim Sheehy's second goal of the game, with 8:05 remaining, lifted Edmonton over Winnipeg. Bob Russell scored the other Edmonton goal while Lyle Moffat and Thommie Bergman replied for Winnipeg, which had two shots bounce off the goalposts midway through the final period.

A rebound goal by Bernie Lukowich with four seconds left in the game gave Calgary its victory over New England, which had taken a 2-0 lead before the Cowboys answered with three goals.

The Crusaders tied the game 1-1 in the first period on a goal by Danny Gruen. The two teams again traded goals in the second period. Larry Lund scored for the Aeros and the Crusaders' John Stewart countered with another goal.

Red Wings Blast Caps; Hawks Routed Larouche Gets 100th Point

From Associated Press

No sooner had the red light flashed than the crowd was on its feet. They knew what just had happened; indeed, they had come to Pittsburgh's Civic Arena expecting it to happen.

But when Pierre Larouche scored at 13:09 of the first period Wednesday night, 15,966 voices rose in unison. The baby-faced Penguins' center — THEIR baby-faced center — had scored his 100th point of the National Hockey League season.

Sure, many players had preceded him to the 100-point plateau. But none was younger than Pierre Larouche, not even Bobby Orr. And none had won a Pittsburgh uniform.

It made the 20-year-old center think back to his junior days in Sorel, Quebec, where he eclipsed Guy Lafleur's scoring record with 210 points in a single season. "When I was playing at Sorel, they gave me a 10-minute ovation when I broke Guy's record," he recalled.

But no ovation was more satisfying than Wednesday night's, when Larouche helped the Penguins tie the Boston Bruins 5-5.

"It was the greatest," he said with a smile.

That was one milestone, one standing ovation, out of the way. Not to be outdone, however, Jean Pronovost made it New Year's Eve in Times Square by scoring his 50th goal of the campaign late in the third period.

Sure, 13 players had done it before him: the Phil Esposito, Guy Lafleur and Mickey Redmond. But none had worn a Pittsburgh uniform.

Meanwhile, Buffalo eliminated the New York Rangers 7-3; Toronto surprised Montreal 2-1; Detroit topped Washington 7-3; Atlanta blasted Chicago 7-2; Minnesota stopped Kansas City 4-1 and Los Angeles skated to a 1-1 tie with the New York Islanders.

Esposito, who scored two goals but simply couldn't keep the Rangers from elimination. It was the first time the bulky center has missed a playoff in his 13-season career. Jim Loreutz, Danny Gare and Brian Spencer scored within 2:12 to spark the five-goal, third-period Buffalo outburst that carried the Sabres to victory.

Tiger Williams and Errol Thompson scored to help Toronto hand "slumping" Montreal its second loss in a row. Jacques Lemaire tallied for the Canadiens, who have lost only 11 times this season.

Bill Goldsworthy scored twice as Minnesota beat Kansas City for the sixth straight time and extended the Scouts' winless streak to 21 games.

Ronnie Michel Bergeron scored his 31st and 32nd goals of the season as Detroit cruised past Washington.

Bill Clement scored one goal and assisted on three others to pace Atlanta's rout of Chicago, which suffered its seventh loss in the last 10 contests and has given up 49 goals in the last 10.

Marcel Dionne's goal with 31 seconds remaining brought Los Angeles even with New York. Andre St. Laurent scored for the Islanders 19 seconds into the middle period.

Rouge, Beecher Meet In Classic 'B' Battle

Regardless of the final score, there can't be any losers in the Class B Prep Basketball championship match-up Saturday between Flint Beecher and River Rouge.

How can you call anybody a loser when you've got the No. 1 team in the state going head-to-head with the No. 2 club?

The Buccaneers' leading scorer is 5-10 senior guard Bryan Rison, who is averaging 24 points a game. Rison hit 31 in the semis as the Bucks blew Coldwater out, 75-41.

"We have a great bunch of young men with great attitudes who really believe they are No. 1," Bedore says.

"Only time will tell." Rouge, on the other hand, will counter with the small team, but one Greene says jumps well. And more importantly, in Greene's opinion, is the fact that Rouge has momentum. The Panthers (24-3) have won 19 straight since January.

Rouge's tallest starter is 6-4 Lionel Reeves, who also is the Panthers' leading scorer with 18 a game. Reeves was held to just 10 points in Rouge's heart-stopping 58-56 victory over Saginaw Buena Vista in the semi-finals. But his was the winning bucket at the buzzer and that's what counts — the bottom line.

Gerald Campbell, a 5-11 junior guard whom Greene credits for turning the Panthers around 19 games ago, poured in 20 in the semis and appears to be the man Beecher will have to stop if Bedore wants to replace Greene as the Class B championship tour guide.

The Class B title game is set for 11 a.m. at Michigan's Crisler Arena. The game is a sellout.

Sure, 13 players had done it before him: the Phil Esposito, Guy Lafleur and Mickey Redmonds. But none had worn a Pittsburgh uniform.

Meanwhile, Buffalo eliminated the New York Rangers 7-3; Toronto surprised Montreal 2-1; Detroit topped Washington 7-3; Atlanta blasted Chicago 7-2; Minnesota stopped Kansas City 4-1 and Los Angeles skated to a 1-1 tie with the New York Islanders.

Esposito, who scored two goals but simply couldn't keep the Rangers from elimination. It was the first time the bulky center has missed a playoff in his 13-season career. Jim Lorentz, Danny Gare and Brian Spencer scored within 2:12 to spark the five-goal, third-period Buffalo outburst that carried the Sabres to victory.

Tiger Williams and Errol Thompson scored to help Toronto hand "slumping" Montreal its second loss in a row. Jacques Lemaire tallied for the Canadiens, who have lost only 11 times this season.

Bill Goldsworthy scored twice as Minnesota beat Kansas City for the sixth straight time and extended the Scouts' winless streak to 21 games.

Rookie Michel Bergeron scored his 31st and 32nd goals of the season as Detroit cruised past Washington.

Bill Clement scored one goal and assisted on three others to pace Atlanta's rout of Chicago, which suffered its seventh loss in the last 10 contests and has given up 49 goals in the last 10.

Marcel Dionne's goal with 51 seconds remaining brought Los Angeles even with New York. Andre St. Laurent scored for the Islanders 19 seconds into the middle period.

Houston Topples 'Solid' Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Houston Aeros praised the consistent play of the Cleveland Crusaders after the defending World Hockey Association champs beat the Crusaders 3-2 here Wednesday night.

"That's a solid club now," said Aeros star Gordie Howe, who got the Aeros started with a goal just 1:12 into the game. "They are putting a little more into the game."

Houston goalie Ron Grahame added, "Before, they were spotty. Now they are more consistent. They came at you for 60 minutes."

The loss kept the Crusaders tied in first place in the East Division with the New England Whalers, who lost, and the Cincinnati Stingers, who won. Houston already has clinched the West Division.

The Crusaders tied the game 1-1 in the first period on a goal by Danny Gruen, the two teams again traded goals in the second period. Larry Lund scored for the Aeros and the Crusaders' John Stewart countered with another goal.

The clincher was provided by Paul Popiel on a slap shot from inside the blue line. The shot skipped into the goal after rebounding off the heel of Cleveland goaltender Bob Johnson.

In the other WHA games, Calgary trimmed New England 7-6, Edmonton edged Winnipeg 3-2, and Cincinnati nipped Phoenix 5-4.

Rick Dudley scored twice in the first period to give the Roadrunners a lead they never relinquished in moving into the East's first-place pack.

Jacques Locas added a pair for the Stingers and Gene Sobchuk had one. Del Hall got a pair for Phoenix with his linemates John Gray and Rob Florek adding power play goals.

Tim Sheehy's second goal of the game, with 6:05 remaining, lifted Edmonton over Winnipeg. Bob Russell scored the other Edmonton goal while Lyle Moffat and Thommie Bergman replied for Winnipeg, which had two shots bounce off the goalposts midway through the final period.

A rebound goal by Bernie Lukowich with four seconds left in the game gave Calgary its victory over New England, which had taken a 2-0 lead before the Cowboys answered with three goals.

'Smooth' Hiller Eyes Return From Injury

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — John Hiller has pitched the Detroit Tigers out of many hairy situations.

But before the 1976 baseball season gets underway, the ace left-handed reliever will have gone through dozens of close shaves despite being idled from mound duty since July 25 with an injury.

Hiller, easily distinguishable before because of his Fu Manchu moustache, has shaved his head. It's as smooth now as his pitching delivery.

And if his super mound talent hasn't lost much since last July, how could Manager Ralph Houk or General Manager Jim Campbell possibly object to the personal liberty undertaken by the star Canadian hurler?

"I just figured it was something I wanted to do," said Hiller, during a relaxing moment in spring training. "I did it last year when I knew I wasn't going to play anymore. I've gotten to where I like it. I think it's very practical for being in sports."

Hiller, who says he's fully recovered from his injury, shaves his head every other day with an ordinary double-edged safety razor.

"Matter-of-fact Campbell likes it," Hiller said with a grin. "He likes it much better than the long hair. He's bald, too."

"I don't think Ralph thought I was going to keep it when he saw it last year, but he hasn't said anything."

As long as the 33-year-old standout does the pitching job the Tigers have learned to expect, who could care how Hiller looks?

It was shortly after Hiller's injury — a pulled muscle below his left armpit — that the Tigers' season fell apart. Up to that point he had 14 saves (one more than in 1974) and a 2.17 earned-run average.

Since returning following a year's retirement due to a heart attack in January 1971, Hiller has been among the game's top two or three relief pitchers.

He played the last half of the 1972 season and posted a 2.05 ERA. The next season he set a major league relief record with 38 saves and another mark with 48 Fireman points (38 saves plus 10 victories). He finished a Tiger record of 60 games and was involved in 56 per cent of their victories.

He followed that campaign with a 17-14 record in 1974, setting an American League record for victories by a reliever.

Numerous salutes by civic, sports and health groups have been accorded Hiller, the latest being a "Most Courageous Athlete of the Year" award from Philadelphia sports writers during the off season.

Hiller's only treatment to his injured arm was rest.

"They (doctors) were talking about shooting it with cortisone, but I wouldn't do that," he said.

How's the arm now?

"I haven't had any problems at all," he said. "...If the season starts tomorrow, I feel I'll be ready."

Career Clips

L.C. Bowen, a former Benton Harbor basketball all-star, has earned the most valuable player award in the French professional league.

Bowen, who also took the league's scoring title with a 28.3 points per game average, led the Tours, France, squad to the league championship.

He scored 41 points in the recent championship game.

Steve Rennhack (River Valley), Joe Compton (South Haven), Terry Hayden (Niles) and Kirk Hocker (Niles) are all on the roster of the Ferris State College baseball team this spring. Compton, who hit .320 as a freshman last season, could emerge as a top Bulldog power man this year. He's playing first base.

U.S. Captures Curling Lead

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — Italy, which has come on much stronger than predicted, will play the undefeated United States team today for the first time in the Silver Broom World Curling Tournament.

Italy, Norway, Scotland and Sweden are all tied for fourth place. Each has three wins and three losses in the tournament.

The United States team took the lead in the Tournament Wednesday by scoring a pair of victories. The Bruce Roberts rink of Hibbing, Minn., claimed a 10-5 victory over Canada in the late draw to run its record to 6-0. Earlier Wednesday, the U.S. champions swamped Denmark 12-3.

The United States has a chance of winning its remaining three games in the round robin competition and earning an automatic berth in Sunday's championship match.

The loss dropped the Canadians to 2-4 for the worst record that rink has ever recorded in the Silver Broom. Although Canada played its best game of the tournament through the first seven ends, Roberts scored a four-ender in the eighth end to lead his rink to an 8-5 advantage and Canada was unable to score again. Switzerland, 5-1, stayed hot on the heels of the United States by edging Scotland 5-4 in the Wednesday evening draw.

France moved into sole possession of third place at 4-2 with an 8-7 extra end triumph over Sweden.

In other late draw matches Wednesday, Italy defeated Germany 5-2, Norway beat Denmark 9-6 and France edged Sweden 8-7 in an extra end. Germany is 1-5 and Denmark 0-6.

In the early draw, Scotland defeated Sweden 7-5, Switzerland overcame Norway 10-5, Italy upset Canada 7-4 and France overwhelmed Germany 12-2.

Two draws are scheduled Thursday.

Spurs Take Third Place

From Associated Press

Things being what they are, the struggle between San Antonio and Kentucky for third place is the big news these days in the American Basketball Association.

Denver has practically clinched first place and New York appears likely to finish second. So the battle for third remains the league's most entertaining contest — especially as far as the Spurs and Colonels are concerned.

San Antonio picked up a victory in an unlikely spot Wednesday night, beating the Nuggets in Denver 135-122. It was the first home loss for Denver in the last 27 games and, combined with Kentucky's 128-122 loss to lowly Virginia, it moved the Spurs into third place, one-half game ahead of the Colonels.

New York beat St. Louis 106-93 in the night's other ABA game.

"We've never needed a win so bad anywhere, anytime," said San Antonio Coach Bob Bass. "To get one here has to help us."

The ABA's curious playoff format is the reason for all the commotion about third place. The top five teams make the playoffs and the first three get to sit out the opening round while the fourth and fifth-place clubs hammer away at each other. The survivor then gets the dubious honor of playing the first-place finisher in one semifinal while the second and third-place teams contend in the other semi.

"Playoff time is coming up and we want to get a fair place," said Spurs' guard James Silas. "Silas did more than his share to help the cause Wednesday night, pumping in 41 points. San Antonio held a two-point edge at the half but quickly pulled away by outscoring the locals 39-25 in the third period."

Denver never recovered. The Nuggets closed to within seven points with a little over four minutes left in the game but that was as close as they got.

George Gervin added 28 points for San Antonio while David Thompson scored 35 and Bobby Jones 21 for Denver.

There was some consolation for the Nuggets, however. The crowd of more than 16,800 fans pushed Denver's home attendance for the year to 515,109 — making the Nuggets the first ABA club to draw more than 500,000 fans in a single season.

Rookie guard Ticky Burden poured in 42 points, 26 of them in the second half, as Virginia snapped a 13-game losing streak. Mack Calvin added 21 points for the Squires. Artis Gilmore had 38 points for the Colonels and Maurice Lucas had 32.

Julius Erving scored 11 of his 25 points as New York came from behind in the fourth quarter. Ted McClain added 23 points for the Nets, his highest output since being acquired from Kentucky. Marvin Barnes had 32 points for St. Louis.

The setback dropped St. Louis five games behind Indiana in the race for the fifth and final playoff berth.

SH Swimmers Win

SOUTH HAVEN — The South Haven Rotary club age-group swimming team defeated Benton Harbor 479-220 last Saturday.

South Haven won seven of the eight age categories as 17 swimmers won three blue ribbons.

Triple South Haven winners were Dan Foster, Clark Gruber, Steve Warfield, Alex Runowski, Rick Seiler, Andy Dorow, Brian

Davis, Wilma Haumersen, Jon Coe, Cindy McAfee, Missy Dempster, Ray Braunz, Paul Dubuisson, Jon Dorow, Richard Runowski, Julie Olson and Lisa Siergel.

Career Clips

L.C. Bowen, a former Benton Harbor basketball all-star, has earned the most valuable player award in the French professional league.

Bowen, who also took the league's scoring title with a 28.3 points per game average, led the Tours, France, squad to the league championship.

He scored 41 points in the recent championship game.

Steve Rennhack (River Valley), Joe Compton (South Haven), Terry Hayden (Niles) and Kirk Hocker (Niles) are all on the roster of the Ferris State College baseball team this spring. Compton, who hit .320 as a freshman last season, could emerge as a top Bulldog power man this year. He's playing first base.

U.S. Captures Curling Lead

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — Italy, which has come on much stronger than predicted, will play the undefeated United States team today for the first time in the Silver Broom World Curling Tournament.

Italy, Norway, Scotland and Sweden are all tied for fourth place. Each has three wins and three losses in the tournament.

The United States team took the lead in the Tournament Wednesday by scoring a pair of victories. The Bruce Roberts rink of Hibbing, Minn., claimed a 10-5 victory over Canada in the late draw to run its record to 6-0. Earlier Wednesday, the U.S. champions swamped Denmark 12-3.

The United States has a chance of winning its remaining three games in the round robin competition and earning an automatic berth in Sunday's championship match.

The loss dropped the Canadians to 2-4 for the worst record that rink has ever recorded in the Silver Broom. Although Canada played its best game of the tournament through the first seven ends, Roberts scored a four-ender in the eighth end to lead his rink to an 8-5 advantage and Canada was unable to score again. Switzerland, 5-1, stayed hot on the heels of the United States by edging Scotland 5-4 in the Wednesday evening draw.

France moved into sole possession of third place at 4-2 with an 8-7 extra end triumph over Sweden.

In other late draw matches Wednesday, Italy defeated Germany 5-2, Norway beat Denmark 9-6 and France edged Sweden 8-7 in an extra end. Germany is 1-5 and Denmark 0-6.

In the early draw, Scotland defeated Sweden 7-5. Switzerland overcame Norway 10-5. Italy upset Canada 7-4 and France overwhelmed Germany 12-2.

Two draws are scheduled Thursday.

Patterson Printing Tells Promotions

Three employees of the Patterson Printing Co., 1550 Territorial road, Benton township, were recently promoted, according to LeRoy Patterson, the firm's president.

Promoted were Wesley Knapp, to sales representative; Wayne Dine, to production manager, and Ken Roberts, to pressroom foreman.

Knapp, who joined Patterson in 1967, most recently served as production manager. His new position is sales representative for Patterson's "Spirit Master" division and he will cover educational publishing firms throughout the midwest. Knapp and his family live in Lincoln township.

Dine assumes the duties of production manager, replacing Knapp. He has been with Pattersson since 1953 and will be responsible for all scheduling and will directly supervise all printing production. Dine and his family live in south St. Joseph.

Roberts, who has been with Patterson as a pressman since 1970, will become pressroom foreman and will supervise all printing press operations. He and his family live in Berrien Springs.

LMC Mulls Life Underwriter Course

The possibility of a Lake Michigan College course leading to a diploma in chartered life underwriting will be discussed tomorrow at the Benton Harbor Holiday Inn, according to Charlie Field, LMC dean of Community Services and Counseling Education.

Field said the course would be offered in conjunction with the American College of Life Underwriters and the Southwestern Michigan Association of Life Underwriters. Representatives from LMC and the underwriter organizations will meet tomorrow to discuss guidelines for the course, he said.

Taking part in the conference will be Benjamin Standen, LMC dean of Occupational Studies;

Jim Fent, LMC director of Continuing Education and Extension Centers; Martin Krieger, CLU, of the New York Life Insurance Company; and Dr. William Beadles, senior educational consultant for the American College of Life Underwriters.

If plans work out, according to Field, LMC will offer the course in the area in the near future, administer the examinations, and give college credit for passing such courses.

Dr. Beadles, who is the former chairman of the business department at Illinois Wesleyan University, will also hold a special training session tomorrow for those who plan to take their CLU exams in June. He will also address a noon luncheon meeting of the Southwestern Michigan Association of Life Underwriters.

Safety Equipment Blamed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Safety equipment that should have detected a buildup of volatile methane gas was tampered with prior to explosions that killed 26 men at a Kentucky coal mine, two miners charge. The men, who formerly worked in the Scotia Coal Co. mine at Owen Fork, Ky., also told a Senate subcommittee Wednesday that company officials took steps to mislead federal inspectors who were checking safety standards in the shaft. The mine's owners called the allegations "completely groundless."

Dowagiac Bank Names Manager For New North Niles Branch

DOWAGIAC — Theodore Wise has been appointed an assistant vice president of the Community State Bank of Dowagiac by the bank's board of directors. Wise, 43, was also named manager of the bank's new North Niles office.

The north Niles office is currently located in temporary quarters at 2245 North Fifth street in Niles, pending construction of a permanent building, the bank said. Wise comes to Community State from the American National Bank & Trust Company of Michigan, Kalamazoo. He was branch manager at the bank's Plainwell office.

Job-Finding Booklet Ready

DETROIT — The Michigan Employment Security Commission (MESC) has published a new brochure, "How To Find a Job," its most comprehensive guide on job hunting, MESC Director S. Martin Taylor said today. The 16-page booklet is available free of charge to the public.

Compiled from 15 separate sources, "How To Find a Job" provides detailed information in the following areas:

- (1) "Taking Stock," a review of your assets and abilities in such areas as work experience, aptitudes, education, personal traits, physical capabilities, leisure activities and vocational goals.
- (2) "Playing the Field," ideas for choosing a career, including how to obtain vocational information and how to critique your assets against job requirements in each occupation.
- (3) "Where the Jobs Are," sources for finding potential jobs, including MESC's Job Service offices, newspaper ads, unions, directories and professional associations.

(4) "Papers and Applications," a guide to preparing effective resumes, completing application forms and writing effective letters of application.

(5) "The Interview," hints on selling yourself at an employment interview, with tips on preparing for the interview, presenting yourself and talking to the employer.

(6) "You've Got the Job," suggestions for keeping and advancing yourself on the job.

Copies of "How to Find a Job" have been made available to every public library in Michigan. Additional copies are available from MESC Job Service offices. Job Service offices are open from 8:15 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. MESC's Job Service has been the state's largest employment service for over 35 years with approximately 5,000 employees located in offices in more than 80 Michigan cities.

'World Turns' Nears Its 20th TV Anniversary

By JAY SHARBUTT
AP Television Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — On April 2, CBS' "As the World Turns" celebrates its 20th year on TV. It began as a 15-minute saga and now offers the nation an hour's worth of soap opera five days a week, 52 weeks a year.

That's a fair log of longevity for a show that still is set in mythical Midwest city of Oakdale, still emphasizes traditional American values and still concerns the lives of the two families it began with.

But it seems time to ask the show's producer, Joe Willmore, what he thinks of the new, often controversial times on the soap opera box, the ones who make and run about in "Mary Hartman, Mary Hartman."

"I'm not going to criticize them," says Willmore, 43. "But I will say I'm not sure they know quite yet what they want to be, whether it's a comedy, a satire or a serial."

Willmore, who began with "As the World Turns" 7½ years ago and has produced it for three years, is able to watch

"Mary Hartman" here now and then because his 12-hour working day ends at 8 p.m. and "Mary Hartman" commences at 11 p.m. on weeknights in Fun City.

Having inspected it, he concedes "they do have a kind of thread of a storyline that takes them through five days of shows.

"So from that standpoint, there is a serial form. But as far as what their basic intent is, be it comedy, satire or drama, I'm not quite sure they've really made up their minds."

Willmore describes his own show as having "a positive uplift, an outlook that our people behave well, behave ethically, and that there can be a reward for people who do behave that way."

Question: Has "Mary Hartman," which has featured an elderly flasher, occasional love affairs, even an episode centering on pot-smoking, caused basic changes in the way "As the World Turns" revolves around life?

"No, no," Willmore said. "I think you've got to know what your audience is made up of. I think we have a responsibility to that audience. We don't want to alienate those people who've been watching it for 20 years."

"They have a vested interest in this show and it's made the show No. 1 longer than any other daytime serial on the air. We also want to pick up new people and we've been able to do that."

"I think this is because of the universal qualities, the universal values, the uplifting approach we present. And our audience seems to respond well to that."

According to a spokesman for the syndicated "Hartman" series, that show now is carried by 94 stations, slightly more than half of which air it at night and remainder during the day.

By contrast, CBS' "As the World Turns" is carried by more than 200 stations and only during the day. Still, does Willmore regard "Mary Hartman" as a current or potential competitor?

"No, I think we have a completely different audience," he said. "And from the standpoint of the way they ('Hartman' makers) approach it — syndication versus network — I don't think they'll ever really be a threat to daytime serials per se."

Bainbridge Will Hold 2 Meetings

Bainbridge Township Supervisor Leonard Smith Jr. announced the township board will conduct two meetings Saturday, April 3, at the township hall, located at the corner of Bainbridge Center and Territorial roads.

According to Smith, the annual township meeting will begin at 1 p.m.

Smith added following the annual meeting, the township board's April monthly meeting will be held, eliminating the need for board members to meet Monday, April 5, the normal April meeting date.

Millage Beaten In Muskegon

MUSKEGON, Mich. (AP) — A bid to renew 2.1 mills for Muskegon Community College operations was rejected Tuesday.

Officials in the Muskegon County clerk's office said the measure was defeated 9,468 to 5,784 with only about 19 per cent of the county's voters casting ballots. The school still has a 9 mill for operations under a 20-year levy running until 1983.

Job-Finding Booklet Ready

DETROIT — The Michigan Employment Security Commission (MESC) has published a new brochure, "How To Find a Job," its most comprehensive guide on job hunting, MESC Director S. Martin Taylor said today. The 16-page booklet is available free of charge to the public.

Compiled from 15 separate sources, "How To Find a Job" provides detailed information in the following areas:

- (1) "Taking Stock," a review of your assets and abilities in such areas as work experience, aptitudes, education, personal traits, physical capabilities, leisure activities and vocational goals.
- (2) "Playing the Field," ideas for choosing a career, including how to obtain vocational information and how to critique your assets against job requirements in each occupation.
- (3) "Where the Jobs Are," sources for finding potential jobs, including MESC's Job Service offices, newspaper ads, unions, directories and professional associations.

(4) "Papers and Applications," a guide to preparing effective resumes, completing application forms and writing effective letters of application.

(5) "The Interview," hints on selling yourself at an employment interview, with tips on preparing for the interview, presenting yourself and talking to the employer.

(6) "You've Got the Job," suggestions for keeping and advancing yourself on the job.

Copies of "How to Find a Job" have been made available to every public library in Michigan. Additional copies are available from MESC Job Service offices. Job Service offices are open from 8:15 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. MESC's Job Service has been the state's largest employment service for over 35 years with approximately 5,000 employees located in offices in more than 80 Michigan cities.

'World Turns' Nears Its 20th TV Anniversary

By JAY SHARBUTT
AP Television Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — On April 2, CBS' "As the World Turns" celebrates its 20th year on TV. It began as a 15-minute saga and now offers the nation an hour's worth of soap opera five days a week, 52 weeks a year.

That's a fair log of longevity for a show that still is set in mythical Midwest city of Oakdale, still emphasizes traditional American values and still concerns the lives of the two families it began with.

But it seems time to ask the show's producer, Joe Willmore, what he thinks of the new, often controversial tribe on the soap opera box, the ones who make and run about in "Mary Hartman, Mary Hartman."

"I'm not going to criticize them," says Willmore, 33. "But I will say I'm not sure they know quite yet what they want to be, whether it's a comedy, a satire or a serial."

Willmore, who began with "As the World Turns" 7½ years ago and has produced it for three years, is able to watch

"Mary Hartman" here now and then because his 12-hour working day ends at 8 p.m. and "Mary Hartman" commences at 11 p.m. on weeknights in Fun City.

Having inspected it, he concedes "they do have a kind of thread of a storyline that takes them through five days of shows.

"So from that standpoint, there is a serial form. But as far as what their basic intent is, be it comedy, satire or drama, I'm not quite sure they've really made up their minds."

Willmore describes his own show as having "a positive uplift, an outlook that our people behave well, behave ethically, and that there can be a reward for people who do behave that way."

Question: Has "Mary Hartman," which has featured an elderly flasher, occasional love affairs, even an episode centering on pot-smoking, caused basic changes in the way "As the World Turns" revolves around life?

"No, no," Willmore said. "I think you've got to know what your audience is made up of. I think we have a responsibility to that audience. We don't want to alienate those people who've been watching it for 20 years."

"They have a vested interest in this show and it's made the show No. 1 longer than any other daytime serial on the air. We also want to pick up new people and we've been able to do that."

"I think this is because of the universal qualities, the universal values, the uplifting approach we present. And our audience seems to respond well to that."

According to a spokesman for the syndicated "Hartman" series, that show now is carried by 94 stations, slightly more than half of which air it at night and remainder during the day.

By contrast, CBS' "As the World Turns" is carried by more than 200 stations and only during the day. Still, does Willmore regard "Mary Hartman" as a current or potential competitor?

"No, I think we have a completely different audience," he said. "And from the standpoint of the way they ('Hartman' makers) approach it — syndication versus network — I don't think they'll ever really be a threat to daytime serials per se."

Bainbridge Will Hold 2 Meetings

Bainbridge Township Supervisor Leonard Smith Jr., announced the township board will conduct two meetings Saturday, April 3, at the township hall, located at the corner of Bainbridge Center and Territorial roads.

According to Smith, the annual township meeting will begin at 1 p.m.

Smith added following the annual meeting, the township board's April monthly meeting will be held, eliminating the need for board members to meet Monday, April 5, the normal April meeting date.

'Wee Bit Of A Reptile' Has Grown Into 14-Foot, 200-Pound House Pet

By JUDY RUSKIN
Associated Press Writer

ROYAL OAK, Mich. (AP) — "She's a real sweetie," James Langhammer says of the 14-foot, 200-pound, 18-year-old snake he keeps in his basement. The pet is an anaconda, named Annie, and Langhammer keeps her around the house just as other people keep more conventional house pets.

"Snakes are easy to take care of," he says. "They're less of a mess around the house than a dog or a cat."

Langhammer, who is curator for the Detroit Zoo's Aquarium on Belle Isle, has owned the snake since it was a wee bit of a reptile measuring just 27 inches.

"I started out with a baby snake and of course it grew," he says.

He got Annie when he was a student at Indiana University in 1958. Since that time, he says Annie has made thousands of friends across the country.

"When I was a student, she was taken out for exercise whenever the weather was nice and people all over the campus would stop and play with her," Langhammer says.

Before going to work for the Detroit Zoo in 1963, Langhammer worked at an Indiana state park, where he used Annie as a living exhibit. "We used her to teach people that snakes aren't such horrible things," he says.

Despite their huge size, he says, anacondas, which are a type of boa, aren't dangerous.

"They're far less dangerous than the average house pet. They protect themselves with their teeth and even if they bite, it's minimal compared to the bite of a Chihuahua," he says.

Langhammer says he feeds Annie various types of food, but that her main staple is rabbits. She's limited, however, to one five to 10 pound rabbit a week.

"Like many middle aged ladies, she tends to get a bit hippy," he says. "I keep her on a regimented diet so she doesn't get obese."

Langhammer buys his rabbits from a farmer and keeps them frozen in his refrigerator.

Anacondas are native to South America and Langhammer says they usually don't do well in captivity. "Actually it's quite an accomplishment to keep one alive in captivity so long," he says of Annie. He says his experience as a professional naturalist is responsible for his way with snakes.

Langhammer, who previously ran the Detroit Zoo's reptile house, also owns several other snakes and lots of tropical fish.

SMATTERING OF SIGNS:

Life is not always easy for ARIANS — as they have the vision and courage to attempt the almost-impossible and will not give up in the face of adversity. PISCANS have to work hard at developing self-confidence — they are often too timid for their own good. AQUARIANS can remember faces better than names.

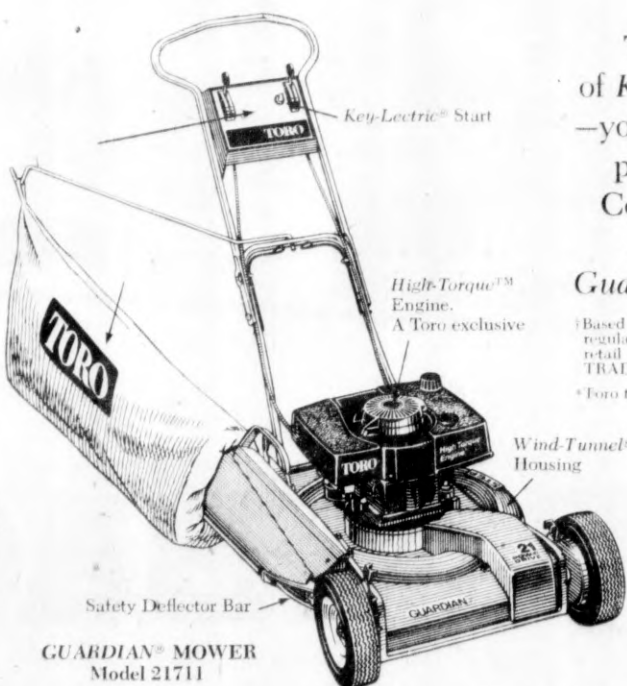

Did you know that beautiful actress Deborah Kerr started out as a member of the Sadler Wells Ballet? ... The Scotch can't be so frugal. They eat four meals a day to our three. ... Toots Shor swears by an ice cold cola drink for that morning after ... Our British cousins offer this advice: When brewing tea, use water which has just come to a boil. The longer the water boils, the poorer the tea. ... Faded Phrases: "She's a carrot top," "I ought to tan your hide" and "He's a real lady's man." ... Sandwich Favorite of broadcaster Wm. B. Williams: Liverwurst, spread with soft Cheddar cheese and a thin slice of boiled ham — on toasted English muffin ... Plug for good old New York: Lee Remick told luncheon companions at Luchow's that her film career would never move her to California. "Trees and a lawn are not enough for me. And that means New York," she added.

COMPLIMENTS to the gents who come on TV-talk shows properly dressed — instead of in the sloppy and even crummy outfits worn by so many others ... Sour Grapes Dept.: "He's welcome to her. She's going to get fat like her mother is!" ... Bar-Snooping at Rattazzi's, NYC: For a Bloodless Mary, use fresh clam juice for tomato juice the next time you stir up a batch. It's a good taste ... The French Jeans Store in NYC provides a mattress in the changing room. It's for customers who want jeans so tight that the only way to get them on is by lying down! ... Tip from a slimming expert: The ancient Romans were mixed-up eaters — they started their meals with an apple and had eggs for dessert ... Statement by a big business executive: "There's a real shortage of selling personnel." (Dearth of a Salesman!) ... Beauty Hint: To remove nicotine stains from the finger, rub on lemon juice nightly.

KITCHEN-SNOOPING: For a tasty side dish, mash peas and carrots and stir in thoroughly with mashed potatoes (Doritos, S.F.). ... To enhance flavor of chicken salad, add some chopped onion and cooked elbow macaroni, stirring it in (Toney's, Houston).

Liberace Taking A Wife? It's Too Hard To Believe!

Q: Do you think Liberace will ever get married? — X.K., Pullman, Wash.

A: We'd sure be foolish to predict that a man who has stayed single for 55 years would suddenly change the habits of a lifetime and take a wife. But Liberace's constant companion for the last six months has been beauty queen Debby Robert, 25, who the entertainer introduced recently on-stage in Las Vegas as the girl he is "daddy about" and who would make a wonderful wife. She likes him too. But marriage? We can't believe it.

Q: When Bobby Darin died after open heart surgery did he leave his son any money in his will and how old is the boy now?

— R.J., Jacksonville, Fla.

A: Darin's will provides for the boy's education but the catch is that the bulk of the money will not go to the child, who is now 14, until he is 65. This was Darin's way of preventing his ex-wife Sandra Dee from touching the inheritance. He figured that by the time his son was 65, Sandra would have gone on to her reward.

Q: Does Gore Vidal, who knows so much about American history, have a prediction for this year's election? — H.F., Avon Park, Fla.

A: Author Vidal, whose last two books, "Burr" and "1876," describe American political life in the previous century, is also quite a joker. So his prediction for 1976 must be taken with some skepticism. But he says checks recently? None other than the government of Angola and the guess is that they're buying guns and ammunition from sellers who don't have much faith in Angolan currency.

Q: What is this "can't miss" gun that some law enforcement agencies are buying? — H.I., El Paso, Tex.

A: This new weapon is now being manufactured in Salt Lake City and called the American 180. It incorporates a laser beam which projects a spot of red light to indicate the point at which the .22 caliber bullets will impact. The weapon fires 20 to 30 rounds a second with tremendous destructive force but its "can't miss" feature is actually said to make it less deadly. Since aiming is so accurate, criminals can be brought down with a shot to a

Q: Isn't $67,000 a year a lot of money to pay Marion Javits for that public relations job she had? — D.D., San Francisco, Calif.

A: Well, Marion wanted the salary quoted that way. Actually, her real pay was $17,000 per year plus another $50,000 which was her commission for bringing the Iranian account to the public relations firm. Either Marion wanted to make her pay sound more impressive or she wanted to play down the fact that she was getting a commission for netting the Iranian airline.

Today In History

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Thursday, March 25, the 65th day of 1976. There are 299 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1821, Greeks began a revolt against domination by the Ottoman Empire. The uprising ended 12 years later with the establishment of the independent Kingdom of Greece.

On this date: In 1634, English colonists under Lord Baltimore reached Maryland.

In 1865, in the Civil War, Confederate forces captured Fort Stedman in Virginia.

Janey Showed No Emotions

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — U.S. Marshal Janey Jimenez, who escorted Patricia Hearst into court every trial day for two months, says she's upset by reports that she cried when the heiress was found guilty of bank robbery.

"I showed no emotions, no feelings at all in court," Miss Jimenez insisted Wednesday.

In 1883, a revolution broke out in Haiti.

In 1941, in World War II, Yugoslavia joined the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo alliance.

In 1947, 111 miners were killed in a coal mine explosion at Centralia, Ill.

In 1864, Britain donated an acre of land at Runnymede, where the Magna Carta was signed, for a memorial to President John Kennedy.

Ten years ago: Five climbers became the first to reach the summit of Mount Elger in the Swiss Alps.

Five years ago: South Vietnamese forces had withdrawn from an invasion of Laos, and it was reported they suffered casualties of nearly 50 per cent.

One year ago: King Faisal of Saudi Arabia was assassinated in Riyadh by a nephew with a history of mental illness, and Faisal's brother, Crown Prince Khalid, succeeded to the throne.

Today's birthday: Actress Nancy Kelly is 55.

Thought for today: One of the difficult tasks in this world is to convince a woman that even a bargain costs money — Ed Howe, American writer, 1853-1937.

Bicentennial footnote: Two hundred years ago today, the Continental Congress in Philadelphia voted to present a gold medal to General George Washington for his role in the siege and final takeover of Boston from the British.

Famed U-M Glee Club Sings Here On April 2

The University of Michigan Men's Glee Club, three times honored in competition as the finest male chorus in the world, will give a concert at 8 p.m., Friday April 2 in the St. Joseph High School Auditorium, sponsored by the U. of M. Alumnae club of Benton Harbor and St. Joseph.

Tickets are priced at $2 for adults and $1 for students through high school age and will be available at the box office that night or in advance by contacting Mrs. John Pielemeier, 983-4412.

Currently directed by Leonard Johnson, the Glee Club is the second oldest glee club in America, having been organized in 1859. In its long history the glee club has toured extensively throughout the United States and Europe, and has made one round-the-world concert tour.

On three occasions the Club has competed at and has been named the outstanding male chorus in the Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod at Llangollen, Wales.

The glee club is composed of both graduate and undergrad members from every college in the university. The student officers are responsible for managing all the glee club's operations.

Its program consists of selections ranging from the dynamic works of the masters to the popular songs of today. Featured soloists and ensembles as well as traditional college songs add further variety to the program.

Among selections to be heard in the April 2 concert will be music by Samuel Barber, Randall Thompson, Halsey Stevens, Charles Ives, and Scott Joplin.

Several familiar faces will be among those singing the program of predominantly American music. Area students who are members of the Glee Club include: Fred Jannelli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jannelli, of Coloma; Frank "Skip" Linn, son of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Linn of St. Joseph; and Michael Upton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Upton of St. Joseph. Appearing as accompanist for the group will be Fred Weldy, formerly of Buchanan.

The program will include lighter selections by the Friars, vocal octet of the Glee Club. The Friars have appeared locally on several occasions, as well as on CBS-TV, at Carnegie Hall, and at Rose Bowl functions.

One of the members of the Friars is Phil Smith, son of Dr. and Mrs. John Smith of Downaglac. Members of the Glee Club will stay overnight in local homes before going on to their concert the next day in Champaign, Illinois.

Leonard Johnson, director of the Glee Club, is an assistant professor of voice in the University of Michigan School of Music. He has studied at the Juilliard American Opera Center in New York City, and has performed extensively as a soloist.

He has toured with the Goldovsky Opera Company, the Gregg Smith Singers, and the New York Vocal Arts Ensemble. He has appeared with several opera companies, including the Chicago Lyric Opera and the San Diego Opera.

Parks Grant Awarded

EAU CLAIRE — The U.S. interior department has approved an $8,750 grant to be used towards improvements in three parks here, according to Congressman Edward Hutchinson (R-St. Joseph).

The village is to match the federal money in providing parking, ball field, landscaping and signs at Village Farm park; a picnic area, two shuffleboard courts and signs at Lions park; and a road, picnic area, two shuffleboard courts and signs at Elizabeth park.

Hutchinson announced the federal agency's approval yesterday.

The Greater Eau Claire Recreation commission voted to seek a $9,000 grant in February for land and water conservation. The village was designated as the agency that will administer the grant.

Contractor Protests BPW Bid Rejection

By SCOTT WILLIAMSON
Staff Writer

A contractor whose bid was rejected for construction of the Chikaming township sewage collection system has filed a protest with the Berrien county board of public works. The BPW learned yesterday.

The board took no formal action on the protest but referred it to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, with the request that it be dismissed because there is no basis for the appeal. The EPA is to provide a grant for the system.

The appeal was filed by John P. Reilly & Co., Inc., and Sullivan Brothers Excavating, Inc., doing business as one firm and operating out of New Hudson, Mich. The appeal involves bids which were rejected by the BPW as being too high for the Chikaming project, which is part of the Gallien River Sanitary district, a sewer system to serve Chikaming and New Buffalo townships and the City of New Buffalo.

BPW Director Robert Barnes explained the appeal came after the apparent low bidder for the Chikaming project had bid on four phases of the entire sewer system as one lump project, but qualified the bid saying the amount would hold only if the contractor, Woodruff & Sons, of Michigan City, was awarded all four.

Barnes said Woodruff's bid was rejected because it was qualified, making the Reilly and Co. bid, at $9.7 million, the next lowest bid. But the BPW rejected that and other bids, contending all were in excess of the engineer's original estimate of $8.1 million.

Reilly's protest, Barnes noted, indicated the firm contends it should be awarded the contract since it was the low bidder. But Barnes stressed that all the contracts and advertisements for bids included the phrase that "the BPW has the right to reject any and all bids."

"It's an attempt to keep us from re-bidding the project," Barnes said of the appeal, and added he did not know when the issue might be resolved. The BPW has already advertised for new bids, and is scheduled to open them April 13.

Hartford High Names 3 All-A Valedictorians

HARTFORD — Sarah Jackson, Sheri Miller and Ann Richmond have been named co-valedictorians and Kevin Winkel has been named salutatorian of Hartford high school's 1976 graduating class.

Miss Jackson is the reigning Miss Hartford Blossom queen. She won the title in the community contest March 6. She was also the school's homecoming queen this year and the Van Buren county apple queen.

All three valedictorians maintained a straight 4.0 grade point average during their high school careers. Winkel's grade point average was 3.96. Other senior students named to the top 10 academically were Janet Unrath, Rhonda Carmichael, Anne Schaner, Darcel Jones, Audrey Latus, and Patricia McLaughlin.

Miss Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jackson, 401 East Main street, Hartford, plans to attend Western Michigan university to major in dance. She has been active in all class plays and a band member for four years recognized nationally as a top drum major.

Miss Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glynn Miller, 16 South Maple street, Hartford, plans to attend Michigan State university majoring in medical technology. During her high school career, she was a student council member for three years, band member for four years, participated in the pep club for two years, and took part in her Junior class play and one all school play.

Miss Richmond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Richmond, 67th avenue, Hartford, plans to attend Northern Michigan university to major in elementary education. She, too, has been a band member for four years, pep band for two years, pep club member for two years, and has participated in two class plays. She also served as a delegate to Girls' State during her junior year.

Winkel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arden Winkel, 66th avenue, Hartford, plans to attend Michigan State university to major in horticulture. A member of the student council and the stage band, he is currently president of the National Honor Society chapter at Hartford. During his senior year he attended Lake Michigan college part-time.

The co-valedictorians are also all members of the National Honor Society.

Woman Admits Embezzling From South Haven Bank

By LARRY MacINTYRE
Staff Writer

GRAND RAPIDS — A woman who worked as a teller for the Citizens Trust and Savings bank, South Haven, has pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of embezzlement not exceeding $100. The woman, Mrs. Denise M. Hoag, 22, 124 North Shore drive, South Haven, was released on $1,000 personal recognizance bond following a Tuesday appearance before U.S. Magistrate Stephen Karr in federal district court here.

Sentencing was delayed until a pre-sentence investigation is completed, according to the U.S. district attorney's office.

Mrs. Hoag is the third woman teller from the Citizens bank within the past four years to plead guilty to embezzling charges.

In 1972, a South Haven woman was sentenced to one year in prison after she pleaded guilty to embezzling $14,383 from the bank, and in August, 1975, another woman bank employee was sentenced to one year probation after pleading guilty to a reduced charge of embezzlement not exceeding $100.

The charge against Mrs. Hoag stemmed from a complaint by the bank filed with the FBI of a $700 cash shortage which occurred between Jan. 28 and Feb. 4, according to Frank Spies, U.S. district attorney at Grand Rapids.

Spies said Mrs. Hoag was originally charged with embezzling $700, a felony, but he said that charge will be dropped when she is sentenced. The misdemeanor charge of embezzling not more than $100 carries a maximum penalty of $1,000 fine or one year imprisonment.

Restaurants Must Set Up No-Smoking Areas

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Michigan restaurants will have to set up no-smoking areas by April 1977, under a bill signed into law Wednesday by Gov. William Milliken. The law requires restaurants seating at least 50 persons to post signs designating the nonsmoking areas and seat patrons there on request. Language that would have required the no-smoking areas to include at least one-third of the tables in the restaurant was killed in the legislature. The law therefore says nothing about how large the no-smoking area must be. The law is the third Milliken has signed to protect the rights of nonsmokers. Measures limiting smoking in hospitals and banning it in food stores already have been signed. All take effect next April.

Violation of the law by a restaurateur would be a misdemeanor punishable by up to $1,000 fine, 90 days in jail or both. "Concern is growing that cigarette and cigar smoke represents a health hazard to smoker and nonsmoker alike, which makes smoking in an essential public establishment a more serious matter than we might once have believed," Milliken said in signing the bill. Some Michigan restaurant chains already provide nonsmoking areas. Other restaurateurs say the law is unenforceable and could cost them more money if tables in the nonsmoking area go unfilled.

Hospital Transfer Bill Signed

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — An Ionia mental hospital will not be ready to accept prison inmates until June 1 or later. Gov. William Milliken said Wednesday in signing a law that transfers the facility to the state Department of Corrections. The bill authorizes the transfer of the 180-bed Riverside Center from the state Department of Mental Health. The transfer is needed to help deal with a prison population increasing by 200 inmates a month, Milliken said. The bill also appropriates $3.2 million to revamp Riverside and remodel other mental facilities to accommodate patients now at Riverside.

The village is to match the federal money in providing parking, ball field, landscaping and signs at Village Farm park; a picnic area, two shuffleboard courts and signs at Lions park; and a road, picnic area, two shuffleboard courts and signs at Elizabeth park.

Hutchinson announced the federal agency's approval yesterday.

The Greater Eau Claire Recreation commission voted to seek a $9,000 grant in February for land and water conservation. The village was designated as the agency that will administer the grant.

No Return

LONDON (AP) — Paul McCartney says the Beatles are not getting back together despite a $50-million offer from an American promoter. In an interview in a British pop music magazine published Wednesday, McCartney said a reunion just for the money "would ruin the whole Beatle thing for me."

APPOINTEE: Stephen Shafer, 38, route 1, Hartford, was appointed to vacancy on Hartford school board Monday. Shafer, a fruit grower, replaces William Dyer who resigned two weeks ago after serving six years. Shafer is to serve until June when remaining two years of Dyer's term will be filled by election.

Restaurants Must Set Up No-Smoking Areas

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Michigan restaurants will have to set up no-smoking areas by April 1977, under a bill signed into law Wednesday by Gov. William Milliken. The law requires restaurants seating at least 50 persons to post signs designating the nonsmoking areas and seat patrons there on request. Language that would have required the no-smoking areas to include at least one-third of the tables in the restaurant was killed in the legislature. The law therefore says nothing about how large the no-smoking area must be. The law is the third Milliken has signed to protect the rights of nonsmokers. Measures limiting smoking in hospitals and banning it in food stores already have been signed. All take effect next April.

Violation of the law by a restaurateur would be a misdemeanor punishable by up to $1,000 fine, 90 days in jail or both. "Concern is growing that cigaret and cigar smoke represents a health hazard to smoker and nonsmoker alike, which makes smoking in an essential public establishment a more serious matter than we might once have believed," Milliken said in signing the bill. Some Michigan restaurant chains already provide nonsmoking areas. Other restaurateurs say the law is unenforceable and could cost them more money if tables in the nonsmoking area go unfilled.

Women Charged In Forgery Case

Two Benton Harbor women were released on personal recognizance bonds after demanding examinations Wednesday in Berrien Fifth District court on charges of forgery.

Linda Lee Holmes, 21, of 692 Ogden avenue, was released on bond of $3,000. She is charged with forgery of a welfare check for $169.50 at Wolf's Supermarket, 449 Pipestone street, Benton Harbor.

Valerie Ann Young, 17, of 259 Benton street, was released on bond of $2,000. She is accused of conspiracy to forge the check at Wolf's.

Also demanding examinations Wednesday were:

Anthony L. Wallace, 17, of 187 East Britain avenue, Benton Harbor, on a charge of breaking and entering a building (Empire Cleaners, 190 West Empire avenue, Benton Harbor) with intent to commit larceny on Wednesday. He was jailed in lieu of $2,500 bond.

Manuel R. Garcia, 26, of Odem, Texas, on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon in a vehicle without a license March 24 in Benton township. He was jailed in lieu of $5,000 bond.

Bound over to Berrien circuit court was Gary L. Wickham, 17, of 214 West Merchant street, New Buffalo, on a charge of unlawful use of a motor vehicle March 14 in Three Oaks. He was jailed in lieu of $2,000 bond.

Sentenced were:

Jesus Landeros (also known as Reyes Landeros Bautista), 20, Hinchman road, Berrien Springs, 365 days in jail (with credit for time served and for the sentence to be terminated when he is turned over to federal authorities for deportation to Mexico) for conspiracy to commit assault and battery Nov. 20 against Ruben Hernandez at the Lloyd Zech farm, Berrien Springs. Court records indicated he was in this country illegally.

Ledford Austin, 45, of 723 Jones street, St. Joseph, $75 for driving while license suspended.

Dolores A. McIntosh, 36, South Bend, $22 or 5 days in jail for disorderly person.

Frank Henry, 17, of 686 East Vineyard, Benton Harbor, $75 and two years probation for attempted unlawful use of an auto.

Sentenced for the following offenses were:

Driving under the influence of intoxicants — Christopher C. Parrish, 27, Michigan City, $152, and Frank Williams, 62, Chicago, $155 or 30 days.

Use of marijuana — Larry A. Swartz, 17, of 4005 Chamberlain road, Buchanan, $100 and six months probation, and Ronald L. Birdsong, 19, of 310 Marble, Buchanan, $150 and one year probation.

Wild Tires Cross I-94, Hit Garage

Two runaway tires, apparently from a semi-truck, rolled across five lanes of I-94 Wednesday, damaged a guard rail then rolled a few hundred more feet into the side of a garage.

State troopers of the Benton Harbor post said the large tires appeared to have been thrown from a westbound truck. The tires were complete with rims.

The trucker was apparently unaware of his loss because troopers found no disabled truck and received no report from any drivers.

The tires struck the garage at the home of Bela G. Lindendorf, 4642 West Alice street, Stevensville, who reported the incident about 6:30 p.m. Damage to the garage was apparently minor.

Twin Cities Area Police Probe 6 Reported Thefts

Twin Cities area police investigated six reports of thefts in which goods valued at nearly $2,000 were reported stolen Wednesday.

Thefts reported to Benton Harbor police were:

—A tape recorder and portable television, valued at $590, from the residence of Vivian Jackson, 865 LaSalle avenue.

—Fishing rods and reels and a gasoline vapor detector, all valued at $490, from the boat of Gratton Nowlen, 1708 Niles avenue, St. Joseph, stored at 384 West Main street.

Betty Roberts, 5572 Fairview avenue, Stevensville, told St. Joseph police a citizens' band radio, valued at $219, was stolen from her car parked at a Heath company lot, Hilltop road.

Thefts investigated by Benton township police were:

—Two calculators, a height gauge and grinder motor, valued at more than $200, from State Tool & Gage company, 1300 Milton street.

—A four-speed transmission, valued at $230, from the residence of Larry Main, Route 4, Box 699.

—A citizens' band radio, value unknown, from the pickup of Donald Walley, 650 South Crystal avenue.

A second young man was arrested Wednesday in connection with the theft of a $1,200 portable police radio last December from the auto of St. Joseph township Police Chief Keith Mills.

Joe Merritt Churchill, 18, route 1, box 432C, Park road, Bainbridge township, was charged with larceny from a motor vehicle, state police of the Benton Harbor post reported.

Churchill and Michael Arthur Koroeh, 17, of 6100 East Empire avenue, Bainbridge township, arrested Tuesday on a charge of receiving and concealing stolen property, both demanded examinations yesterday in Berrien Fifth District court.

They were released on $1,000 personal recognizance bonds.

The radio was recovered after an intensive investigation by troopers and St. Joseph township police.

Benton Harbor police said they arrested a man Wednesday on a charge of resisting arrest when he allegedly fought with officers who were trying to determine his identity.

Police said the driver of a car stopped about 9:45 p.m. was taken to the police station for questioning when they believed he gave a false name. The man began fighting when Det. Sgt. Sam Watson and Det. Robert Massengale attempted to get the man's wallet to determine his identity. No one was injured in the scuffle, police reported.

Booked at the Berrien county jail was Nehemia Palmer, 21, of 547 North Stevens street, Benton Harbor. He was also charged with driving on a revoked license.

Saginaw Schools Fighting HEW

SAGINAW, Mich. (AP) — Saginaw school officials say they will take the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare to court if the agency tries to delay federal aid to the school district. HEW has indicated it will start proceedings against the school district unless school officials submit a satisfactory school integration plan for September 1976 or supply a rebuttal to HEW charges of racial discrimination.

Strike Shuts Ford Axle Plant

DETROIT (AP) — About 6,100 United Auto Workers union members struck a Ford Motor Co. Sterling Heights plant Wednesday in a dispute over health and safety grievances. The plant is the sole producer of axles and drive shafts for Ford cars, and a UAW spokesman said the union was well aware a prolonged strike could mean layoffs at other Ford plants. A Ford official declined to estimate how long it might be before the strike could lead to shutdowns elsewhere.

Saginaw Schools Fighting HEW

SAGINAW, Mich. (AP) — Saginaw school officials say they will take the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare to court if the agency tries to delay federal aid to the school district. HEW has indicated it will start proceedings against the school district unless school officials submit a satisfactory school integration plan for September 1976 or supply a rebuttal to HEW charges of racial discrimination.

Strike Shuts Ford Axle Plant

DETROIT (AP) — About 6,100 United Auto Workers union members struck a Ford Motor Co. Sterling Heights plant Wednesday in a dispute over health and safety grievances. The plant is the sole producer of axles and drive shafts for Ford cars, and a UAW spokesman said the union was well aware a prolonged strike could mean layoffs at other Ford plants. A Ford official declined to estimate how long it might be before the strike could lead to shutdowns elsewhere.

Market Pushes Ahead

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market pushed ahead again today, riding the momentum of its sharp gains in the past two sessions.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was up about a point in the early going at the 1,010 level.

Gainers took a 4-3 lead over losers in the over-all tally of New York Stock Exchange-listed issues.

Brokers said the Dow's Break above 1,000 Wednesday had encouraged some additional buying — but they also noted some signs of profit taking with the average at a three-year high.

Today's early prices included Reynolds Metals, up 1/8 at 40; Pfizer, ahead 1/2 at 30 1/2; General Electric, down 1/4 at 53 1/2; and United Technologies, 1/4 higher at 60 1/4.

On Wednesday, the Dow Jones industrial average closed at 1,009.21 after gaining 13.78 points. That was the Dow's highest close since Jan. 23, 1973, when it finished at 1,018.66.

New York Stock Exchange issues advancing in price led those declining by about a 5-2 margin.

Volume picked up to 32.61 million shares.

The NYSE composite index of all its listed common stocks rose .60 to 55.15.

At the American Stock Exchange, the market value index finished at 104.71, at .83 rise.

Urge State Quotas For Purchasing

DETROIT (AP) — The governor's Small Business Task Force has recommended greater state purchasing from small and minority businesses.

The contents of the report were released Wednesday by Lt. Gov. James Damman in a speech to the Booker T. Washington Business Association.

The task force, which Gov. William Milliken created last July, recommended that every state agency annually establish a percentage of its money to be spent with small and minority businesses.

Damman said the task force found a policy of "benign neglect" in state purchasing from small and minority businesses.

Other recommendations the force made, he said, include allowing small and minority businesses more time to prepare bids; speeding up the payment processes for these businesses; and encouraging state agencies to break up purchasing patterns that might restrict opportunities for these businesses.

Damman said the proposed program would run for two fiscal years and would then be reviewed.

Land Use Bills Fails Test Run

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — A major land use bill failed a test run in the House Appropriations Committee but will get another chance next week.

The committee defeated the measure, 7-3, Wednesday in a hurried vote held as soon as attendance was taken.

Only 10 of the panel's 18 members were present. And the committee member who sponsored the bill, Rep. Philip Mastin, D-Hazel Park, did not arrive until well after the vote was taken.

But Mastin said he did not take the vote seriously and indicated members were fooling around.

Committee members agreed immediately after the vote to reconsider it at their next meeting, probably next Wednesday. Rep. Dominic Jacobetti, D-Negaunee, chairman, said the vote was simply a "test run."

The bill would create a land use commission to coordinate local land use agencies and regulate the use of private land.

INVESTORS' GUIDE Sounds Very Much Like Someone 'Taken'

Q. My broker sold me 90 units of a real estate syndicate at $500 each, for a total of $45,000. He said he would resell them for me "any time," without any commission charge. Now he tells me he cannot sell them, but that another broker — a friend of his — can handle them for a fee of $3,500. What can you tell me?

A. I can start by saying that I know nothing of this real estate venture and that I have a strong suspicion you have been "taken."

A broker who turns you over to another broker to get out of a deal the first broker put you into is, to my mind, a suspicious character. Secondly, what's so special about the second broker that enables him to make the sale your first broker cannot make? Do you suppose it is because you are going to be hit with the bad news that your $45,000 investment is now worth considerably less — and your first broker doesn't want to face you with the story?

I repeat — I know nothing about this venture. These syndicates are generally private ventures, or nearly so. And you should have been told at the very start that your units are not readily liquid. You may need some legal help, too.

Q. I bought five convertible debentures of a merchandising corporation without really understanding what I was buying. I was told these bonds may be converted into stock. Will the company set a date for that conversion? And how will I profit by it? I paid 98 1/2% for the bonds. The due dates are far off and I fear I will lose by inflation. Furthermore, the interest rate is low.

A. A convertible bond gives you the right to convert it into a specified number of common shares of the company whenever you wish — until such time as the conversion privilege runs out.

Two Area Road Firms Are Low Bidders On State Jobs

LANSING — John G. Yerington Construction company, Benton Harbor, and Klett Construction company, Hartford, were low bidders on two road construction projects in southwestern Michigan, according to the state highways and transportation department.

Yerington was low bidder at $159,891 for resurfacing on US-12 for 1.6 miles from Galien, east; 1.4 miles of US-12 from

Your debenture is convertible into 16.67 shares of common stock until 1980, when the bond matures and the conversion privilege ends. If you now were to accept 16.67 shares of stock for each debenture you would be losing money because the shares are selling at around 37 and 16.67 shares of stock at 37 would come to far less than the market price of the bond.

So you do nothing — at least until such time as the conversion privilege would give you common shares worth more than the present price.

In a way, the debenture does offer you some protection against inflation since it is tied to the market price of the common stock. It is not necessary to convert in order to realize a profit. The debenture will rise with the common stock.

The interest rate is low than those obtainable from bonds issued today because money rates were much lower when your bonds were issued. The market price of the bond has adjusted to the current money market, so there would not be too much point in switching to other convertible of this same quality.

Q. I am about to retire with big profits from the sale of a farm. How can I escape capital gains taxes on this sale? Also, what do I do about some "garbage" stocks I acquired over the years — and still hold?

A. The gain on the farm is taxable no matter what you do with the proceeds. However, you can certainly cut the tax bite down by taking capital losses on the "garbage" stocks. And you should.

Benefits Reinstated By Court

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — The state Court of Appeals has reversed a worker's compensation ruling which had reduced payments for a man after he turned 65.

The court ruled that a law which existed between 1965 and 1968 discriminated against workers on the basis of age. Theodore Brown had his benefits cut under the law after he turned 65.

The case apparently has no effect on current recipients of worker's compensation benefits, since the law later was amended.

Brown was an employee at the Saginaw Metal Casting Plants of General Motors Corp., and was permanently and totally disabled in 1966 at the age of 62. When he turned 65, his benefits were trimmed under the law which reduced benefits by 5 per cent each year to a maximum reduction of 50 per cent by age 75.

At that time, however, the law did not reduce benefits for someone over the age of 65 if the worker was injured after that age. The court ruled the law discriminated against workers on the basis of age, and Brown's benefits should not have been reduced.

The decision reversed the ruling by the Workmen's Compensation Appeal Board and remanded the case back to the board.

In 1968, the law was changed so benefits are reduced after age 65 regardless of the age at which the worker was injured. The law does not apply to workers not eligible for Social Security.

The Court of Appeals, in another case, has ruled it is reasonable to reduce benefits after the age of 65 because of Social Security benefits becoming available. But a case challenging that ruling is now before the state Supreme Court.

Food Stamps — Wreck or Reform?

The Food Stamp Program is now under the heaviest attack ever both for real and alleged abuses — and there is now a clear danger that the program will be wrecked by the White House rather than reformed by Congress.

President Ford has literally taken the law into his own hands and ordered the Agriculture Department to issue regulations that would cut 5.3 million Americans off the program and would slash benefits for 5 to 6 million more. At the same time the President is side-stepping Congress entirely, the Senate Agriculture Committee has completed the extremely tough task of writing a new food stamp law out of the many proposals placed before it in recent months.

If the White House has its way, our lawmakers will play no part at all in decisions vital to millions of needy Americans. The situation will then become chaotic, for there will be two major program overhauls in a matter of months.

First, the President will change the law by executive fiat this June. Soon thereafter, when Congress decides how it wants the program to operate, there will be another complete upheaval.

Our states simply cannot handle this double administrative blow. The needy individual dependent on food stamps surely deserves a better deal than this!

While many of Ford's proposals are considered unworkable, three would do the most damage:

All food stamp recipients would have to pay 30 per cent of their income for food stamps (a plan rejected by Congress a year ago). This would mean, as an illustration, that an elderly woman living alone with a net income of $150 a month would have to pay $45 for $50 of food stamps, instead of the $33 she now pays.

Ford also wants the official poverty line to be the eligibility cutoff for food stamps. But the poverty line lags behind inflation by 12 to 24 months, and is hardly an adequate measure of the need for nutrition assistance. Those most hurt by this proposal would be the "working poor," who now get limited food-stamp help which decreases as their incomes rise.

And a third Ford proposal would base an applicant's eligibility for food stamps on earnings over the past three months instead of on current income (as is now the case). This proposal is aimed directly at the unemployed, would make applicants wait three months for help — and makes no sense at all. What difference is it to people just laid off what they earned three months ago? If they've managed to save a lot of money, the assets limitation would make them ineligible anyway. So with one hand, Ford vetoes a public jobs program, while with the other he would deny laid-off workers immediate food-stamp assistance.

As for Congress, the Senate will vote on its Agriculture Committee's food-stamp bill this month — and the full Senate could improve the legislation considerably.

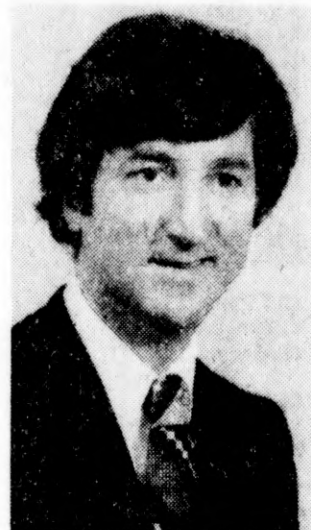

For instance, the committee was evenly split, 7-7, over whether to adopt a key proposal to eliminate the stamp purchase requirement. Under this, instead of a household paying $100 for $166 of food stamps, it would simply get its $66 "bonus" in stamps. This makes real sense, for more than half of the people below the poverty line don't use food stamps. The poorest of the poor can't scrape together the purchase price, and so they go without.

Another issue in the coming Senate debate is whether to give Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz the authority to tighten the assets limitation (what applicants can have in the bank, land, equipment, etc.) which must be passed by applicants to receive food stamps.

No one really knows how a change in the assets test would affect the elderly, the unemployed in need of only temporary help, or the small farmer seeking some assistance because of a bad crop. The committee bill proposes a study on this — in utter contradiction to the fact that the bill also would give the USDA the go-ahead to do anything it wants. Under the circumstances, the current assets rules should be "frozen" until Congress has all the facts.

You can comment on President Ford's proposals until March 29 by writing the Food Stamp Division, USDA, Washington, D.C. 20250. Tell your lawmakers and the administration what you think.

Creative Ad In H-P Wins Him Award

BUZZ PEREIRA
Award winner

Buzz Pereira, advertising account executive of The Herald-Palladium, has won an award for an ad that he created for Ron's Supermarkets of Scottsdale and Benton Heights.

The award is from Multi-Ad Services of Peoria, Ill., which each month selects the 14 best ideas submitted by salesmen across the country and reproduces them in one of the Multi-Ad Services' national publications.

Winners receive certificates as do the accounts which the winners serve.

It's the third time Pereira has won a national award. One was the grand opening ad for Cavalier Camera at Fairplain Plaza and the other while he was at The Daily Star in Niles. He has been with The Herald-Palladium two years.

Ads are judged for creative use and placement of artwork, borders and eye-catching headlines.

Pizza Hut Franchises Hit 2,300

WICHITA, Kan. — Pizza Hut, Inc. has announced the opening of its 2300th restaurant. The franchised unit is located in Jasper, Texas, a town of 6,300 located 110 miles northeast of Houston.

This opening brings the total number of company owned units to 1,224, with 1,076 units operated by Pizza Hut franchisees. Of the 2300 units, 100 are international units, franchise and company combined, representing Australia, Canada, Costa Rica, England, Guam, Guatemala, Japan, Mexico, the Netherlands, New Zealand and the Virgin Islands. The state of Texas leads the United States with the largest number of Pizza Hut restaurants, 258.

The Jasper, Texas unit is owned and operated by Pizza Management, Inc., the company's 10th largest franchise group.

The first Pizza Hut restaurant was opened in 1958 in Wichita, Kansas by brothers Frank and Dan Carney. A growth rate of one new Pizza Hut restaurant per day is currently held by the company and its franchisees.

Raquel Finds New Boyfriend

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Actress Raquel Welch is back in Brazil and the gossip columnists say the reason is a new boyfriend, Brazilian Paulo Pila.

Miss Welch first arrived in Brazil last month for a series of night club performances.

After her shows were over, she decided to stay on for the four-day pre-Lent carnival festivities and fell in love with Pila, a member of the Rio jet set.

IRONWOOD, Mich. (AP) — Gohogic Community College President James D. Perry has resigned, saying his decision was forced by harassment of his family during a teacher strike at the college last spring.

The college board of trustees offered Perry a new three-year contract last month, but Perry said his decision not to accept it was the outgrowth of "hours of deliberation, the seeds of which were sown months ago." He said during that period, "My family was incessantly harassed by parties known and unknown."
